52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, <sup>e</sup>bear thine own shame, for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more <sup>f</sup>righteous than thou; yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.
53 When I shall bring again their captivity, the <sup>g</sup>captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them;
54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art <sup>h</sup>a comfort unto them.
55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, <sup>i</sup>then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.
56 For thy sister Sodom was <sup>k</sup>not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride, 57 <sup>l</sup>Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which <sup>m</sup>despise thee round about.
58 Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the Lord.
59 For thus saith the Lord God, I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the <sup>n</sup>oath in breaking the covenant.
60 Nevertheless, I will <sup>o</sup>remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee <sup>p</sup>an everlasting covenant.
61 Then thou shalt remember thy ways and be <sup>q</sup>ashamed, when thou shalt receive <sup>r</sup>thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for <sup>s</sup>daughters, but not by thy <sup>t</sup>covenant.
62 And I will <sup>u</sup>establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt <sup>v</sup>know that I am the Lord;
63 That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and <sup>y</sup>never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am <sup>z</sup>pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

1 Under the parable of two eagles and a vine, 11 is shewed God's judgment upon Jerusalem for

Before CHRIST

for revolting from Babylon to Egypt. 22 God promiseth to plant the cedar of the gospel.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me,
saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto <sup>a</sup> the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, A great eagle with great wings, <sup>b</sup> long-winged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the <sup>c</sup> highest branch of the cedar:

4 He <sup>d</sup> dropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of <sup>e</sup> the seed of the land, and planted it in a <sup>f</sup> fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow-tree;

6 And it <sup>g</sup> grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also <sup>h</sup> another great eagle with great wings and many feathers; and, behold, this vine did <sup>i</sup> bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation

8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, Shall it <sup>k</sup> prosper? shall <sup>l</sup> he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither?
it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power, or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither when the <sup>m</sup> east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to the <sup>n</sup> rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, <sup>o</sup> the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 And hath taken of the <sup>p</sup> king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken <sup>q</sup> an oath of him: he hath also taken the <sup>r</sup> mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

15 But he rebelled against him, in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him <sup>s</sup> horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he <sup>t</sup> break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, <sup>u</sup> whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him, in the midst of Babylon, he shall <sup>v</sup> die.

army and great company, make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had <sup>x</sup> given his hand, <sup>y</sup> 2Chr. 30, 9. and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely <sup>z</sup> mine oath that he hath despised, <sup>a</sup> Josh. 9, 19.
and my covenant that he hath broken, <sup>b</sup> Sam. 21, 1.
even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will spread my <sup>c</sup> net upon him, <sup>d</sup> Josh. 10, 16.
and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will <sup>e</sup> Sam. 18, 9.
bring him to Babylon, and will <sup>f</sup> plead with him <sup>g</sup> chap. 12, 13.
there for his trespass that he hath trespassed <sup>h</sup> 2 Kings 29, against me.

shall fall by the sword, and they that remain <sup>k</sup> 5.
shall be scattered towards all winds; and ye shall know that I the Lord have spoken it.

22 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a <sup>l</sup> tender one, and will plant it upon an <sup>m</sup> Isa. 11, 1.

23 In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and <sup>r</sup> bear fruit, and be a <sup>s</sup> goodly cedar: and <sup>t</sup> under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell. <sup>u</sup> Ps. 72, 12.

24 And all the trees of the field shall <sup>y</sup> know <sup>z</sup> Psal. 9, 16.
that I the Lord have <sup>a</sup> brought down the high <sup>b</sup> Dan. 2, 44.
tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the <sup>c</sup> dry tree to flourish: I the Lord have spoken, and have done it. <sup>d</sup> Luke 1, 52.

8 He that hath not given forth upon <sup>p</sup>usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath <sup>a</sup>withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath <sup>a</sup>executed true judgment between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to <sup>a</sup>deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.

10 If he beget a son that is a robber, <sup>a</sup>a shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lift up his eyes to the idols, hath committed <sup>a</sup>abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely <sup>a</sup>die, his <sup>y</sup>blood shall be upon him.

14 Now, lo, if he <sup>a</sup>beget a son that <sup>a</sup>seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and <sup>b</sup>considereth, and <sup>a</sup>doeth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he <sup>a</sup>cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the <sup>a</sup>iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. <sup>a</sup>The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the <sup>a</sup>righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the <sup>b</sup>wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will <sup>a</sup>turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be <sup>a</sup>mentioned unto him: <sup>b</sup>in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 Have I any <sup>a</sup>pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God; and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 But when <sup>a</sup>the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and <sup>a</sup>committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his <sup>a</sup>righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass, that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 Yet <sup>a</sup>ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel, <sup>a</sup>Is not my way equal? are not <sup>a</sup>your ways unequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done, shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall <sup>a</sup>save his soul alive.

28 Because he <sup>a</sup>considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore I will <sup>a</sup>judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. <sup>a</sup>Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be <sup>y</sup>your ruin.

31 <sup>a</sup>Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you <sup>a</sup>a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I have <sup>b</sup>no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God; wherefore <sup>a</sup>turn yourselves, and live ye.

C H A P. XX.

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel. 5 He sheweth the story of their rebellions in Egypt, 10 in the wilderness, 27 and in the land. 33 He promiseth to gather them by the gospel. 45 Under the name of a forest, he sheweth the destruction of Jerusalem.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came <sup>a</sup> to inquire of the Lord, and <sup>b</sup> sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the Lord unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, <sup>c</sup> I will not be inquired of by you.

4 <sup>d</sup> Wilt thou judge them, son of man? wilt thou judge them? <sup>e</sup> cause them to know the abominations of their fathers;

5 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, <sup>f</sup> In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the <sup>g</sup> seed of the house of Jacob, and <sup>h</sup> made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the Lord your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had <sup>i</sup> espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which <sup>j</sup> is the <sup>k</sup> glory of all lands;

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the <sup>l</sup> abominations of his eyes, and <sup>m</sup> defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would <sup>n</sup> not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, <sup>o</sup> I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I wrought for my <sup>p</sup> name's sake, that it should not be polluted <sup>q</sup> before the heathen, among whom they <sup>r</sup> were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 Wherefore <sup>r</sup> I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the <sup>s</sup> wilderness:

11 And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which <sup>t</sup> if a man do, he shall even <sup>u</sup> live in them.

12 Moreover also, I gave them my sabbaths, to be <sup>v</sup> a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel <sup>x</sup> rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they <sup>y</sup> despised my judgments, which <sup>z</sup> if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would <sup>a</sup> pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 But <sup>b</sup> I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also I <sup>b</sup> lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which <sup>c</sup> is the glory of all lands;

16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their <sup>d</sup> heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make <sup>e</sup> an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, <sup>f</sup> Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols.

19 I am the Lord your God; <sup>g</sup> walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;

20 And <sup>h</sup> hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the Lord your God.

21 Notwithstanding the children <sup>i</sup> rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which <sup>j</sup> if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 Nevertheless <sup>k</sup> I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;

24 Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live:

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink-offerings.

29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you.

32 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you;

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out;

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:

38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God, Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight, for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

45 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

46 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt therein.

48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord God! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art <sup>o</sup> infamous and <sup>r</sup> much vexed.

6 Behold, the <sup>s</sup> princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they <sup>b</sup> set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger; in thee have they vexed <sup>i</sup> the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my <sup>b</sup> sabbaths.

9 In thee are men that <sup>i</sup> carry tales to shed blood; and in thee they <sup>m</sup> eat upon the mountains; in the midst of thee they commit <sup>n</sup> lewdness;

10 In thee have they <sup>o</sup> discovered their fathers' nakedness; in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

11 And one hath <sup>p</sup> committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee have they <sup>q</sup> taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast <sup>r</sup> forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

13 Behold, therefore, I have <sup>s</sup> smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy <sup>t</sup> blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine <sup>u</sup> hands be strong, in the days that <sup>x</sup> I shall deal with thee? I the Lord have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And I will <sup>y</sup> scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt <sup>z</sup> take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt <sup>a</sup> know that I am the Lord.

17 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become <sup>b</sup> dross: all they <sup>arc</sup> <sup>c</sup> brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are <sup>even</sup> the dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore, I will <sup>d</sup> gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, <sup>e</sup> to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and <sup>f</sup> blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the Lord have <sup>g</sup> poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is <sup>h</sup> not cleansed, nor <sup>i</sup> rained upon in the <sup>k</sup> day of indignation.

25 There is <sup>1</sup> a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have <sup>m</sup> devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have <sup>n</sup> violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference <sup>o</sup> between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like <sup>p</sup> wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And her prophets have <sup>q</sup> daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, <sup>r</sup> Thus saith the Lord God, when the Lord hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used <sup>s</sup> oppression, and <sup>t</sup> exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy; yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30 And I <sup>u</sup> sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the <sup>x</sup> gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah. 22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers. 36 The prophet reproveth the adulteries of them both, 45 and sheweth their judgments.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were <sup>a</sup> two women, the daughters of one mother;

3 And they <sup>b</sup> committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their <sup>c</sup> youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the <sup>d</sup> elder, and Aholibah her sister; and they were <sup>e</sup> mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the <sup>f</sup> Assyrians her neighbours.

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, <sup>g</sup> with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms <sup>h</sup> brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These<sup>k</sup> discovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword; and she became <sup>l</sup> famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was <sup>m</sup> more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She <sup>n</sup> doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both <sup>o</sup> one way;

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men <sup>p</sup> pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with <sup>q</sup> vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 And, as soon as she <sup>r</sup> saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the <sup>s</sup> Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom; and she was polluted with them, and her <sup>t</sup> mind was alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was <sup>u</sup> alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she <sup>v</sup> multiplied her whoredoms, <sup>v</sup> in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their † paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, <sup>z</sup> I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, <sup>a</sup> Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, waggons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, and helmet, round about: and <sup>b</sup> I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee <sup>c</sup> according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my <sup>d</sup> jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy <sup>e</sup> nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 They shall also <sup>f</sup> strip thee out of thy <sup>f</sup> clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

27 Thus will I make thy <sup>g</sup> lewdness to cease <sup>g</sup> from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the <sup>g</sup> land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them <sup>h</sup> whom <sup>h</sup> thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated:

29 And they shall deal with thee <sup>i</sup> hatefully, and shall take away <sup>k</sup> all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her <sup>m</sup> a cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord God, Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup <sup>n</sup> deep and large: thou shalt be <sup>n</sup> laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be <sup>o</sup> filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt even drink it, and <sup>r</sup> suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and <sup>r</sup> pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken <sup>r</sup> it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast <sup>t</sup> forgotten me, and <sup>t</sup> cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The Lord said moreover unto me, Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, <sup>u</sup> declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and <sup>v</sup> blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery; and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover, this they have done unto me: they have <sup>w</sup> defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, <sup>x</sup> then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came; for whom thou didst wash thyself, <sup>y</sup> paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon <sup>z</sup> a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set <sup>z</sup> mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being <sup>a</sup> at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort

1 God's vengeance for their insolence against the Jews, upon the Ammonites, 8 upon Moab and Seir, 12 upon Edom, 15 and upon the Philistines.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, <sup>a</sup>set thy face against the <sup>b</sup>Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God, Because thou saidst, <sup>c</sup>Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity:

4 Behold, therefore, I will deliver thee to the <sup>d</sup>men of the east for a possession, and they shall <sup>e</sup>set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they <sup>f</sup>shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make <sup>g</sup>Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites <sup>h</sup>a couching-place for flocks; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

6 For thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast <sup>i</sup>clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced <sup>j</sup>in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore, I will <sup>k</sup>stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 Thus saith the Lord God, Because that <sup>l</sup>Moab and <sup>m</sup>Seir do say, Behold, the <sup>n</sup>house of Judah is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will <sup>o</sup>open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim,

10 Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may <sup>p</sup>not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Thus saith the Lord God, Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by <sup>q</sup>taking vengeance, and hath greatly <sup>r</sup>offended, and revenged himself upon them:

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will <sup>s</sup>cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And I will <sup>t</sup>lay my vengeance upon Edom by <sup>u</sup>the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger, and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15 Thus saith the Lord God, Because the Philistines have dealt <sup>v</sup>by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy <sup>w</sup>it for the <sup>x</sup>old hatred;

16 Therefore, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the <sup>y</sup>Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea-coast.

17 And I will execute <sup>z</sup>a great vengeance upon them with <sup>a</sup>furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

1 Tyrus for insulting against Jerusalem is threatened.

7 The power of Nebuchadrezzar against her. 15 The mourning and astonishment of the sea at her fall.

AND it came to pass in the <sup>a</sup>eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, <sup>b</sup>Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people; she is turned <sup>c</sup>unto me; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause <sup>d</sup>many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the <sup>e</sup>walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be <sup>f</sup>a place for the spreading of nets in the <sup>g</sup>midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God; and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her <sup>h</sup>daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar, <sup>i</sup>a king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field; and he shall <sup>j</sup>make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 He shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, <sup>k</sup>as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make <sup>l</sup>a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy <sup>m</sup>merchandise; and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones, and thy timber, and thy dust, in the midst of the water.

24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market; and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

26 Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.

31 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth; and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, <sup>m</sup> What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 When thy <sup>n</sup> wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people: thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

1 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrus for his sacrilegious pride. 11 A lamentation of his great glory corrupted by sin. 20 The judgment of Zidon. 24 The restoration of Israel.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God, Because <sup>a</sup> thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, <sup>b</sup> I am a god, I <sup>c</sup> sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art <sup>d</sup> a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

3 Behold, thou art <sup>e</sup> wiser than Daniel: there is <sup>f</sup> no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast <sup>g</sup> gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 By thy great wisdom, and by thy traffic, hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up <sup>h</sup> because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, <sup>i</sup> Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore, I will bring <sup>j</sup> strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the <sup>k</sup> pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou <sup>m</sup> yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no god, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the <sup>n</sup> uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 <sup>o</sup> Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 12 Son of man, <sup>p</sup> take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God, Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every <sup>q</sup> precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the <sup>r</sup> anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast <sup>s</sup> perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, <sup>t</sup> till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the <sup>u</sup> multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God; and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty; thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I <sup>v</sup> will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may <sup>w</sup> behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy <sup>x</sup> sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffic; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee; and I will bring thee to <sup>y</sup> ashes upon the earth, in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be <sup>z</sup> a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 <sup>a</sup> Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, set thy face against <sup>b</sup> Zidon, and prophesy against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon: and I will be <sup>c</sup> glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall <sup>d</sup> know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly-wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

C H A P. XXXI.

1 A relation unto Pharaoh, 3 of the glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride. 18 The like destruction of Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut-trees were not like his branches; not any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his height is lifted up in his height;

11 I have, therefore, delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

15 Thus saith the Lord God, In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

3 Thus saith the Lord God, I will, therefore, spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saith the Lord God, The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them; and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the Lord.

16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her; they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword; she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 Asshur is there, and all her company: his graves are about him; all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 According to the duty of a watchman, in warning the people, 7 Ezekiel is admonished of his duty. 10 God sheweth the justice of his ways towards the penitent, and towards revolvers: 17 He maintaineth his justice. 21 Upon the news of the taking of Jerusalem, he prophesieth the desolation of the land. 30 God's judgment upon the mockers of the prophets.

A GAIN the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to the children of <sup>a</sup> thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their <sup>b</sup> watchman:

3 If, when he <sup>c</sup> seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and <sup>d</sup> warn the people;

4 Then whosoever <sup>e</sup> heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning, <sup>f</sup> his blood shall be upon him: but he that <sup>g</sup> taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away <sup>h</sup> in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word <sup>i</sup> at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, Thus ye speak, saying, <sup>k</sup> If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, <sup>l</sup> how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have <sup>m</sup> no pleasure in the death of the wicked; <sup>n</sup> but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the <sup>o</sup> righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he <sup>p</sup> turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his <sup>q</sup> righteousness in the day that he <sup>r</sup> sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely <sup>s</sup> live; if he <sup>t</sup> trust to his own righteousness and commit iniquity, all his righteousness shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely <sup>u</sup> die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is <sup>v</sup> lawful and right;

15 If the wicked <sup>w</sup> restore the pledge, give again that he hath robbed, walk in <sup>x</sup> the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

21 ¶ And it came to pass in <sup>f</sup>the twelfth year of our captivity, in the <sup>g</sup>tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the <sup>h</sup>hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came, and had <sup>i</sup>opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning, and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, <sup>k</sup>Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but <sup>l</sup>we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Ye eat with the <sup>m</sup>blood, and <sup>n</sup>lift up your eyes towards your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

26 <sup>o</sup>Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured; and they that be in the forts, and in the caves, shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the <sup>p</sup>pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they <sup>q</sup>know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are <sup>r</sup>talking against thee by the walls, and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

31 And they come unto thee <sup>s</sup>as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and <sup>t</sup>they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their <sup>u</sup>covetousness.

32 And, lo, thou art unto them as a very 33 And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that <sup>x</sup>a prophet hath been among them.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the <sup>a</sup>shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds, Wo be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed <sup>b</sup>themselves! should not the shepherds feed the <sup>c</sup>flocks?

3 Ye eat the <sup>d</sup>fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye <sup>e</sup>kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was <sup>f</sup>lost; but with <sup>g</sup>force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, because there is <sup>h</sup>no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field when they were scattered.

6 My sheep <sup>i</sup>wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did <sup>j</sup>search or seek after them.

7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, <sup>m</sup>I am against the shepherds; and I will <sup>n</sup>require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more: for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

12 <sup>p</sup>As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the <sup>q</sup>cloudy and dark day.

14 I will feed them <sup>a</sup> in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy <sup>a</sup> the fat and the strong; I will feed them with <sup>x</sup> judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the <sup>y</sup> he-goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have <sup>z</sup> eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

26 And I will make them, and the places round about <sup>h</sup> my hill, a <sup>i</sup> blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

27 And the <sup>k</sup> tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

28 And they shall <sup>l</sup> no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beasts of the land devour them: but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for <sup>m</sup> them a Plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the <sup>n</sup> house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord God.

31 And ye, my <sup>o</sup> flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your <sup>p</sup> God, saith the Lord God.

The judgment of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, <sup>a</sup> set thy face against <sup>b</sup> mount Seir, and <sup>c</sup> prophesy against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, O mount Seir, I am <sup>d</sup> against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate; and thou shalt <sup>e</sup> know that I am the LORD.

5 Because thou hast had <sup>f</sup> a perpetual hatred, and hast <sup>g</sup> shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will <sup>h</sup> prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast <sup>i</sup> not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that <sup>k</sup> passeth out, and him that returneth.

8 And I will <sup>l</sup> fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee <sup>m</sup> perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall <sup>n</sup> not return; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, <sup>o</sup> These two nations, and these two countries, shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas <sup>p</sup> the LORD was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will even do <sup>q</sup> according to thine anger, and according to thine envy, which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known <sup>r</sup> amongst them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have <sup>s</sup> heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have <sup>t</sup> boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord God, When the whole earth <sup>u</sup> rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 <sup>x</sup> As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

1 The army, 8 and malice of Gog: 14 God's judgment against him.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against <sup>a</sup> Gog, the land of Magog, the chief <sup>b</sup> prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am <sup>e</sup> against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

4 And I will <sup>d</sup> turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords.

5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

6 <sup>e</sup> Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands; and many people with thee.

7 Be thou <sup>g</sup> prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 <sup>h</sup> After many days thou shalt be visited: in the <sup>i</sup> latter years thou shalt <sup>k</sup> come into the land that is <sup>l</sup> brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell <sup>m</sup> safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt <sup>n</sup> ascend and come like a storm; thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think <sup>o</sup> an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of <sup>p</sup> unwall'd villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,

12 To take <sup>q</sup> a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have <sup>r</sup> gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, <sup>s</sup> Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God, In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou <sup>t</sup> not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and <sup>u</sup> many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the <sup>v</sup> latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be <sup>y</sup> sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God, Art thou he <sup>z</sup> of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years, that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come <sup>a</sup> up in my face.

19 For in my jealousy, and in the fire of my wrath, have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be <sup>b</sup> a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, <sup>c</sup> shall shake at my presence; and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will <sup>d</sup> call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God: every man's sword shall be <sup>e</sup> against his brother.

22 And I will <sup>f</sup> plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will <sup>g</sup> rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire and brimstone.

23 Thus will I <sup>h</sup> magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations; and they <sup>i</sup> shall know that I am the LORD.

is with thee: I will give thee unto the <sup>a</sup> ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field, to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon the † open field; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 And I will send <sup>a</sup> a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the § isles; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them <sup>b</sup> pollute my holy name any more; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

8 Behold, <sup>i</sup> it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this <sup>k</sup> is the day whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall <sup>l</sup> go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the hand-staves and the spears, and they shall <sup>m</sup> burn them with fire seven years.

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down <sup>n</sup> any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall <sup>a</sup> spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the <sup>o</sup> east of the sea; and it shall stop the <sup>oses</sup> of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog, and all his multitude; and they shall call it, The valley of Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may <sup>p</sup> cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them † a renown, the day that I shall be <sup>q</sup> glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall <sup>r</sup> sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land, to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when <sup>n</sup> any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 ¶ And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God, Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my <sup>s</sup> sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may <sup>t</sup> eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them <sup>u</sup> fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with <sup>a</sup> horses and chariots, † with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 ¶ And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall <sup>z</sup> see my judgment that I have executed, and <sup>a</sup> my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and forward.

23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their <sup>b</sup> iniquity: because they trespassed against me, <sup>c</sup> therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies; so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness, and according to their transgressions, have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, <sup>d</sup> Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the <sup>e</sup> whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their <sup>f</sup> trespasses, whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am <sup>g</sup> sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have <sup>h</sup> gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

29 Neither will I hide my face <sup>i</sup> any more from them: for I have <sup>k</sup> poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

I N the <sup>a</sup> five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year <sup>b</sup> after that the city was smitten, in the self-same day the <sup>c</sup> hand of the Lord was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon <sup>d</sup> a very high mountain, by which <sup>e</sup> was as the frame of <sup>a</sup> a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was <sup>f</sup> a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of § brass, with <sup>h</sup> a line of flax in his hand, and <sup>i</sup> a measuring-reed; and he stood <sup>k</sup> in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and <sup>l</sup> set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee <sup>art</sup> thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And, behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring-reed of six cubits long, by the cubit; and an hand-breadth: so he measured <sup>a</sup> the breadth of the building one reed, and the <sup>a</sup> height one reed.

6 Then came he unto the <sup>o</sup> gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the <sup>p</sup> threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad, and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every <sup>a</sup> little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate, by the porch of the gate within, was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate <sup>r</sup> within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side; and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the <sup>a</sup> court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance, unto the face of the porch of the inner gate, were fifty cubits.

16 And there were † narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches; and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm-trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were <sup>t</sup> chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the <sup>u</sup> pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates, over against the length of the gates, was the <sup>x</sup> lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth, from the fore-front of the lower gate unto the † fore-front of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 And the gate of the outward court, that † looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side, and three on that side; and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm-trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh towards the east; and they <sup>y</sup> went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he <sup>z</sup> measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 After that he brought me toward the south, and, behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures.

25 And there were <sup>a</sup> windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little <sup>b</sup> chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the || arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad:

31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and <sup>c</sup> palm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures; and there were windows therein, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side and on that side: and the going up to it had <sup>d</sup> eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures:

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers, and the entries thereof, were by the posts of the gates, where they <sup>e</sup> washed the burnt-offering.

39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt-offering, and the sin-offering, and the <sup>f</sup> trespass-offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the <sup>g</sup> singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate, having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the <sup>h</sup> keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the <sup>i</sup> altar: these are the sons of <sup>k</sup> Zadok, among the sons of Levi, which come <sup>i</sup> near to the Lord to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, four-square, and the altar that was before the house.

48 And he brought me to <sup>m</sup> the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits: and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it; and there were <sup>n</sup> pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

C H A P. XLI.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD <sup>a</sup> he brought me to the <sup>b</sup> temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the <sup>c</sup> breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the <sup>d</sup> door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side; and he measured the <sup>e</sup> length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door two cubits, and the door six cubits, and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, <sup>f</sup> twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple; and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house six cubits; and the breadth of every <sup>g</sup> side-chamber four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they <sup>h</sup> entered into the wall, which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was an enlarging and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so <sup>i</sup> increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, <sup>k</sup> one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place, at the end toward the west, was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the <sup>l</sup> galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 The door-posts, and the <sup>m</sup> narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, ceiled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house and without, and by all the wall round about, within and without, by measure.

18 And it was made with cherubims and <sup>n</sup> palm-trees, so that a palm-tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every <sup>o</sup> cherub had two faces;

19 So that the <sup>p</sup> face of a man was toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm-tree on the other side:

it was made through all the house round about.
20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm-trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The <sup>a</sup> posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The <sup>a</sup> altar of wood was <sup>a</sup> three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the <sup>a</sup> table that is before the LORD.

23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the <sup>a</sup> doors of the temple, cherubims and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were narrow windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the <sup>a</sup> side-chambers of the house, and thick planks.

1 The chambers for the priests. 13 The use thereof.
19 The measures of the outward court.

THEN <sup>a</sup> he brought me forth into the <sup>b</sup> outer court, the way toward the north, and he brought me into the <sup>c</sup> chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was † gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was <sup>a</sup> a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit: and their doors toward the north.

5 Now, the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were <sup>c</sup> higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the <sup>f</sup> wall that was without over against the chambers, towards the outer court on the fore-part of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the outer court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings-out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall <sup>a</sup> eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their <sup>b</sup> garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now, when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and <sup>i</sup> measured it round about.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring-reed, five hundred reeds, with the <sup>b</sup> measuring-reed round about.

17 He measured the north side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed round about.

18 He measured the south side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

19 He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east:

2 And, behold, <sup>a</sup> the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east; and his <sup>b</sup> voice was like a noise of many waters: and the <sup>c</sup> earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was <sup>d</sup> according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came <sup>e</sup> to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house, by the way of the gate whose † prospect is toward the east.

5 So the <sup>f</sup> spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

shall the house of Israel <sup>1</sup> no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places; <sup>8</sup> In their setting of their <sup>k</sup> threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them; they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

<sup>9</sup> Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

<sup>10</sup> Thou son of man, <sup>m</sup> shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern.

<sup>11</sup> And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, <sup>n</sup> shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings-out thereof, and the comings-in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof; and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

<sup>13</sup> And these are the measures of the <sup>q</sup> altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand-breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

<sup>14</sup> And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

<sup>15</sup> So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns.

<sup>16</sup> And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

<sup>17</sup> And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long, and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his <sup>r</sup> stairs shall look toward the east.

<sup>18</sup> And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God, These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

<sup>22</sup> And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

<sup>27</sup> And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your <sup>a</sup> peace-offerings; and I will <sup>b</sup> accept you, saith the Lord God.

C H A P. XLIV.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary, which looketh toward the east, and it was shut.

<sup>2</sup> Then said the Lord unto me, This gate shall be <sup>a</sup> shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the Lord, the God of Israel, <sup>b</sup> hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

<sup>4</sup> Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord; and I fell upon my face.

<sup>5</sup> And the Lord said unto me, Son of man, <sup>e</sup> mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

<sup>6</sup> And thou shalt say to the <sup>f</sup> rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, O ye house of Israel, let it <sup>g</sup> suffice you of all your abominations, <sup>7</sup> In that ye have brought into my sanctuary, <sup>h</sup> strangers, uncircumcised in <sup>i</sup> heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer <sup>k</sup> my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

10 And the <sup>a</sup> Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even <sup>a</sup> bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be <sup>p</sup> ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel <sup>a</sup> to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lift up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my † holy things, in the most holy place; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed:

14 But I will make them <sup>r</sup> keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of <sup>a</sup> Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall <sup>t</sup> come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table to minister unto me, and they shall <sup>u</sup> keep my charge.

17 And it shall come to pass, that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with <sup>x</sup> linen garments; and no <sup>y</sup> wool shall come upon them whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have <sup>z</sup> linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth <sup>a</sup> sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall

20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow <sup>c</sup> long; they shall <sup>d</sup> only poll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest <sup>e</sup> drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, or her that is <sup>f</sup> put away: but they shall take <sup>g</sup> maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference <sup>h</sup> between the holy and profane, and cause men to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it <sup>i</sup> according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: <sup>j</sup> but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And <sup>k</sup> after he is cleansed they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin-offering, saith the Lord God.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance; <sup>m</sup> I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every <sup>n</sup> dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the first of all <sup>o</sup> the first-fruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall <sup>p</sup> not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

C H A P. XLV.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince. 9 Ordinances for the prince.

MOREOVER, when ye shall divide by lot the land <sup>a</sup> for inheritance, ye shall <sup>b</sup> offer an oblation unto the Lord, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the <sup>c</sup> sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the † most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the Lord; and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the <sup>d</sup> ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers.

6 And ye shall appoint <sup>e</sup> the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 And a portion shall be for the <sup>f</sup> prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the <sup>g</sup> west side westward, and from the east side eastward; and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and <sup>h</sup> my princes shall no more <sup>i</sup> oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

¶ The Book of DANIEL.

C H A P. I.

1 Jehoiakim's captivity. 3 Ashpenaz taketh Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 8 They refuseth the king's portion, do prosper with pulse and water. 17 Their excellency in wisdom.

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with a part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar, to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children in whom was no blemish, but well-favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank; so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah;

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel, the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king?

11 Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat; and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse.

17 As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now, at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them: and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

C H A P. II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans, by promises and threatenings.

10 They acknowledging their inability, are judged to die. 14 Daniel obtaining some respite, findeth the dream: 19 He blesseth God: 24 He staying the decree, is brought to the king. 31 The dream. 36 The interpretation. 46 Daniel's advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

2 Then the king commanded <sup>d</sup> to call <sup>e</sup> the magicians, and the astrologers, and the <sup>f</sup> sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for <sup>g</sup> to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled <sup>h</sup> to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriac, O king, live for ever: <sup>i</sup> tell thy servants the dream, and <sup>k</sup> we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be <sup>l</sup> cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dungbill:

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me <sup>m</sup> gifts, and rewards, and great honour: therefore shew me the dream and the interpretation thereof.

7 They <sup>n</sup> answered again, and said, Let the king <sup>o</sup> tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would <sup>p</sup> gain the time, <sup>q</sup> because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but <sup>r</sup> one decree for you; for ye have prepared <sup>s</sup> lying and corrupt words to speak before me till the <sup>t</sup> time be changed; therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, <sup>u</sup> that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth; and there is none other that can shew it before the king except the gods, whose dwelling <sup>v</sup> is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and <sup>w</sup> very furious, and commanded to destroy <sup>x</sup> all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the <sup>y</sup> decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they <sup>z</sup> sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 <sup>b</sup> Then Daniel answered <sup>c</sup> with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why <sup>d</sup> is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch <sup>e</sup> made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him <sup>f</sup> time, and that he would <sup>g</sup> shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his <sup>h</sup> house, and made the thing <sup>i</sup> known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions;

18 That they would <sup>j</sup> desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret, that Daniel and his fellows should not perish <sup>k</sup> with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 <sup>l</sup> Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, <sup>m</sup> Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever; <sup>n</sup> for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he <sup>o</sup> removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth <sup>p</sup> wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 He <sup>q</sup> revealeth the deep and secret things: he <sup>r</sup> knoweth what is in the darkness, and the <sup>s</sup> light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what <sup>t</sup> we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 Therefore Daniel <sup>u</sup> went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him, <sup>v</sup> Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the <sup>w</sup> captives of Judah that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered, and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, <sup>x</sup> Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded, <sup>y</sup> cannot the wise men, the astrologians, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

28 But there is <sup>z</sup> a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29 (As for thee, O king, thy <sup>a</sup> thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed what should come to pass hereafter; and he that revealeth secrets maketh <sup>b</sup> known to thee what shall come to pass:

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me <sup>c</sup> for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart;)

31 Thou, O king, sawest, and, behold, a great <sup>d</sup> image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and the form thereof was <sup>e</sup> terrible.

32 This <sup>f</sup> image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass.

33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest <sup>k</sup> till that <sup>l</sup> a stone was cut out <sup>m</sup> without hands, which smote the image upon his feet, that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, <sup>n</sup> broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, that <sup>o</sup> no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became <sup>p</sup> a great mountain, and <sup>q</sup> filled the whole earth.

36 <sup>r</sup> This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art <sup>s</sup> a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath <sup>t</sup> given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art <sup>u</sup> this <sup>u</sup> head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise <sup>x</sup> another kingdom, <sup>y</sup> inferior to thee, and another <sup>z</sup> third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the <sup>a</sup> fourth kingdom shall be <sup>b</sup> strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that <sup>c</sup> breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes part of <sup>d</sup> potter's clay and part of iron, the kingdom shall be <sup>e</sup> divided; but there shall be in it of <sup>f</sup> the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay; so the kingdom shall be partly <sup>g</sup> strong, and partly <sup>h</sup> broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they <sup>i</sup> shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up <sup>k</sup> a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall <sup>l</sup> break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall <sup>m</sup> stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the <sup>n</sup> stone was cut out of the mountain <sup>o</sup> without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king <sup>p</sup> what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is <sup>q</sup> certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and <sup>r</sup> worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should <sup>s</sup> offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king <sup>t</sup> answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is that <sup>u</sup> your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel <sup>v</sup> a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he <sup>w</sup> set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel <sup>x</sup> sat in the <sup>y</sup> gate of the king.

C H A P. III.

1 Nebuchadnezzar dedicateth a golden image in Dura. 8 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, are accused for not worshipping the image. 13 They being threatened, make a good confession.

19 God delivereth them out of the furnace. 26 Nebuchadnezzar seeing the miracle, blesseth God.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR <sup>a</sup> the king made <sup>b</sup> an image of gold, whose height was <sup>c</sup> three-score cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the <sup>d</sup> plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent <sup>e</sup> to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the <sup>f</sup> dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the <sup>g</sup> princes, the governors and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they <sup>h</sup> stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then an herald <sup>i</sup> cried aloud, To you it is <sup>k</sup> commanded, O people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and <sup>l</sup> all kinds of music, ye <sup>m</sup> fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up:

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall the <sup>n</sup> same hour be cast into the midst of a <sup>o</sup> burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all <sup>p</sup> the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 Wherefore <sup>q</sup> at that time certain Chaldeans came near and <sup>r</sup> accused the Jews.

9 They spake, and said <sup>s</sup> to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, <sup>t</sup> live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a <sup>u</sup> decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And <sup>x</sup> whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are <sup>y</sup> certain Jews, whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: <sup>z</sup> these men, O king,

O king, have <sup>a</sup> not regarded thee; they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, in his <sup>b</sup> rage and fury, commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they <sup>c</sup> brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said unto them, <sup>d</sup> Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego? do not ye serve <sup>e</sup> my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now, if ye be ready, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a fiery furnace: and <sup>f</sup> who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, <sup>g</sup> answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, <sup>h</sup> we are not careful to answer thee <sup>i</sup> in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God, whom we serve, <sup>j</sup> is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and <sup>k</sup> he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if <sup>l</sup> not, be it <sup>m</sup> known unto thee, O king, <sup>n</sup> that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship thy golden image which thou hast set up.

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar <sup>o</sup> full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one <sup>p</sup> seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to <sup>q</sup> bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and <sup>r</sup> were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore, because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire <sup>s</sup> slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, <sup>t</sup> fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was <sup>u</sup> astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have <sup>v</sup> no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like <sup>w</sup> the <sup>x</sup> Son of God.

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, <sup>y</sup> ye servants of the most high God, <sup>z</sup> come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw <sup>a</sup> these men, upon whose bodies the fire had <sup>b</sup> no power, nor was <sup>c</sup> an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake and said, <sup>d</sup> Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that <sup>e</sup> trusted in him, and have <sup>f</sup> changed the king's word, and <sup>g</sup> yielded their bodies, that they might <sup>h</sup> not serve nor worship any god except <sup>i</sup> their own God.

29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god that <sup>j</sup> can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king <sup>k</sup> promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

CHAP. IV.

1 Nebuchadnezzar confesseth God's kingdom, 4 maketh relation of his dream, which the magicians could not interpret. 8 Daniel heareth the dream: 19 He interpreteth it: 28 The story of the event.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, <sup>a</sup> unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; <sup>b</sup> Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 <sup>c</sup> I thought it good to shew <sup>d</sup> the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought <sup>e</sup> toward me.

3 How great are his signs! and <sup>f</sup> how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is <sup>g</sup> from generation to generation.

4 I Nebuchadnezzar was <sup>h</sup> at rest in mine house, and <sup>i</sup> flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head <sup>j</sup> troubled me.

6 Therefore made I <sup>k</sup> a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that <sup>l</sup> they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did <sup>m</sup> not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 But <sup>n</sup> at the last Daniel came in before me, (whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the <sup>o</sup> name of my god, and in whom is the <sup>p</sup> spirit of the holy gods,) and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is <sup>q</sup> in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my my bed : I saw, and, behold, <sup>a</sup> a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof <sup>was</sup> <sup>1</sup> great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof <sup>reached</sup> unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth.

12 The leaves thereof <sup>were</sup> fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it <sup>was</sup> meat for all : the <sup>beasts</sup> of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

16 Let his <sup>e</sup> heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him ; and let

17 This matter <sup>is</sup> by the <sup>i</sup> decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones ; to the intent that the living may <sup>know</sup> that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the <sup>i</sup> basest of men.

19 Then Daniel, (whose name <sup>was</sup> <sup>b</sup> Belteshazzar,) <sup>was</sup> <sup>p</sup> astonished for one hour, and his thoughts <sup>troubled</sup> him. The king spake and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream <sup>be</sup> to them that <sup>hate</sup> thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The <sup>a</sup> tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth ;

21 Whose <sup>leaves</sup> <sup>were</sup> fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it <sup>was</sup> meat for all ; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation :

22 It <sup>is</sup> <sup>a</sup> thou, O king, that art grown and become strong : for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one <sup>coming</sup> down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it ; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass in the tender grass of the field ; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and <sup>let</sup> his portion <sup>be</sup> with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him ;

24 This <sup>is</sup> the interpretation, O king, and this <sup>is</sup> the decree of <sup>y</sup> the Most High, which is come upon my lord the <sup>king</sup> :

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou <sup>know</sup> that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots ; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, <sup>after</sup> that thou shalt have known that the <sup>e</sup> heavens do rule.

27 <sup>d</sup> Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor ; if it may be <sup>a</sup> a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ <sup>f</sup> All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the <sup>end</sup> of twelve months he walked in the <sup>palace</sup> of the kingdom of Babylon.

32 And they shall <sup>drive</sup> thee from men, and thy dwelling <sup>shall be</sup> with the beasts of the field : they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The <sup>same</sup> hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar : and he was driven from men, and did <sup>eat</sup> grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth <sup>are</sup> reputed <sup>a</sup> as nothing : and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and <sup>among</sup> the inhabitants of the earth ; and none <sup>d</sup> can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou ?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me ; and, for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me ; and my <sup>c</sup> counsellors and my lords sought unto me ; and I was established in my kingdom ; and excellent majesty <sup>was</sup> <sup>added</sup> unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol

11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and, in the days of thy father, light, and understanding, and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; v Col. 1, 29.

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and a dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee; and that light, and understanding, and excellent wisdom, is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee that thou canst make interpretations and dissolve doubts: now, if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour.

19 And, for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive, and whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.

<sup>c</sup> accounts unto them, and the king should have

3 Then this Daniel was <sup>d</sup> preferred above the presidents and princes, <sup>e</sup> because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then <sup>f</sup> the presidents and princes <sup>g</sup> sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could <sup>h</sup> find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any <sup>i</sup> error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We <sup>k</sup> shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find <sup>l</sup> it against him concerning the <sup>m</sup> law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes <sup>n</sup> assembled together <sup>o</sup> to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

vernors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have <sup>q</sup> consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any <sup>r</sup> god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, <sup>s</sup> establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which <sup>t</sup> altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius <sup>u</sup> signed the writing and the decree.

10 Now when Daniel <sup>v</sup> knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and, his <sup>w</sup> windows being open in his chamber <sup>x</sup> toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his <sup>y</sup> knees three times a-day, and prayed, <sup>z</sup> and gave thanks before his God, <sup>a</sup> as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and <sup>b</sup> found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 <sup>c</sup> Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a <sup>d</sup> petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, <sup>e</sup> The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they, and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the <sup>f</sup> children of the captivity of Judah, <sup>g</sup> regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a-day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and <sup>h</sup> set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he laboured <sup>i</sup> till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the <sup>k</sup> law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 <sup>l</sup> Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and <sup>m</sup> cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel,
will deliver thee.

17 And <sup>p</sup> a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet; and with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be <sup>q</sup> changed concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king <sup>r</sup> went to his palace, and passed the night <sup>s</sup> fasting: neither were instruments of music brought before him; and his <sup>t</sup> sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose <sup>u</sup> very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel; and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, <sup>x</sup> servant of the living God, is thy <sup>y</sup> God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his <sup>z</sup> angel, and <sup>a</sup> hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as <sup>b</sup> before him innocency was found in me; and also <sup>c</sup> before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king <sup>d</sup> exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and <sup>e</sup> no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he <sup>f</sup> believed in his God.

24 And the king commanded, and they brought <sup>g</sup> those men which had accused Daniel,

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a <sup>v</sup> dream, and visions of his head upon his bed: then he <sup>w</sup> wrote the dream, <sup>x</sup> and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the <sup>y</sup> four winds of the heaven strove upon the <sup>z</sup> great sea.

3 And <sup>aa</sup> four great beasts <sup>ab</sup> came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first <sup>ac</sup> was <sup>ad</sup> like a lion, and had eagles' wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and <sup>ad</sup> made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And, behold, another beast, <sup>ae</sup> a second, like to <sup>af</sup> a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and <sup>ag</sup> it had <sup>ah</sup> three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and <sup>ah</sup> they said thus unto it, Arise, <sup>ah</sup> devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo, <sup>ai</sup> another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl: the beast had also <sup>aj</sup> four heads; and dominion was given to it.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another <sup>ao</sup> little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn <sup>ap</sup> were eyes like the eyes of man, and <sup>aq</sup> a mouth <sup>ar</sup> speaking great things.

10 <sup>ba</sup> A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: <sup>ba</sup> thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the <sup>bb</sup> books were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake; I beheld, <sup>bb</sup> even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the <sup>bc</sup> burning flame.

12 As concerning the <sup>bd</sup> rest of the beasts, they had their <sup>bd</sup> dominion taken away: yet their lives were <sup>be</sup> prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, <sup>bf</sup> one like the <sup>bf</sup> Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, <sup>bg</sup> and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given him <sup>bh</sup> dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion <sup>bi</sup> is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom <sup>bj</sup> that which shall not be destroyed.

15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of <sup>bk</sup> my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I <sup>bl</sup> came near unto one of them that stood by, and <sup>bl</sup> asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and <sup>bm</sup> made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, <sup>bn</sup> are four <sup>bn</sup> kings, <sup>bo</sup> which shall <sup>bo</sup> arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom, and <sup>bp</sup> possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

20 And <sup>bt</sup> of the ten horns that <sup>bt</sup> were in his head, and <sup>bt</sup> of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even <sup>bu</sup> of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, <sup>bv</sup> whose look <sup>bv</sup> was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn <sup>bv</sup> made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and <sup>bw</sup> judgment was given to the saints of the Most High; and <sup>bx</sup> the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the <sup>by</sup> fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall <sup>bz</sup> devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom <sup>ca</sup> are <sup>ca</sup> ten kings <sup>ca</sup> that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak <sup>cb</sup> great words <sup>cb</sup> against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and think to <sup>cc</sup> change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand, <sup>cd</sup> until a time and times and the dividing of time.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Daniel's vision of the ram, and he-goat. 13 The two thousand three hundred days of sacrifice. 15 Gabriel comforteth Daniel, and interpreteth the vision.

IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; (and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam;) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he-goat came from the west, on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones, toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days: afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

for the restoration of Jerusalem. 20 Gabriel informeth him of the seventy weeks.

IN the first year of Darius, the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood <sup>a</sup> by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish <sup>b</sup> seventy years in the <sup>c</sup> desolations of Jerusalem.

3 And I set my face unto the Lord God, <sup>d</sup> to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and <sup>e</sup> made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and <sup>f</sup> mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We have <sup>g</sup> sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgments:

6 Neither have we <sup>h</sup> hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness belongeth <sup>i</sup> unto thee; but unto us <sup>k</sup> confusion of faces, as at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are <sup>l</sup> near, and that are <sup>m</sup> far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, <sup>n</sup> to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God <sup>o</sup> belong mercies and forgivenesses, <sup>p</sup> though we have rebelled against him:

10 Neither have we obeyed <sup>q</sup> the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, <sup>r</sup> all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the <sup>s</sup> curse is poured upon us, and the oath that <sup>t</sup> is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath <sup>u</sup> confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: <sup>v</sup> for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done <sup>w</sup> upon Jerusalem.

13 As <sup>x</sup> it is <sup>y</sup> written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: <sup>z</sup> yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD <sup>a</sup> watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God <sup>b</sup> is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not <sup>c</sup> his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that <sup>d</sup> hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee <sup>e</sup> renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all <sup>f</sup> thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, <sup>g</sup> Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now, therefore, O our <sup>h</sup> God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, <sup>i</sup> for the LORD's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee <sup>j</sup> for our righteousnesses, but for <sup>k</sup> thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken, and do; <sup>l</sup> defer not, for <sup>m</sup> thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 And <sup>n</sup> whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I <sup>o</sup> was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly <sup>p</sup> swift-ly, touched me about the time of the <sup>q</sup> evening oblation.

22 And he <sup>r</sup> informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the <sup>s</sup> beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew <sup>t</sup> thee; for thou <sup>u</sup> art <sup>v</sup> greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to <sup>w</sup> make an end of sins, and to make <sup>x</sup> reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in <sup>y</sup> everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to <sup>z</sup> anoint the Most Holy.

25 <sup>a</sup> Know, therefore, and understand, <sup>b</sup> that from the <sup>c</sup> going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem, unto the <sup>d</sup> Messiah the Prince, shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall <sup>e</sup> Messiah be <sup>f</sup> cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall <sup>g</sup> destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27 And he shall <sup>h</sup> confirm the covenant with many for one week. and in the midst of the week he shall <sup>i</sup> cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations <sup>j</sup> he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that <sup>k</sup> determined, shall be poured upon the desolate.

C H A P. X.

1 Daniel having humbled himself, seeth a vision: 10 being troubled with fear; he is comforted by the angel.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel;

5 Then I lift up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words, like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands:

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee; be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

C H A P. XI.

1 The overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia. 5 Leagues and conflicts between the kings of the south and of the north. 30 The invasion and tyranny of the Romans.

ALSO I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia: and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides those.

5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against thee, and shall prevail;

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be <sup>p</sup> stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and <sup>ones</sup> shall certainly <sup>a</sup> come, and overflow, and pass through; then shall he return, and be stirred up, <sup>even</sup> to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, <sup>even</sup> with the king of the north: and he shall set forth <sup>r</sup> a great multitude; but the multitude shall be <sup>s</sup> given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, <sup>t</sup> his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall <sup>u</sup> cast down <sup>many</sup> ten thousands: but he shall <sup>x</sup> not be strengthened <sup>by it</sup>.

13 For the king of <sup>y</sup> the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude <sup>z</sup> greater than the former, and shall <sup>certainly</sup> come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the <sup>a</sup> robbers of thy people shall <sup>exalt</sup> themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most <sup>b</sup> fenced cities; and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his <sup>c</sup> chosen people, neither shall <sup>there be</sup> any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and <sup>d</sup> none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the <sup>e</sup> glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also <sup>f</sup> set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall <sup>g</sup> give him the daughter of women, <sup>z</sup> corrupting her; but she shall not stand <sup>on his side</sup>, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the <sup>h</sup> isles, and shall take many; but a prince <sup>i</sup> for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause <sup>it</sup> <sup>k</sup> to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face towards the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and <sup>l</sup> not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes <sup>in the glory of the kingdom</sup>: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger nor in battle.

21 And in his estate shall stand up <sup>m</sup> a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom <sup>n</sup> by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from <sup>o</sup> before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the <sup>p</sup> covenant.

24 He shall enter <sup>s</sup> peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do <sup>that</sup> which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall <sup>t</sup> scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches; <sup>yea</sup>, and he shall <sup>u</sup> forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with <sup>x</sup> a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall <sup>y</sup> destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak <sup>z</sup> lies at one table; but it shall <sup>a</sup> not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the <sup>b</sup> holy covenant; and he shall do <sup>exploits</sup> and return to his own land.

29 At the time <sup>c</sup> appointed he shall return, and come toward the south: but it shall not be <sup>d</sup> as the former, or as the latter.

30 For the ships of <sup>e</sup> Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have <sup>f</sup> indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and <sup>g</sup> have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

32 And such as <sup>k</sup> do wickedly against the covenant shall be corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do <sup>l</sup> know their God shall be strong, and do <sup>exploits</sup>.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with <sup>p</sup> a little help: but many shall cleave to them with <sup>q</sup> flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, <sup>r</sup> to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, <sup>even</sup> to the time of the end: because <sup>s</sup> it is yet for <sup>a</sup> time appointed.

36 And <sup>t</sup> the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and <sup>u</sup> magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the <sup>v</sup> desire of women, nor regard <sup>w</sup> any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces; and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour <sup>x</sup> with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and <sup>y</sup> pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with <sup>z</sup> a <sup>a</sup> strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for <sup>b</sup> gain.

C H A P. XII.

1 Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles.

5 Daniel is informed of the times.

AND <sup>a</sup> at that time shall <sup>b</sup> Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be <sup>c</sup> delivered, every one that shall be found <sup>d</sup> written in the book.

2 And many of them that <sup>e</sup> sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to <sup>f</sup> everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting <sup>g</sup> contempt.

3 And they that be <sup>h</sup> wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that <sup>i</sup> turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and <sup>k</sup> seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall <sup>l</sup> run to and fro, and knowledge shall be <sup>m</sup> increased.

5 Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the <sup>n</sup> one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And <sup>o</sup> one said to the man clothed in linen, which was <sup>p</sup> upon the waters of the river, How <sup>q</sup> long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he <sup>r</sup> held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever, that it shall be for <sup>s</sup> a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished <sup>t</sup> to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

8 And I heard, but I <sup>u</sup> understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And he said, <sup>v</sup> Go thy way, Daniel; for the words are closed up and sealed <sup>w</sup> till the time of the end.

10 Many shall be <sup>x</sup> purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do <sup>y</sup> wickedly: and <sup>z</sup> none of the wicked shall understand; but the <sup>a</sup> wise shall understand.

11 And <sup>b</sup> from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be <sup>c</sup> a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 Blessed <sup>d</sup> is he that waiteth, and <sup>e</sup> cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt <sup>f</sup> rest, and stand in thy <sup>g</sup> lot at the end of the days.

HOSEA.

C H A P. I.

1 Hosea, to shew God's judgment for spiritual whoredom, taketh Gomer, 4 and hath by her Jezreel, 6 Lo-ruhamah, 8 and Lo-ammi. 10 The restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE word of the LORD that <sup>a</sup> came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD <sup>b</sup> by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed <sup>c</sup> great whoredom, <sup>d</sup> departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him <sup>e</sup> a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of <sup>f</sup> Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the <sup>g</sup> house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will <sup>h</sup> break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will <sup>i</sup> no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will <sup>j</sup> utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them <sup>k</sup> by the LORD their God, and will not save them <sup>l</sup> by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 Now when she had <sup>m</sup> weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi: for ye are <sup>not</sup> my people, and I will not be your God.

10 Yet the number of the <sup>children</sup> of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves <sup>one</sup> head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

1 The idolatry of the people. 6 God's judgments against them. 14 His promises of reconciliation with them.

SAY <sup>ye</sup> unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.

2 <sup>Plead</sup> with your mother, plead; for she is not <sup>my</sup> wife, neither am I her husband: let her, therefore, put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I <sup>strip</sup> her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with <sup>thirst</sup>.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of <sup>whoredoms</sup>.

5 For their <sup>mother</sup> hath played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, <sup>I</sup> will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 Therefore, behold, I will <sup>hedge</sup> up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall <sup>follow</sup> after her lovers, but she shall <sup>not</sup> overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to <sup>my</sup> first husband; for then was it <sup>better</sup> with me than now.

8 For she did <sup>not</sup> know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they <sup>prepared</sup> for Baal.

9 Therefore will I <sup>return</sup>, and <sup>take</sup> away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I <sup>discover</sup> her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her <sup>feast-days</sup>, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines, and her fig-trees, whereof she hath said, These are my <sup>rewards</sup> that my lovers have given me: and I will make them <sup>a</sup> forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of <sup>Baalim</sup>, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked herself with her ear-rings, and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the Lord.

14 <sup>Therefore</sup>, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the <sup>valley</sup> of Achor for a door of hope; and she shall sing there, as in the days of her <sup>youth</sup>, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the Lord, that thou shalt call me <sup>Isbi</sup>, and shalt call me no more <sup>Baali</sup>.

17 For I will take away <sup>the</sup> names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the <sup>beasts</sup> of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the <sup>bow</sup>, and the sword, and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down <sup>safely</sup>.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will <sup>betroth</sup> thee unto me in <sup>righteousness</sup>, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies:

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in <sup>faithfulness</sup>; and thou shalt know the Lord.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the Lord, I will <sup>hear</sup> the heavens; and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall <sup>hear</sup> Jezreel.

23 And I will <sup>sow</sup> her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that <sup>had</sup> not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

C H A P. III.

1 By the expiation of an adulteress, 4 is shewed the desolation of Israel before their restoration.

THEN said the Lord unto me, <sup>Go</sup> yet, love a woman beloved of her <sup>friend</sup>, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the Lord toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and <sup>love</sup> flagons of wine.

2 So I <sup>bought</sup> her to me for <sup>fifteen</sup> pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley.

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt <sup>abide</sup> for me many days: thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man; so will <sup>I</sup> also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall abide <sup>many</sup> days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim.

5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall <sup>fear</sup> the Lord and his goodness in the <sup>latter</sup> days.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath <sup>a</sup>a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor <sup>b</sup>knowledge of God, in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they <sup>c</sup>break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall the land <sup>d</sup>mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be <sup>e</sup>taken away.

4 Yet let no man <sup>f</sup>strive, nor reprove another: for this people are as they that strive <sup>g</sup>with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the <sup>h</sup>day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the <sup>i</sup>night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are destroyed for <sup>k</sup>lack of knowledge: because thou hast <sup>l</sup>rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be <sup>m</sup>no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also <sup>n</sup>forget thy children.

7 As they were <sup>o</sup>increased, so they sinned against me; therefore will I change their <sup>p</sup>glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, <sup>q</sup>like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

10 For they shall eat, and not have <sup>r</sup>enough; they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have <sup>s</sup>left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the <sup>t</sup>heart.

12 ¶ My people <sup>u</sup>ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the <sup>v</sup>spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the <sup>w</sup>mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: <sup>x</sup>therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will <sup>y</sup>not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are <sup>z</sup>separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots, therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, <sup>aa</sup>yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as <sup>ab</sup>a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in <sup>ac</sup>a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: <sup>ad</sup>let him alone.

19 The wind hath <sup>ag</sup>bound her up in her wings, and they shall be <sup>ah</sup>ashamed because of their sacrifices.

C H A P. V.

1 God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins, until they repent.

HEAR ye this, <sup>ai</sup>O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been <sup>aj</sup>a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolvers are <sup>ak</sup>profound to make slaughter, though I have been <sup>al</sup>a rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is <sup>am</sup>not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest <sup>an</sup>whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will <sup>ao</sup>not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Israel doth <sup>ap</sup>testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall <sup>aq</sup>not find him: he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD; for they have begotten <sup>ar</sup>strange children: now shall <sup>as</sup>a month devour them with their portions.

8 <sup>at</sup>Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at <sup>au</sup>Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the <sup>av</sup>day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall <sup>aw</sup>surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the <sup>ax</sup>bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the <sup>ay</sup>commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as <sup>az</sup>a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his <sup>ba</sup>wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as <sup>bb</sup>a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 I will go and return to my place till they <sup>bc</sup>acknowledge their offence, and seek my face; in their affliction they will <sup>bd</sup>seek me early.

COME, and <sup>a</sup> let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

C H A P. VII.

WHEN I would have <sup>a</sup> healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the <sup>b</sup> thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without:

<sup>12</sup> When they shall go, I will spread my <sup>y</sup> net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them as their congregation <sup>z</sup> hath heard.

C H A P. VIII.

SET the trumpet to thy mouth: <sup>a</sup> he shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed <sup>b</sup> my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

C H A P. XI.

1 The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits: 5 His judgment. 8 God's mercy towards them.

WHEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called him my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

8 How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? Mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD; he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

C H A P. XII.

1 A reproof of Ephraim, Judah, and Jacob. 3 By former favours he exhorteth to repentance. 7 Ephraim's sins provoke God.

EPHRAIM feedeth on a wind, and followeth lies after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept and made supplication unto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; The LORD is his memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

7 He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

9 And I, that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

14 Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his LORD return unto him.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Ephraim's glory, by reason of idolatry, vanisheth. 5 God's anger for their unkindness. 9 A promise of God's mercy. 15 A judgment for rebellion.

WHEN Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died.

2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away; as the chaff that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour besides me.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.

2 <sup>b</sup> Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in <sup>c</sup> your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell ye <sup>d</sup> your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation;

6 For <sup>h</sup> a nation is come up upon <sup>i</sup> my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the <sup>j</sup> cheek teeth of a great lion.

BLOW ye the trumpet in Zion, and <sup>a</sup> sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land <sup>b</sup> tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at <sup>c</sup> hand:

2 A day of darkness, and of gloominess, a day of <sup>d</sup> clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: <sup>e</sup> a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire <sup>f</sup> devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is <sup>g</sup> as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them <sup>h</sup> a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of <sup>i</sup> horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall <sup>k</sup> climb the wall like men of war; and they shall <sup>l</sup> march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the <sup>n</sup> windows like a thief.

11 And the LORD shall <sup>q</sup> utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great: for he is <sup>r</sup> strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and <sup>s</sup> who can abide it?

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep <sup>a</sup> between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy <sup>b</sup> people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, <sup>c</sup> Where is their God?

19 Yea, the LORD will <sup>f</sup> answer, and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you <sup>g</sup> corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen.

20 But I will remove far off from you the <sup>h</sup> northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea; and his hinder part toward the utmost sea: and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army, which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit.

30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

C H A P. III.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of his people.
9 God will be known in his judgment. 18 His blessing upon the church.

FOR, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people, and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people: and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head:

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things.

6 The children also of Judah, and the children of Jerusalem, have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near, let them come up:

10 Beat your plow-shares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about; thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put ye in the sickle; for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for the wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem: and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim.

19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Judah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

9 Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they know not to do right, saith the Lord, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord God, the God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-el; and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter-house with the summer-house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the Lord.

C H A P. IV.

1 He reproveth Israel for oppression, 4 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibleness.

HEAR this word, ye king of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord God hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the Lord.

4 Come to Beth-el and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years.

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-offerings; for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord God.

6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens, and your vineyards, and your fig-trees, and your olive-trees increased, the palmer-worm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence, after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The Lord, the God of hosts, is his name.

3 For thus saith the Lord God, The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith the Lord unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live.

5 But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the Lord, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

9 That strengtheneth the <sup>m</sup>spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that <sup>n</sup> speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch, therefore, as <sup>o</sup> your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall <sup>p</sup> not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For <sup>q</sup> I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the <sup>r</sup> prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is <sup>s</sup> an evil time.

14 <sup>t</sup> Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have <sup>u</sup> spoken.

15 <sup>v</sup> Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus, Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, <sup>y</sup> Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are <sup>z</sup> skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will <sup>a</sup> pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 Wo unto you that desire the day of the LORD! <sup>b</sup> to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and <sup>c</sup> a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be <sup>d</sup> darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 <sup>e</sup> I hate, I despise your feast-days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will <sup>f</sup> not accept them: neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the <sup>g</sup> melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness <sup>h</sup> as a mighty stream.

25 Have ye offered <sup>i</sup> unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your <sup>k</sup> Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity <sup>l</sup> beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAP. VI.

1 The wantonness of Israel, 7 shall be plagued with desolation, 12 and their incorrigibleness.

WO to them that are <sup>a</sup> at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and <sup>b</sup> see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they <sup>c</sup> better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 Ye that <sup>d</sup> put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and <sup>e</sup> stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 That chant to the <sup>f</sup> sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of music, like David;

6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are <sup>g</sup> not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

7 Therefore now shall they go captive with the <sup>h</sup> first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The LORD God hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD, the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city, with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain <sup>i</sup> ten men in one house, that they <sup>k</sup> shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that <sup>l</sup> burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue; for <sup>m</sup> we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD <sup>n</sup> commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 Shall horses <sup>o</sup> run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into <sup>p</sup> hemlock.

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of <sup>q</sup> nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by <sup>r</sup> our own strength?

14 But, behold, <sup>s</sup> I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of the wilderness.

OBADIAH.

1 The destruction of Edom, 3 for their pride, 10 and for their wrong unto Jacob. 17 The salvation and victory of Jacob.

THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord God concerning Edom, <sup>a</sup> We have heard a rumour from the Lord, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen; <sup>b</sup> Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee <sup>c</sup> small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thine heart hath <sup>d</sup> deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that <sup>e</sup> saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy <sup>f</sup> nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

5 <sup>g</sup> If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they <sup>h</sup> not leave some grapes?

7 All the men of thy <sup>j</sup> confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have <sup>k</sup> deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the Lord, even destroy <sup>l</sup> the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy <sup>m</sup> mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy <sup>n</sup> violence against thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off <sup>o</sup> for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the <sup>p</sup> strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and <sup>q</sup> cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have <sup>r</sup> looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have <sup>s</sup> rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest <sup>t</sup> not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid <sup>u</sup> hands on their substance in the day of their calamity:

¶ JONAH.

C H A P. I.

1 Jonah sent to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish: 4 He is bewrayed by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came <sup>a</sup> unto Jonah, the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, <sup>b</sup> that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up <sup>c</sup> before me.

3 But Jonah rose up <sup>d</sup> to flee unto Tarshish <sup>e</sup> from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish <sup>f</sup> from the presence of the LORD.

4 But the LORD <sup>g</sup> sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man <sup>h</sup> unto his god, and <sup>i</sup> cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them: but Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was <sup>j</sup> fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, <sup>k</sup> What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, <sup>l</sup> call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us <sup>m</sup> cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot <sup>n</sup> fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, <sup>o</sup> Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us. What is <sup>p</sup> thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I <sup>q</sup> am an Hebrew; and <sup>r</sup> I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly <sup>s</sup> afraid, and said unto him, Why hast <sup>t</sup> thou done this? <sup>u</sup> Gen. 39, 9. (for the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 Then said they unto him, <sup>v</sup> What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? (for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said unto them, <sup>w</sup> Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that <sup>x</sup> for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless, the men <sup>y</sup> rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they <sup>z</sup> could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done <sup>a</sup> as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and <sup>b</sup> cast him forth into the sea; and the sea <sup>c</sup> ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men <sup>d</sup> feared the LORD exceedingly, and <sup>e</sup> offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, <sup>f</sup> and made vows.

17 Now the LORD had <sup>g</sup> prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and <sup>h</sup> three nights.

about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 Then <sup>e</sup> I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will <sup>f</sup> look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The <sup>g</sup> waters compassed me about even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: <sup>h</sup> yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me <sup>i</sup> I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe lying vanities <sup>k</sup> forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of <sup>l</sup> thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

10 And the LORD <sup>m</sup> spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

C H A P. III.

1 Jonah sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites. 5 Upon their repentance, 10 God repenteth.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the <sup>a</sup> second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching <sup>b</sup> that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and <sup>c</sup> went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. (Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city, of three days' journey.)

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey; and he cried, and said, <sup>d</sup> Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 So the <sup>e</sup> people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and <sup>f</sup> he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and <sup>g</sup> published through Nineveh, (by the decree of the king and his nobles,) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water.

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them <sup>h</sup> turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 <sup>i</sup> Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 And God <sup>k</sup> saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

C H A P. IV.

1 Jonah repining at God's mercy, 4 is reproved by the type of a gourd.

BUT it <sup>a</sup> displeased Jonah exceedingly, and <sup>b</sup> he was very angry.

2 And he <sup>b</sup> prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying when I was yet in my country? <sup>c</sup> Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore now, O LORD, <sup>d</sup> take, I beseech thee, my life from me: for it is <sup>e</sup> better for me to die than to live.

4 Then said the LORD, <sup>f</sup> Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah <sup>g</sup> went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there <sup>h</sup> made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the Lord God <sup>i</sup> prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his <sup>j</sup> grief. So Jonah was <sup>k</sup> exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm, when the morning rose the next day, and it <sup>l</sup> smote the gourd, that it withered

8 And it came to pass, when the <sup>m</sup> sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and <sup>n</sup> wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, <sup>o</sup> Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, <sup>p</sup> I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast <sup>q</sup> had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

¶ MICAH.

C H A P. I.

1 Micah sheweth the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry: 10 He exhorteth to mourning.

THE word of the LORD that came to <sup>a</sup> Micah the <sup>b</sup> Morasthite, in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 ¶ Hear, <sup>c</sup> all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord God <sup>d</sup> be witness against you, the LORD from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD <sup>e</sup> cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and <sup>f</sup> tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the <sup>g</sup> mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. <sup>h</sup> What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not <sup>i</sup> Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not <sup>k</sup> Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as <sup>l</sup> an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will <sup>m</sup> discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the <sup>n</sup> graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burnt with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she <sup>o</sup> gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will <sup>p</sup> wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.

9 For her wound is incurable; for <sup>q</sup> it is come unto Judah: he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 <sup>r</sup> Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of Aphrah <sup>s</sup> roll thyself in the dust.

11 <sup>t</sup> Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having <sup>u</sup> thy shame naked; the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited care-fully for good; but evil came down <sup>x</sup> from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

14 Therefore shalt thou <sup>a</sup> give presents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be <sup>b</sup> a lie to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring <sup>c</sup> an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come unto Adulam the glory of Israel.

16 <sup>d</sup> Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

C H A P. II.

1 Against oppression. 4 A lamentation. 7 A reproof of injustice and idolatry. 12 A promise of restoring Jacob.

WO to them that <sup>a</sup> devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light they practise it, because it is in the <sup>b</sup> power of their hand.

2 And they <sup>c</sup> covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, against this family do I <sup>d</sup> devise an evil, from which ye shall <sup>e</sup> not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is <sup>f</sup> evil.

4 <sup>g</sup> In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled; he hath <sup>h</sup> changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 <sup>i</sup> Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall <sup>k</sup> not prophesy to them that they shall not take shame.

7 O thou that art <sup>l</sup> named The house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the LORD <sup>m</sup> straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do <sup>n</sup> good to him that walketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is <sup>o</sup> risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not <sup>p</sup> your rest: because it is <sup>q</sup> polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man, <sup>r</sup> walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of <sup>s</sup> wine, and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely <sup>t</sup> gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of <sup>u</sup> Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The <sup>x</sup> breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and <sup>y</sup> their King shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

3 Who also <sup>d</sup> eat the flesh of my people, and slay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then shall they <sup>e</sup> cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them; he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that <sup>f</sup> bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace: and he that <sup>g</sup> putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him:

6 Therefore <sup>h</sup> night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; yea, they shall all cover their <sup>i</sup> lips: for there is no <sup>k</sup> answer of God.

8 But truly I am <sup>l</sup> full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 They build up Zion <sup>m</sup> with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof <sup>n</sup> teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they <sup>o</sup> lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

C H A P. IV.

1 The glory, 3 peace, 8 kingdom, 11 and victory of the church.

BUT in the last days it shall come to pass, that the <sup>a</sup> mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and <sup>b</sup> people shall flow unto it.

2 And <sup>c</sup> many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD <sup>d</sup> from Jerusalem.

3 And he shall <sup>e</sup> judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall <sup>f</sup> they learn war any more.

4 But they shall <sup>g</sup> sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For all people will walk every one in the name of <sup>h</sup> his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD <sup>i</sup> our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that <sup>k</sup> halteth, and I will gather her that <sup>l</sup> is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off <sup>m</sup> a strong nation: and the <sup>n</sup> LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou <sup>o</sup> cry out aloud? is there <sup>p</sup> no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for <sup>q</sup> pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 <sup>r</sup> Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for <sup>s</sup> now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt <sup>t</sup> dwell in the field, and thou shalt <sup>u</sup> go even to Babylon; <sup>v</sup> there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

12 But they know not the <sup>x</sup> thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall <sup>y</sup> gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 Arise and <sup>z</sup> thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will <sup>a</sup> consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the LORD of the whole earth.

11 And I will cut off the <sup>a</sup> cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off <sup>a</sup> witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more sooth-sayers:

13 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images, out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the <sup>b</sup> work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy cities.

15 And I will <sup>c</sup> execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not <sup>d</sup> heard.

C H A P. VI.

1 God's controversy for unkindness, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry.

HEAR <sup>a</sup> ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD's <sup>b</sup> controversy, and ye <sup>c</sup> strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, <sup>d</sup> what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? <sup>e</sup> testify against me.

4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the <sup>f</sup> house of servants; and I sent before thee <sup>g</sup> Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what <sup>h</sup> Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

6 <sup>i</sup> Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with <sup>k</sup> burnt-offerings, with calves of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the <sup>l</sup> fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath <sup>m</sup> shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do <sup>n</sup> justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the <sup>o</sup> rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 Are there yet the <sup>p</sup> treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count <sup>q</sup> them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof <sup>r</sup> are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken <sup>s</sup> lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make <sup>t</sup> thee <sup>s</sup> sick in smiting thee, in making <sup>t</sup> thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 Thou shalt <sup>u</sup> eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down <sup>u</sup> shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and <sup>u</sup> that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt <sup>v</sup> sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 For the <sup>w</sup> statutes of Omri are kept, and all the <sup>w</sup> works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

C H A P. VII.

1 The church complaining of her small number, 3 and the general corruption, 5 putteth her confidence not in man, but in God. 8 She triumpheth over her enemies. 14 God comforteth her by promises, 16 by confusion of the enemies, 18 and by his mercies.

WO is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer-fruits, as the gleanings of the vintage: <sup>u</sup> there is no cluster to eat: my <sup>u</sup> soul desired the first-ripe fruit.

2 The <sup>v</sup> good man is perished out of the earth; and <sup>v</sup> there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; <sup>v</sup> they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 That they may do evil with <sup>w</sup> both hands earnestly, the <sup>w</sup> prince asketh, and the judge <sup>w</sup> asketh for a reward; and the great man he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 <sup>x</sup> The best of them is as a brier; the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; <sup>x</sup> now shall be their perplexity.

5 <sup>y</sup> Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For the son <sup>z</sup> dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

8 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also he shall come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

13 Notwithstanding, the land shall be desolate, because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I shew unto him marvellous things.

16 The nations shall see, and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.

18 Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities: and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20 Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

NAHUM.

CHAP. I.

The majesty of God in goodness to his people, and severity against his enemies.

THE burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious: the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burnt at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an over-running flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folded together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD, Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image, and the molten image; I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

CHAP. II.

The fearful and victorious armies of God against Nineveh.

HE that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

5 He shall recount his <sup>h</sup>worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall <sup>i</sup>make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 The <sup>k</sup>gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 And || Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is of old like a pool of <sup>l</sup>water; yet they shall flee away. <sup>m</sup>Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back.

9 Take ye the <sup>n</sup>spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold; for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

C H A P. III.

The miserable ruin of Nineveh.

WO to the <sup>a</sup>bloody city! it is all <sup>b</sup>full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the <sup>c</sup>wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number <sup>d</sup>of carcasses; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the <sup>e</sup>whoredoms of the well-favoured harlot, the <sup>f</sup>mistress of witchcrafts, that <sup>g</sup>selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am <sup>h</sup>against thee, saith the Lord of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy <sup>i</sup>nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make <sup>k</sup>thee vile, and will set thee as <sup>l</sup>a gazing-stock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall <sup>m</sup>flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid <sup>n</sup>waste: <sup>o</sup>who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than <sup>p</sup>populous No, that was situate <sup>q</sup>among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were thy <sup>r</sup>helpers.

10 Yet was she <sup>s</sup>carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were <sup>t</sup>dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets; and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were <sup>u</sup>bound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be <sup>v</sup>drunken: thou shalt be <sup>w</sup>hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like <sup>x</sup>fig-trees with the first-ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the <sup>y</sup>mouth of the eater.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, <sup>b</sup>fortify thy strong holds: go into <sup>c</sup>clay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brick-kiln.

15 There shall the <sup>d</sup>fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off; it shall eat thee up like the canker-worm: make thyself many as the canker-worm, make thyself many as the locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied thy <sup>e</sup>merchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worm spoileth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy <sup>f</sup>h crowned are as the locusts, and thy <sup>g</sup>captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day; but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy <sup>h</sup>shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria; thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people is <sup>i</sup>scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

19 There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee <sup>j</sup>shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not <sup>k</sup>thy wickedness passed continually?

HABAKKUK.

CHAP. I.

1 Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, 5 is shewed the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans: 12 He complaineth that vengeance should be executed by them who are far worse.

THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slack, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously; for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag; therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plentiful.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAP. II.

1 Unto Habakkuk waiting for an answer, is shewed that he must wait by faith. 5 The judgment upon the Chaldeans for insatiableness, 9 for covetousness, 12 for cruelty, 15 for drunkenness, 18 and for idolatry.

I WILL stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

5 Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 Wo to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Wo to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Wo unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh

God's severe judgment against Judah for divers sins.

THE <sup>a</sup> word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah.

2 I will utterly <sup>b</sup> consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD.

3 I will consume <sup>c</sup> man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea; and the <sup>d</sup> stumbling-blocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

(676)

8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the <sup>1</sup> rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses, and thy chariots of salvation?

9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst <sup>k</sup> cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled; the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lift up his hands on high.

11 The <sup>l</sup> sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou <sup>m</sup> didst thresh the heathen in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine <sup>n</sup> anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

15 Thou didst <sup>q</sup> walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly <sup>r</sup> trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

17 Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive <sup>s</sup> shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye <sup>d</sup> meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be <sup>e</sup> hid in the day of the LORD's anger.

4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the <sup>f</sup> noon-day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Wo unto the inhabitants of the sea-coast, the nation of the <sup>g</sup> Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; <sup>h</sup> O Canaan, the land of the <sup>i</sup> Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will <sup>r</sup> furnish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his <sup>s</sup> place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be <sup>t</sup> slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy <sup>u</sup> Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the <sup>x</sup> beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar-work.

9 The glory of this latter house shall <sup>n</sup> be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give <sup>o</sup> peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet,

saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, <sup>p</sup> Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear <sup>q</sup> holy flesh in the skirt of his gar-ment, and with his skirt do <sup>r</sup> touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, <sup>s</sup> No.13 Then said Haggai, If <sup>t</sup> one that is uncleanby <sup>u</sup> a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, <sup>v</sup> So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every <sup>x</sup> work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider <sup>y</sup> from thisday and upward, from before <sup>z</sup> a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD;

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten:

when one came to the press-fat, for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I smote you with <sup>a</sup> blasting, and with mildew, and with hail, in all the labours of your hands; <sup>b</sup> yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from <sup>c</sup> this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the <sup>d</sup> foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it.

19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will <sup>e</sup> I bless you.20 ¶ And <sup>f</sup> again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai, in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

21 Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will <sup>g</sup> shake the heavens and the earth;22 And I will overthrow the <sup>h</sup> throne of kingdoms; and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will

I take thee, O Zerubbabel my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have <sup>k</sup> chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, <sup>m</sup> O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the head-stone thereof <sup>n</sup> with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace, unto it.

8 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, his hands shall also <sup>o</sup> finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of <sup>p</sup> hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the <sup>q</sup> day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel <sup>r</sup> with those seven; they are the <sup>s</sup> eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 <sup>t</sup> Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two <sup>u</sup> olive-trees upon the right side of the candlestick, and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive-branches, which, through the two golden <sup>v</sup> pipes, empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute <sup>u</sup> true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And <sup>o</sup> oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and <sup>p</sup> pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an <sup>q</sup> adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore came <sup>r</sup> a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that, as he cried, and they would not hear; <sup>s</sup> so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was <sup>t</sup> desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned; for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

C H A P. VIII.

1 The restoration of Jerusalem. 9 They are encouraged to the building by God's favour to them. 16 Good works are required of them. 18 Joy and enlargement are promised.

A GAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I was <sup>a</sup> jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with <sup>b</sup> great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD, I am returned unto Zion, and will <sup>c</sup> dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and Jerusalem shall be called, <sup>d</sup> A city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, The holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, There shall yet <sup>e</sup> old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If it be marvellous <sup>f</sup> in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in my eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will <sup>g</sup> save my people from the east country, and from the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall <sup>h</sup> dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, <sup>i</sup> Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in <sup>k</sup> these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was <sup>l</sup> no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there <sup>m</sup> any peace to him that went out or came in, because of the affliction: for I set <sup>n</sup> all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people <sup>o</sup> as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her <sup>p</sup> increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all <sup>q</sup> these things:

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were <sup>r</sup> a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be <sup>s</sup> a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, As I thought to punish you, when <sup>t</sup> your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I <sup>u</sup> repented not;

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 These are the things that ye shall <sup>x</sup> do, Speak ye every man the <sup>y</sup> truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment <sup>z</sup> of truth and peace in your gates:

17 And let none of you <sup>a</sup> imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The fast of the <sup>b</sup> fourth month, and the fast of the <sup>c</sup> fifth, and the fast of the <sup>d</sup> seventh, and the fast of the <sup>e</sup> tenth, shall be to the house of Judah <sup>f</sup> joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts: therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, It shall yet come to pass, that there shall <sup>g</sup> come people and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, <sup>h</sup> Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I will go also.

22 Yea, <sup>i</sup> many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold, out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the <sup>k</sup> skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you; for <sup>l</sup> we have heard that God is with you.

THE "burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be <sup>b</sup> toward the LORD.

2 And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus, and Zidon, though it be <sup>c</sup> very wise.

3 And Tyrus did build herself a <sup>d</sup> strong hold, and heaped up silver <sup>e</sup> as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the LORD will <sup>f</sup> cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be <sup>g</sup> very sorrowful; and Ekron, for her expectation, shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And <sup>h</sup> a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod; and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will <sup>i</sup> take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be <sup>j</sup> for our God; and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And I will <sup>k</sup> encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth; and no <sup>l</sup> oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, <sup>m</sup> thy King cometh <sup>n</sup> unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will cut off the <sup>p</sup> chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak <sup>q</sup> peace unto the beathen; and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the <sup>r</sup> blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn ye to the <sup>s</sup> strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare, that I will render double unto thee;

14 And the LORD shall be <sup>x</sup> seen over them, and his <sup>y</sup> arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall <sup>z</sup> devour, and subdue with sling-stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the <sup>a</sup> corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the <sup>b</sup> flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For <sup>c</sup> how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! Corn shall make the young men <sup>d</sup> cheerful, and new wine the maids.

C H A P. X.

1 God is to be sought unto, and not idols. 5 As he visited his flock for sin, so he will save and restore them.

ASK ye of the LORD rain in the time of the <sup>a</sup> latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the idols have spoken <sup>b</sup> vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no <sup>c</sup> shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the <sup>d</sup> shepherds, and I punished the <sup>e</sup> goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the <sup>f</sup> corner, out of him the <sup>g</sup> nail, out of him the battle-bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 And they shall be as <sup>h</sup> mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is <sup>i</sup> with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will <sup>k</sup> bring them again to place them: for I <sup>l</sup> have mercy upon them; and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a <sup>m</sup> mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as <sup>n</sup> through wine: yea, their children shall see it and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will <sup>o</sup> hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall <sup>p</sup> increase as they have increased.

9 And I will <sup>q</sup> sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries: and they shall <sup>r</sup> live with their children, and turn again.

10 I will bring them again also out of the land of <sup>s</sup> Egypt, and gather them <sup>t</sup> out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, and place shall <sup>u</sup> not be found for them.

11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall <sup>v</sup> smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up; and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them <sup>w</sup> in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his <sup>x</sup> name, saith the LORD.

oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 There is a voice of the howling of the <sup>d</sup>shepherds; for their <sup>e</sup>glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God, <sup>f</sup>Feed the flock of the slaughter,

5 Whose <sup>g</sup>possessors slay them, and hold themselves <sup>h</sup>not guilty; and they that <sup>i</sup>sell them say, <sup>k</sup>Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more <sup>l</sup>pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD; but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his <sup>m</sup>king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O <sup>n</sup>poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called <sup>o</sup>Beauty, and the other I called <sup>p</sup>Bands: and I fed the flock.

8 <sup>q</sup>Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then <sup>r</sup>said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, <sup>s</sup>let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every <sup>t</sup>one the flesh of another.

10 And I took my staff, even Beauty, and <sup>u</sup>cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and so the <sup>v</sup>poor of the flock, that waited upon me knew that it <sup>w</sup>was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price <sup>x</sup>thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the <sup>y</sup>potter: a <sup>z</sup>goodly price that I was prized at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might <sup>a</sup>break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a <sup>b</sup>foolish shepherd:

16 For, lo, I will raise up <sup>c</sup>a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek <sup>d</sup>the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still; but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Wo to the <sup>e</sup>idle shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his <sup>f</sup>arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

C H A P. XII.

1 Jerusalem a cup of trembling to herself. 3 and a burdensome stone to her adversaries. 6 The victorious restoring of Judah. 9 The repentance of Jerusalem.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which <sup>a</sup>stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him,

2 Behold, I will make <sup>b</sup>Jerusalem a <sup>c</sup>cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem <sup>d</sup>a burdensome stone for all people: all that <sup>e</sup>burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will <sup>f</sup>smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness; and I will <sup>g</sup>open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the <sup>h</sup>governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like <sup>i</sup>a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall <sup>j</sup>devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall <sup>k</sup>save the tents of Judah first, that the <sup>l</sup>glory of the house of David, and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD <sup>m</sup>defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is <sup>n</sup>feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be <sup>o</sup>as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy <sup>p</sup>all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the <sup>q</sup>spirit of grace and of supplication; and they shall <sup>r</sup>look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

12 And the <sup>u</sup>land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives <sup>v</sup>apart; the family of the house of <sup>w</sup>Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of <sup>x</sup>Shimei apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

IN that day there shall <sup>a</sup> be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for <sup>b</sup> sin and for uncleanness.

2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the <sup>c</sup> names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the <sup>d</sup> prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his <sup>e</sup> father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest <sup>f</sup> lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be <sup>g</sup> ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied: neither shall they wear <sup>h</sup> a rough garment to deceive:

5 But he shall say, I am no <sup>i</sup> prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these <sup>k</sup> wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against my <sup>m</sup> Shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: <sup>n</sup> smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon the <sup>o</sup> little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, <sup>p</sup> two parts therein shall be cut off, and die; but the <sup>q</sup> third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part <sup>r</sup> through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The LORD is <sup>s</sup> my God.

C H A P. XIV.

1 The destroyers of Jerusalem destroyed. 4 The coming of Christ, and the graces of his kingdom. 12 The plagues of Jerusalem's enemies. 16 The remnant shall turn to the Lord, 20 and their spoils shall be holy.

BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will <sup>a</sup> gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the <sup>b</sup> women ravished; and <sup>c</sup> half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the <sup>d</sup> residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD <sup>e</sup> go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 And his feet <sup>f</sup> shall stand in that day upon the <sup>g</sup> mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be <sup>h</sup> a very great valley: and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the <sup>i</sup> mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah; and the LORD my God shall come, and all the <sup>k</sup> saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be <sup>l</sup> clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be <sup>m</sup> one day <sup>n</sup> which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that <sup>o</sup> at evening-time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that <sup>p</sup> living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be <sup>q</sup> king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned <sup>r</sup> as a plain, from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and <sup>s</sup> inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's winepresses.

11 And men shall <sup>t</sup> dwell in it, and there shall be <sup>u</sup> no more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

12 And this shall be the <sup>x</sup> plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their <sup>y</sup> flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their <sup>z</sup> eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their <sup>a</sup> tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great <sup>b</sup> tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall <sup>c</sup> lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem: and the <sup>d</sup> wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the <sup>e</sup> plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shall even go up from year to year to <sup>f</sup> worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the <sup>g</sup> King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be <sup>h</sup> no rain.

18 And if the <sup>i</sup> family of Egypt go not up, and have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law.

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good-will at your hand.

14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel saith, that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts; therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 Ye have wearied the LORD with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

C H A P. III.

1 Of the messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ. 7 Of the rebellion, 8 sacrilege, 13 and infidelity of the people. 16 The promise of blessing to them that fear God.

BEHOOLD, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:

3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

7 Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 Will a man rob God? yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? in tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD: yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee.

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another; and the LORD hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD and that thought upon his name.

17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

1 The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph: 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary, when she was espoused to Joseph. 19 The angel satisfieth the misdeeming thoughts of Joseph, and interpreteth the names of Christ.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 ¶ Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon;

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob.

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel; which being interpreted, is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born son: and he called his name JESUS

1 The wise men out of the east are directed to Christ by a star. 11 They worship him, and offer their presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children. 20 Himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought back again into Galilee to Nazareth.

NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem; and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

1 John preacheth: His office, life, and baptism. 7 He reprehendeth the Pharisees, 13 and baptizeth Christ in Jordan.

A. D. 26.
a Mark 1, 4.
b Luke 3, 2, 3.
c John 1, 23.

IN those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaiās, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins: and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 And, lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

THEN was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 <sup>d</sup> But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 <sup>e</sup> Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 <sup>f</sup> And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 <sup>g</sup> Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 <sup>h</sup> Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 <sup>i</sup> And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt, fall down and worship me.

10 <sup>k</sup> Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 <sup>l</sup> Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

12 <sup>m</sup> Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee:

13 <sup>n</sup> And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 <sup>o</sup> The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

16 <sup>p</sup> The people which sat in darkness saw great light: and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 <sup>q</sup> From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 <sup>r</sup> And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 <sup>s</sup> And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 <sup>t</sup> And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 <sup>u</sup> And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets: and he called them.

22 <sup>v</sup> And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 <sup>y</sup> And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 <sup>z</sup> And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatic, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

C H A P. V.

1 Christ beginneth his sermon in the mount: 3 declaring who are blessed, 13 who are the salt of the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on an hill: 15 the candle: 17 that he came to fulfil the law. 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear: 33 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfectness.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 <sup>a</sup> Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 <sup>b</sup> Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 <sup>c</sup> Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 <sup>d</sup> Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 <sup>e</sup> Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 <sup>f</sup> Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 <sup>g</sup> Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 <sup>h</sup> Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 <sup>i</sup> Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 <sup>k</sup> Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 <sup>l</sup> Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 <sup>m</sup> Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 <sup>n</sup> Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 <sup>o</sup> Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 <sup>p</sup> Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 <sup>q</sup> For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 <sup>r</sup> Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven:

31 * It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 * But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery.

1 Christ continueth his sermon in the mount, speaking of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiving our brethren, 16 fasting, 19 where our treasure is to be laid up, 24 of serving God and mammon: 25 exhorteth not to be careful for worldly things; 33 but to seek God's kingdom.

TAKE heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 * Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 * That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly.

5 * And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 * But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and, when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

d Isa. 28, 20

- 7 <sup>e</sup> But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.
- 8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.
- 9 <sup>f</sup> After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name:
- 10 <sup>g</sup> Thy kingdom come: thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven:
- 11 <sup>h</sup> Give us this day our daily bread:
- 12 <sup>i</sup> And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors:
- 13 <sup>j</sup> And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
- 14 <sup>k</sup> For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:
- 15 <sup>l</sup> But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.
- 16 <sup>m</sup> Moreover, when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.
- 17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;
- 18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.
- 19 <sup>n</sup> Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:
- 20 <sup>o</sup> But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:
- 21 <sup>p</sup> For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
- 22 <sup>q</sup> The light of the body is the eye: If therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light:
- 23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!
- 24 <sup>r</sup> No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon.
- 25 <sup>s</sup> Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?
- 26 <sup>t</sup> Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?
- 27 <sup>u</sup> Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?
- 28 <sup>v</sup> And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:
- 29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
- 30 <sup>w</sup> Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?
- 31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?
- 32 <sup>x</sup> (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:;) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.
- 33 <sup>y</sup> But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.
- 34 <sup>z</sup> Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

C H A P. VII.

1 Christ endeth his sermon in the mount, reproveth rash judgment, 6 forbiddeth to cast holy things to dogs, 7 exhorteth to prayer, 13 to enter in at the strait gate, 15 to beware of false prophets, 21 not to be hearers only, but doers of the word, 24 like houses builded on a rock, 26 and not on the sand.

2 <sup>b</sup> For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 <sup>c</sup> And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 <sup>d</sup> Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye: and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 <sup>e</sup> Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 <sup>f</sup> Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 <sup>g</sup> Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 <sup>h</sup> Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 <sup>i</sup> If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 <sup>j</sup> Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 <sup>k</sup> Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life; and few there be that find it.

15 <sup>b</sup> Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves:

16 <sup>c</sup> Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 <sup>d</sup> Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 <sup>e</sup> A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 <sup>f</sup> Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 <sup>g</sup> Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 <sup>h</sup> Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 <sup>i</sup> And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 <sup>j</sup> Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 <sup>k</sup> And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

28 <sup>l</sup> And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 <sup>m</sup> For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

C H A P. VIII.

2 Christ cleanseth the leper, 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother-in-law, 16 and many other diseased: 19 sheweth how he is to be followed: 23 stilleth the tempest on the sea, 28 driveth the devils out of two men possessed, 32 and suffereth them to go into the swine.

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 <sup>a</sup> And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 <sup>b</sup> And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean: And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 <sup>c</sup> And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded for a testimony unto them.

5 <sup>d</sup> And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 <sup>e</sup> The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 <sup>f</sup> And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven:

12 <sup>g</sup> But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 <sup>h</sup> And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

14 <sup>i</sup> And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 <sup>k</sup> When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 <sup>l</sup> That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 <sup>m</sup> Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 <sup>n</sup> And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 <sup>o</sup> And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 <sup>p</sup> But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 <sup>q</sup> And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, inasmuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, ful, O ye of little faith ? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea ; and there was a great calm.

27 <sup>r</sup> But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him ?

28 † And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine : and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters :

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their way into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus : and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

C H A P. IX.

2 Christ curing one sick of the palsy, 9 calleth Matthew, 10 eateth with publicans and sinners, 14 defendeth his disciples for not fasting, 20 cureth the bloody issue, 23 raiseth from death Jairus's daughter, 27 giveth sight to two blind men, 32 healeth a dumb man possessed of a devil, 36 and hath compassion on the multitude.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

2 <sup>b</sup> And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed : and Jesus seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer ; thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 <sup>c</sup> And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus † knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts ?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee ; or to say, Arise, and walk ?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 † And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom : and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 <sup>e</sup> And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners ?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 <sup>t</sup> But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice : for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

14 <sup>s</sup> Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not ?

15 <sup>b</sup> And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them ? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment ; for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles ; else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish : but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 † While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead : but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment :

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about ; and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort ; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, Give place ; for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And the same hercof went abroad into all that land.

27 † And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him : and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this ?

They said unto him, Yea, Lord

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened : and Jesus straightly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake : and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out the devils through the prince of the devils.

35 ¶ And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few :

38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

1 Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles, enabling them with power to do miracles, 5 giveth them their charge, teacheth them, 16 comforteth them against persecutions, 40 and promiseth a blessing to those that receive them.

AND when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these : the first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother ; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother ;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew ; Thomas, and Matthew the publican ; James the son of Alphaeus ; and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus ;

4 Simon the Canaanite ; and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not :

6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And, as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils : freely ye have received, freely give.

9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass, in your purses :

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves : for the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, inquire who in it is worthy ; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it : but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves : be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men : for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues ;

18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak ; for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child : and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake ; but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another : for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel till the Son of man be come.

24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household ?

26 Fear them not therefore : for there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed ; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light : and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house-tops.

28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul : but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing ? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Fear ye not therefore ; ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

C H A P. XI.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 Christ's testimony concerning John. 18 The opinion of the people, both concerning John, and Christ. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and impenitency of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 25 and praising his Father's wisdom in revealing the gospel to the simple, 28 he calleth to him all such as feel the burden of their sins.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence, to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 ¶ <sup>a</sup> Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 <sup>b</sup> And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 <sup>c</sup> The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 <sup>d</sup> And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 <sup>e</sup> And, as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? a reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 <sup>f</sup> But what went ye out for to see? a prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 <sup>g</sup> For this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 <sup>a</sup> Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 <sup>b</sup> And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 <sup>c</sup> For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 <sup>d</sup> And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come.

15 <sup>e</sup> He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 <sup>f</sup> But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 <sup>g</sup> For John came neither eating nor drinking; and they say, He hath a devil.

19 <sup>a</sup> The Son of man came eating and drinking; and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But Wisdom is justified of her children.

20 <sup>b</sup> Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Wo unto thee, Chorazin! wo unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 <sup>c</sup> And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 <sup>d</sup> But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 <sup>e</sup> At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 <sup>f</sup> Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 <sup>g</sup> All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 <sup>a</sup> Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 <sup>b</sup> Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 <sup>c</sup> For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

1 Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the breach of the sabbath, 3 by scripture, 10 by reason, 13 and by a miracle. 22 He healeth the man possessed that was blind and dumb. 31 Blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall never be forgiven. 36 Account shall be made of idle words. 38 He rebuketh the unfaithful, who seek after a sign, 49 and sheweth who is his brother, sister, and mother.

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

20 <sup>l</sup> A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, in so much that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 <sup>m</sup> And all the people were amazed, and said, Is this the son of David?

24 <sup>n</sup> But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 <sup>o</sup> And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 <sup>p</sup> But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

36 <sup>w</sup> But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 <sup>x</sup> But he answered and said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:

40 <sup>c</sup> For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 <sup>d</sup> The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

42 <sup>e</sup> The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 <sup>f</sup> When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 <sup>g</sup> Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 <sup>h</sup> While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

¶ The parable of the sower and the seed: 18 the exposition of it. 24 The parable of the tares, 31 of the mustard-seed, 33 of the leaven, 44 of the hidden treasure, 45 of the pearl, 47 of the dragnet cast into the sea: 53 and how Christ is condemned of his own countrymen.

a Mark 4, 1, a
Luke 8, 4.

THE same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea-side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow:

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up.

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth; and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them.

8 <sup>b</sup> But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 <sup>c</sup> Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 <sup>d</sup> He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 <sup>e</sup> For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing, see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand.

14 <sup>f</sup> And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 <sup>g</sup> For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 <sup>h</sup> But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear.

17 <sup>i</sup> For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 <sup>j</sup> Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 <sup>k</sup> But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it:

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while; for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 <sup>l</sup> He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 <sup>a</sup> So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 <sup>a</sup> Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 <sup>a</sup> Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 <sup>a</sup> Another parable spake he unto them: The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 <sup>a</sup> All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 <sup>a</sup> That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man:

38 <sup>a</sup> The field is the world: the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one:

39 <sup>a</sup> The enemy that sowed them is the devil: the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 <sup>a</sup> The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; 42 <sup>a</sup> And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 <sup>a</sup> Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun, in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 <sup>a</sup> Again: The kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 Again: The kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant-man seeking goodly pearls:

46 <sup>a</sup> Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 Again: The kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 <sup>b</sup> So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 <sup>c</sup> And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: <sup>c</sup> ver. 42 there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 <sup>d</sup> Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 <sup>e</sup> And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, inasmuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 <sup>f</sup> Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not <sup>f</sup> Isa. 49, 7. his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, John 6, 42. and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 <sup>g</sup> And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house. <sup>g</sup> Isa. 53, 3. chap. 11, 6. Mark 6, 3, 4. Luke 4, 21. John 4, 44.

58 <sup>h</sup> And he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief. <sup>h</sup> Mark 6, 5.

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 <sup>1</sup> But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 <sup>m</sup> For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 * These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David! my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

31 Inasmuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 * Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 <sup>t</sup> And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

C H A P. XVI.

1 The Pharisees require a sign. 6 Jesus warneth his disciples of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 13 The people's opinion of Christ, 16 and Peter's confession of him. 21 Jesus fore-sheweth his death, 23 reproving Peter for dissuading him from it: 24 and admonisheth those that will follow him, to bear the cross.

* THE Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting, desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather, for the sky is red:

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day; for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites! ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 <sup>b</sup> A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 ¶ And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed, and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 <sup>d</sup> Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 * Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 ¶ When Jesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I, the Son of man, am?

21 * From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 * Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 * But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 * Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 * For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 * For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 * For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 * Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The transfiguration of Christ: 14 He healeth the lunatic, 22 foretelleth his own passion, 24 and payeth tribute.

* AND after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain, apart,

2 * And was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias, talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: If thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 * While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and, behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were sore afraid.

7 * And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 * And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 * And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 * But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶ And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son; for he is lunatic, and sore vexed: for oft-times he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 * Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? Bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil, and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 * And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men;

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceedingly sorry.

24 ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 <sup>q</sup> Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

c 1 Cor. 15,
III.

9 ° And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good man of the house, d Ruth 2, 19.

12 ° Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, † Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

† Gr. Fellow,
1 Cor. 3, 9.

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil because I am good?

16 ° So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 ° Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 ° And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

20 ¶ Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 ° And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 ° But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of; and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 ° And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, † but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 ° And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 ° But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

28 ° Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

29 ¶ And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 ° And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David!

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David!

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem upon an ass, 12 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple, 17 curseth the fig-tree, 23 putteth to silence the priests and elders, 28 and rebuketh them by the similitude of the two sons, 33 and the husbandmen who slew such as were sent unto them.

AND when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 ° Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 ° And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 ° And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest!

10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 * And the multitude said, This is Jesus, the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 † And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

13 * And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David! they were sore displeased,

16 † And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 † And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 † Now in the morning, as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig-tree withered away.

20 † And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away!

21 * Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, but also, if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, it shall be done.

22 * And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 † And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 † And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 † But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not; but afterwards he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir; and went not.

31 * Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 * For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not; but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 † Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 * And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 * But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 † And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord, therefore, of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 † They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 * Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 * And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

<sup>b</sup> Heb. 2, 3. 5 <sup>b</sup> But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

<sup>g</sup> ch. 8, 12, & 13, 42, & 24, 51, & 25, 30. 12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment? And he was † speechless.

<sup>h</sup> ch. 19, 30. 13 <sup>h</sup> Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>k</sup> Ezra 4, 13. 16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men.

<sup>m</sup> Mark 12, 13. 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

<sup>o</sup> Gen. 38, 9. 23 <sup>o</sup> The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

<sup>r</sup> 1 Cor. 15. 30 <sup>r</sup> For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

<sup>u</sup> Lev. 19, 18. 34 <sup>u</sup> But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

38 This is the first and great commandment.

<sup>w</sup> Ps. 110, 1. 39 <sup>w</sup> And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 <sup>x</sup> While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, <sup>y</sup> 2 Sam. 23, 2. 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

21 <sup>n</sup> And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 <sup>o</sup> Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint, and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides! which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 <sup>p</sup> Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 <sup>q</sup> Thou blind Pharisee! cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 <sup>r</sup> Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 <sup>s</sup> Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 <sup>t</sup> Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 <sup>u</sup> Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers! how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 <sup>x</sup> Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 <sup>y</sup> That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 <sup>z</sup> O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

39 <sup>a</sup> For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 3 What and how great calamities shall be before it: 29 The signs of his coming to judgment: 36 And because that day and hour is unknown, 42 we ought to watch, like good servants, expecting every moment our master's coming.

<sup>a</sup> AND Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him, for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 <sup>b</sup> And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 ° And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 ° For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 ° And ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 ° For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 ° Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 ° And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 ° And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 ° And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 ° But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ° And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 ° When ye, therefore, shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand,)

16 Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the house-top not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 ° And wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days!

20 ° But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath-day:

21 ° For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 ° Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 ° For there shall arise false christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: Behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 ° For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ° Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 ° And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 ° And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet; and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree: When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 ° So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

34 ° Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass till all these things be fulfilled.

35 ° Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 ° But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 ° But as the days of Noë were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noë entered into the ark, 39 And knew not, until the flood came and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 ° Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ° Watch therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 ° But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 ° Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as you think not the Son of man cometh.

45 ° Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 ° Blessed is that servant whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

47 ° Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

C M A P. XXV.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the talents. 31 Also the description of the last judgment.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2<sup>b</sup> And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5<sup>c</sup> While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6<sup>d</sup> And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7<sup>e</sup> Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10<sup>f</sup> And while they went to buy, The bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11<sup>g</sup> Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12<sup>h</sup> But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13<sup>i</sup> Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14<sup>k</sup> For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15<sup>l</sup> And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents; behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21<sup>m</sup> His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23<sup>n</sup> His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26<sup>o</sup> His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29<sup>p</sup> For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30<sup>q</sup> And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31<sup>r</sup> When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32<sup>s</sup> And before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34<sup>t</sup> Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35<sup>u</sup> For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40<sup>v</sup> And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41<sup>w</sup> Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 * And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 * And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, That one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 * And he answered and said, He that dip-peth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 * The Son of man goeth, as it is written of him: but wo unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 * Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 * And, as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 * And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it:

28 * For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 * But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 * And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 * Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 * But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 * Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 * Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 * And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 * Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39<sup>a</sup> And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me : nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What ! could ye not watch with me one hour ?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation : the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again : for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest : behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going : behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47<sup>d</sup> And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48<sup>e</sup> Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he : hold him fast.

49<sup>f</sup> And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master ; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, † Friend, wherefore art thou come ? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51<sup>g</sup> And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest, and smote off his ear.

52<sup>h</sup> Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place : for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53<sup>i</sup> Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels ?

54<sup>k</sup> But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be ?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves for to take me ? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56<sup>l</sup> But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57<sup>m</sup> And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off, unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end.

59<sup>n</sup> Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death ;

60<sup>o</sup> But found none : yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, 61<sup>p</sup> And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing ? what is it which these witness against thee ?

63<sup>q</sup> But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee, by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64<sup>r</sup> Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said : nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65<sup>s</sup> Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy ; what further need have we of witnesses ? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66<sup>t</sup> What think ye ? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

67<sup>u</sup> Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him ; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, 68<sup>v</sup> Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, who is he that smote thee ?

69<sup>w</sup> Now Peter sat without in the palace : and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73<sup>x</sup> And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them ; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74<sup>y</sup> Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75<sup>z</sup> And Peter remembered the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

W H E N the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2<sup>b</sup> And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3<sup>c</sup> Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, hims<sup>1</sup>elf, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

 4<sup>d</sup> Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.
 5<sup>a</sup> And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.
 6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.
 7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.
 8<sup>f</sup> Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.
 9<sup>z</sup> Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;
 10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.
 11<sup>g</sup> And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.
 12<sup>i</sup> And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.
 13<sup>k</sup> Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?
 14<sup>l</sup> And he answered him to never a word; in-somuch that the governor marvelled greatly.
 15<sup>m</sup> Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.
 16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.
 17<sup>n</sup> Therefore, when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?
 18<sup>o</sup> For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.
 19 When he was set down on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.
 20<sup>p</sup> But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.
 21<sup>q</sup> The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.
 22 Pilate said unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all said unto him, Let him be crucified.
 23 And the governor said, Why? what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.
 24<sup>r</sup> When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25<sup>s</sup> Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26<sup>t</sup> Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30<sup>u</sup> And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32<sup>x</sup> And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33<sup>y</sup> And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, A place of a skull, 34<sup>z</sup> They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35<sup>a</sup> And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36<sup>b</sup> And sitting down, they watched him there;

37<sup>c</sup> And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38<sup>d</sup> Then were there two thieves crucified with him; one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39<sup>e</sup> And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40<sup>f</sup> And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others, himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43<sup>g</sup> He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44<sup>h</sup> The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45<sup>i</sup> Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46<sup>k</sup> And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabaçthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

48 <sup>2</sup> And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 <sup>3</sup> Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 <sup>4</sup> And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 <sup>5</sup> Now when the centurion and they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 <sup>6</sup> And many women were there, beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him;

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

57 ¶ When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 <sup>7</sup> And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 <sup>8</sup> Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a ¶ watch: go your way, make it as sure as you can.

66 <sup>9</sup> So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by an angel to the women: 9 He himself appeareth unto them. 11 The chief priests give the soldiers money to say that he was stolen out of his sepulchre. 16 Christ ap-peareth to his disciples, 19 and sendeth them to baptize, and teach all nations

<sup>a</sup> IN the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn towards the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 <sup>b</sup> His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: <sup>b</sup> Dan. 10, 5.

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 <sup>c</sup> He is not here; for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. <sup>c</sup> ch. 12, 40 & 16, 21. & 17, 23.

7 <sup>d</sup> And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. <sup>d</sup> ch. 26, 32. verse 10. Mark 14, 28. John 21, 1. Acts 1, 3. & 10, 41. & 13, 31.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy, and did run to bring his disciples word. <sup>i</sup> Cor. 15, 5.

9 <sup>e</sup> And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him. <sup>e</sup> Mark 16, 9. John 20, 14. 16

10 <sup>f</sup> Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me. <sup>f</sup> Ps. 22, 22. Heb. 2, 11. verse 7. John 20, 17. Acts 1, 3. Rom. 8, 29.

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, <sup>g</sup> 1 John 3, 19. h ch. 26, 32. i Dan. 7, 13. ch. 11, 27. & 16, 28. Luke 1, 33. John 3, 35. & 13, 3. & 17, 2. Acts 2, 36. Rom. 14, 9. 1 Cor. 15, 24. Eph. 1, 10. 20.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶ <sup>i</sup> Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 <sup>j</sup> And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 <sup>k</sup> Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost;

¶ The GOSPEL according to St. MARK.

C H A P. I.

1 The office of John the Baptist. 9 Jesus is baptized, 12 tempted: 14 He preacheth, 16 calleth Peter, Andrew, James, and John: 23 healeth one that had a devil, 29 Peter's mother-in-law, 32 many diseased persons: 41 and cleanseth the leper.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God;

2 <sup>b</sup> As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 <sup>c</sup> The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 <sup>d</sup> John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

5 <sup>e</sup> And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 <sup>f</sup> And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

7 <sup>g</sup> And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 <sup>h</sup> I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

9 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him:

11 <sup>i</sup> And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 <sup>j</sup> And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 ¶ Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 <sup>k</sup> And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 <sup>l</sup> Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 <sup>m</sup> And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 ¶ And they went into Capernaum: and straightway on the sabbath-day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 <sup>n</sup> And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 <sup>o</sup> And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 <sup>p</sup> Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 <sup>q</sup> And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 <sup>r</sup> And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lift her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 <sup>s</sup> And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 <sup>t</sup> And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

35 <sup>u</sup> And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 <sup>v</sup> And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues, throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

40 ¶ And there came a leper to him, beseeching

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

12<sup>e</sup> That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 The sower soweth the word.

15<sup>f</sup> And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16<sup>g</sup> And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18<sup>h</sup> And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, 19<sup>i</sup> And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21<sup>k</sup> And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22<sup>l</sup> For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23<sup>m</sup> If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24<sup>n</sup> And he said unto them, Take heed what you hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you; and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25<sup>o</sup> For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26<sup>p</sup> And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30<sup>q</sup> And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31<sup>r</sup> It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33<sup>r</sup> And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35<sup>s</sup> ¶ And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37<sup>t</sup> And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still: And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that you have no faith?

41<sup>u</sup> And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment:

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

n Luke 6, 19.
o & 8, 45.
30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ is contemned of his countrymen. 7 He giveth the twelve power over unclean spirits. 14 Divers opinions of Christ. 27 John Baptist is beheaded, 29 and buried. 30 The apostles return from preaching. 34 The miracle of five loaves and two fishes. 48 Christ walketh on the sea: 53 and healeth all that touch him.

AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath-day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 <sup>f</sup> And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages teaching.

7 <sup>g</sup> And he calleth unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 <sup>h</sup> And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:

9 <sup>i</sup> But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 <sup>k</sup> And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 <sup>l</sup> And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 <sup>m</sup> And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 <sup>n</sup> And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 <sup>o</sup> And king Herod heard of him; for his name was spread abroad; and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 <sup>p</sup> Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 <sup>q</sup> For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 <sup>r</sup> For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 <sup>s</sup> Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not.

20 <sup>t</sup> For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 <sup>u</sup> And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birth-day made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 <sup>x</sup> And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 <sup>y</sup> And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 <sup>z</sup> And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 <sup>a</sup> And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 <sup>b</sup> And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest awhile: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 <sup>c</sup> And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 <sup>d</sup> And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 <sup>e</sup> And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 <sup>f</sup> And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 <sup>g</sup> He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 <sup>h</sup> He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all to sit down by <sup>i</sup> companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 <sup>i</sup> And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 <sup>k</sup> And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

c Isa. 29, 13.

6<sup>c</sup> He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7<sup>d</sup> Howbeit, in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, || Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep ye your own tradition.

10<sup>e</sup> For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is || Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13<sup>f</sup> Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14<sup>g</sup> And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand.

15<sup>h</sup> There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him, can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16<sup>i</sup> If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17<sup>k</sup> And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20<sup>l</sup> And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21<sup>m</sup> For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24<sup>n</sup> ¶ And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet.

26 The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation: and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

IN those days, the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat :

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way : for divers of them came from far.

4 ¶ And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness ?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye ? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground : and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them ; and they did set them before the people.

c ch. 5, 43.

7 ¶ And they had a few small fishes : and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled : and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand : and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 ¶ And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 ¶ And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign ? Verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and, entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 ¶ And he charged them, saying, ¶ Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 ¶ And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye because ye have no bread ? perceive ye not yet, neither understand ? have ye your heart yet hardened ?

18 Having eyes, see ye not ? and having ears, hear ye not ? and do ye not remember, 19 ¶ When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up ? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 ¶ And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up ? And they said, Seven.

21 ¶ And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand ?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bethsaida ; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 ¶ And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town : and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought ?

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men, as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up : and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi : and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am ?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist : but some say, Elias ; and others, One of the prophets.

29 ¶ And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am ? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 ¶ And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed ; and after three days rise again.

32 <sup>a</sup> And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 <sup>c</sup> But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 <sup>u</sup> And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 <sup>s</sup> For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 <sup>r</sup> Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 <sup>s</sup> Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

C H A P. IX.

2 Jesus is transfigured. 11 He instructeth his disciples concerning the coming of Elias: 14 casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit: 30 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 33 exhorteth his disciples to humility: 38 bidding them not to prohibit such as be not against them, nor to give offence to any of the faithful.

AND he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 <sup>u</sup> And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 <sup>c</sup> And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 <sup>d</sup> And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 <sup>e</sup> And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son; hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 <sup>f</sup> And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 <sup>u</sup> And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come?

12 <sup>b</sup> And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 <sup>i</sup> But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 <sup>u</sup> And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17 <sup>i</sup> And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit:

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him; and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away; and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him and saith, O faithless generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? Bring him unto me.

20 <sup>m</sup> And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child:

22 And oft-times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 <sup>a</sup> Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 <sup>e</sup> When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 <sup>p</sup> And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting.

30 <sup>u</sup> And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves who should be the greatest.

35 * And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 † And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 * Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ * And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 † For he that is not against us is on our part.

41 * For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, He shall not lose his reward.

42 * And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 † And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched;

44 † Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched;

46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire;

48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 † For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 † Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltiness, wherewith will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

2 Christ disputeth with the Pharisees touching divorcement: 13 blesseth the children that are brought unto him: 17 resolveth a rich man how he may inherit life everlasting: 23 telleth his disciples of the danger of riches: 28 promiseth rewards to them that forsake any thing for the gospel: 32 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 35 biddeth the two ambitious suitors to think rather of suffering with him: 46 and restoreth to Bartimeus his sight.

AND he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 † And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept:

6 † But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

7 † For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 * What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 † And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ * And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 † But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 † Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 * And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ † And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life!

18 † And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good, but one, that is, God.

19 * Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved; for he had great possessions.

23 <sup>p</sup> And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 <sup>a</sup> And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 <sup>r</sup> Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 <sup>a</sup> And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 <sup>t</sup> But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ¶ And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 <sup>a</sup> Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him; and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 <sup>a</sup> And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 <sup>a</sup> But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask. Can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 <sup>b</sup> And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 <sup>a</sup> But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 <sup>a</sup> And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 <sup>a</sup> But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 <sup>r</sup> But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 <sup>a</sup> And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 <sup>b</sup> For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the highway side, begging.

47 <sup>a</sup> And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, † Lord, that I might receive my sight:

52 ¶ And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

9 ° What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 ° And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 ° And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ° And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 ° And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man; for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cesar's.

17 ° And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ° Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 ° Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died; neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 ° And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 ° For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 ° And as touching the dead, that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ° And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 ° And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. This is the first commandment.

31 ° And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 ° And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ° And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?

36 ° For David himself said by the Holy Ghost, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ° And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the market-places,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts;

40 ° Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ° And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 ° And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

AND as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,

4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate; but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house-top not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But wo to them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light;

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds, with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, That this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore; for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning;

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

 chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.
 2 <sup>b</sup> But they said, † Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar of the people.
 3 <sup>c</sup> And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster-box of ointment of spikenard, very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.
 4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?
 5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.
 6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble you her? she hath wrought a good work on me.
 7 <sup>d</sup> For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.
 8 She hath done † what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.
 9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.
 10 <sup>e</sup> And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.
 11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.
 12 <sup>f</sup> And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover?
 13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.
 14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good man of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?
 15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.
 16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.
 17 <sup>g</sup> And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.
 18 <sup>h</sup> And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.
 19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?
 20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.
 21 <sup>i</sup> The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but wo to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 <sup>k</sup> And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.
 23 <sup>l</sup> And he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.
 24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.
 25 <sup>m</sup> Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.
 26 <sup>n</sup> And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.
 27 <sup>o</sup> And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.
 28 <sup>p</sup> But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.
 29 <sup>q</sup> But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.
 30 <sup>r</sup> And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.
 31 <sup>s</sup> But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.
 32 <sup>t</sup> And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.
 33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;
 34 <sup>u</sup> And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.
 35 <sup>x</sup> And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.
 36 <sup>y</sup> And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.
 37 <sup>z</sup> And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?
 38 <sup>a</sup> Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.
 39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.
 40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy: neither wist they what to answer him.
 41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come: behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
 42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.
 43 <sup>b</sup> And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.
 44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he : take him, and lead him away safely

45 ° And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, † Master, master ; and kissed him.

46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me ?

49 ° I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not : but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 ° And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body ; and the young men laid hold on him :

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ And they led Jesus away to the high priest : and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest : and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 ° And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death ; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 ° We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 ° And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing ? what is it which these witness against thee ?

61 ° But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed ?

62 ° And Jesus said, I am : and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses ?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy : what think ye ? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 ° And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy : and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest :

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch ; and the cock crew.

69 ° And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them : for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 ° And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

C H A P. XV.

1 Jesus brought bound and accused before Pilate.

15 Upon the clamour of the common people, the murderer Barabbas is loosed, and Jesus delivered up to be crucified.

17 He is crowned with thorns,

19 spit on and mocked :

21 fainteth in bearing his cross :

27 hangeth between two thieves :

29 suffereth the triumphing reproaches of the Jews :

39 but confessed by the centurion to be the Son of God :

43 and is honourably buried by Joseph.

AND straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 ° And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews ? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things ; but he answered nothing.

4 ° And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing ? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing ; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 ° Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 ° And there was one, named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude, crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews ?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 ° But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews ?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done ? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 <sup>a</sup> And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 <sup>b</sup> And the soldiers led him away into the hall called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head;

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 <sup>i</sup> And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and, bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 <sup>k</sup> And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 <sup>l</sup> And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 <sup>m</sup> And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 <sup>n</sup> And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 <sup>o</sup> And it was the third hour; and they crucified him.

26 <sup>p</sup> And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 <sup>q</sup> And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 <sup>r</sup> And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith; And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 <sup>s</sup> And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests, mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 <sup>t</sup> And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 <sup>u</sup> And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 <sup>x</sup> And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 <sup>y</sup> And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 <sup>z</sup> And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

Heb. 1, 14.

r Gen. 18, 10.

Before the Account call- ed Anno Do- mini the sixth Year. 25 * Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 ¶ And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 * To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 * And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 * And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favour with God.

31 * And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 * He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 * And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 * And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.

37 * For with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Mary arose in these days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost:

42 * And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women; and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 * And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 * And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 * For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 * For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

50 * And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

51 * He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 * He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 * He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 * He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;

55 * As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 ¶ Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 * And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 * And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 * And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea:

66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be? And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 * Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 * And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

70 * As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 * That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us,

72 * To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant,

73 * The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

74 * That he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear,

C H A P. II.

1 Augustus taxeth all the Roman empire. 6 The nativity of Christ. 8 An angel relateth it to the shepherds: 13 Many sing praises to God for it. 21 Christ is circumcised. 22 Mary purified. 23 Simeon and Anna prophesy of Christ: 40 who increaseth in wisdom, 46 questioneth in the temple with the doctors, 51 and is obedient to his parents.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyprius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 <sup>a</sup> And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David,)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 <sup>b</sup> And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the <sup>c</sup> field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 <sup>e</sup> And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

10 <sup>d</sup> And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 <sup>e</sup> For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 <sup>f</sup> And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying,

14 <sup>g</sup> Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 <sup>h</sup> But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 <sup>i</sup> And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 <sup>j</sup> And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 <sup>k</sup> And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 <sup>l</sup> (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 <sup>m</sup> And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.

25 <sup>n</sup> And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 <sup>o</sup> And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 <sup>p</sup> Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 <sup>q</sup> For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, 31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 <sup>r</sup> A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 <sup>s</sup> And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;

35 <sup>t</sup> (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser; she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 ¶ <sup>a</sup> And the child grew, and waxed strong || in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 <sup>b</sup> Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 <sup>c</sup> And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 <sup>d</sup> And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

50 <sup>e</sup> And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 <sup>f</sup> And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 <sup>g</sup> And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

C H A P. III.

1 The preaching and baptism of John. 15 His testimony of Christ. 20 Herod imprisoneth John. 21 Christ baptized, receiveth testimony from heaven. 23 The age and genealogy of Christ from Joseph upwards.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 <sup>a</sup> Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 <sup>b</sup> And he came into all the country about

Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins;

4 <sup>c</sup> As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 <sup>d</sup> And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 <sup>e</sup> Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 <sup>f</sup> Bring forth, therefore, fruits worthy of repentance; and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 <sup>g</sup> And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree, therefore, which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 <sup>h</sup> And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 <sup>i</sup> He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 <sup>k</sup> Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 <sup>l</sup> And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 <sup>m</sup> And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ or not;

16 <sup>n</sup> John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:

17 <sup>o</sup> Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things, in his exhortation, preached he unto the people.

19 <sup>p</sup> But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 ¶ <sup>q</sup> Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 <sup>r</sup> And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him; and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

16 The people of Nazareth admire his gracious words. 33 He cureth one possessed of a devil, 38 Peter's mother-in-law, 40 and divers other sick persons. 41 The devils acknowledge Christ, and are reproved for it: 43 He preacheth through the cities.

<sup>a</sup> AND Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 <sup>b</sup> Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 <sup>c</sup> And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 <sup>d</sup> And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 <sup>e</sup> And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou, therefore, wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 <sup>f</sup> And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 <sup>g</sup> And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

10 <sup>h</sup> For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee;

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 <sup>i</sup> And Jesus answering, said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 <sup>k</sup> And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 <sup>l</sup> And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 <sup>m</sup> And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 <sup>n</sup> The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, Many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he, passing through the midst of them, went his way, 31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath-days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 And in the synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he, rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also; for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

C H A P. V.

1 Christ teacheth the people out of Peter's ship; 4 in a miraculous taking of fishes, sheweth how he will make him and his partners fishers of men; 12 cleanseth the leper; 16 prayeth in the wilderness; 18 healeth one sick of the palsy; 27 calleth Matthew the publican; 29 eateth with sinners as being the physician of souls; 34 foretelleth the fastings and afflictions of the apostles after his ascension: 36 and likeneth faint-hearted and weak disciples to worn garments and old bottles.

AND it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

12 And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy; who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 <sup>a</sup> And he charged him to tell no man: but go and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 <sup>b</sup> But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 <sup>c</sup> And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ¶ <sup>d</sup> And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 <sup>e</sup> And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling, with his couch, into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 <sup>f</sup> And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 <sup>g</sup> Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

27 ¶ <sup>h</sup> And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 <sup>i</sup> And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 <sup>j</sup> But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 <sup>k</sup> And Jesus answering, said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 <sup>l</sup> I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 <sup>m</sup> And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 <sup>n</sup> And he spake also a parable unto them: No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

C H A P. VI.

1 Christ reproveth the Pharisees' blindness about the observation of the sabbath, by scripture, reason, and miracle: 13 chooseth twelve apostles: 17 healeth the diseased: 20 preacheth to his disciples before the people of blessings and curses; 27 how we must love our enemies; 46 and join the obedience of good works to the hearing of the word, lest in the evil day of temptation we fall like an house built upon the face of the earth without any foundation.

AND it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 <sup>a</sup> And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath-days?

3 <sup>b</sup> And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an-hungered, and they which were with him;

4 <sup>c</sup> How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat, but for the priests alone?

5 <sup>d</sup> And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 ¶ <sup>e</sup> And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught; and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath-day, that they might find an accusation against him.

8 <sup>f</sup> But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

- 9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath-days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?
- 10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.
- 11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.
- 12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.
- 13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles;
- 14 Simon (whom he also named Peter), and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,
- 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes,
- 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.
- 17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;
- 18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.
- 19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.
- 20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.
- 21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.
- 22 Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.
- 23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.
- 24 But wo unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.
- 25 Wo unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Wo unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.
- 26 Wo unto you when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.
- 27 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you;
- 28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.
- 29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.
- 30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.
- 31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.
- 32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.
- 33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.
- 34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.
- 35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.
- 36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.
- 37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:
- 38 Give, and it shall be given unto you: good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be measured to you again.
- 39 And he spake a parable unto them: Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?
- 40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.
- 41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?
- 42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite! cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.
- 43 For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
- 44 For every tree is known by his own fruit: for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble-bush gather they grapes.
- 45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.
- 46 And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?
- 47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:
- 48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock; and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it; for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth, against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

C H A P. VII.

1 Christ findeth a greater faith in the centurion a Gentile, than in any of the Jews; 10 healeth his servant being absent; 11 raiseth from death the widow's son at Nain; 19 answereth John's messengers with the declaration of his miracles; 24 testifieth to the people what opinion he held of John; 30 inveigheth against the Jews, who with neither the manners of John nor of Jesus could be won; 36 and sheweth by occasion of Mary Magdalene, how he is a friend to sinners, not to maintain them in sins, but to forgive them their sins upon their faith and repentance.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

a Mat. 7, 28.
& 8, 5.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers: and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold; there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in the same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors : the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty :

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me, therefore, which of them will love him most ?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman ? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet : but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss : but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

6 And some fell upon a rock ; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns ; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand with-21 And he answered and said unto them,

My mother and my brethren are these which 22 ¶ Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish! Then he rose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they, being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this?
for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said,
What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain; and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them:
and he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind:
and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him:
for they were all waiting for him.

41 And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went, the people thronged him.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stancheth.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and, falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole:
go in peace.

49 While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished; but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease, which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son; for he is mine only child:

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again; and, bruising him hardly, departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. ¶ But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 <sup>b</sup> Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 <sup>c</sup> But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ <sup>d</sup> Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 <sup>e</sup> And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 <sup>f</sup> And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbid him, because he followeth not with us.

50 <sup>g</sup> And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

51 <sup>h</sup> And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he <sup>i</sup> stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 <sup>j</sup> And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 <sup>k</sup> And when his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

55 But he turned and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 <sup>l</sup> For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ <sup>m</sup> And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 <sup>n</sup> And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead; but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 <sup>o</sup> And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

C H A P. X.

1 Christ sendeth out at once seventy disciples to work miracles, and to preach: 17 admonisheth them to be humble, and wherein to rejoice: 21 thanketh his Father for his grace: 23 magnifieth the happy estate of his church: 25 teacheth the lawyer how to attain eternal life, and to take every one for his neighbour that needeth his mercy: 41 reprehendeth Martha, and commendeth Mary her sister.

<sup>a</sup> AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 <sup>b</sup> Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 <sup>c</sup> Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 <sup>d</sup> Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way.

5 <sup>e</sup> And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 <sup>f</sup> And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 <sup>g</sup> And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 <sup>h</sup> But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 <sup>i</sup> But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.

13 <sup>j</sup> Wo unto thee, Chorazin! wo unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you.

15 <sup>k</sup> And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 <sup>l</sup> He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 ¶ And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 ¶ Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 ¶ Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ ¶ In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 ¶ All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ ¶ And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 ¶ And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

28 ¶ And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 ¶ But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 ¶ And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 ¶ And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.

39 ¶ And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 ¶ But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

C H A P. XI.

1 Christ teacheth to pray, and that instantly: 11 assuring that God so will give us good things. 14 He, casting out a dumb devil, rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisees: 28 and sheweth who are blessed: 29 preacheth to the people: 37 and reprehendeth the outward shew of holiness in the Pharisees, scribes, and lawyers.

AND it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 ¶ And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name: Thy kingdom come: Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 ¶ Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 ¶ And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us: And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 ¶ And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 ¶ And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 ¶ If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

Mat. 11, 42.

13 * If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 <sup>1</sup> But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 * And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 <sup>1</sup> But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house, falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 * But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 * When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 * But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 * He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

24 * When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 * Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 * And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lift up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 <sup>1</sup> But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 * And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 * The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

32 * The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

33 * No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 * The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 * And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 * And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 * But rather give alms of such things as you have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 * But wo unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 * Wo unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 * Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.

46 * And he said, Wo unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 <sup>1</sup> Wo unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 * Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute;

50 <sup>1</sup> That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 From the blood of Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: Verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52<sup>m</sup> Wo unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things;

54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

C H A P. XII.

1 Christ preacheth to his disciples to avoid hypocrisy and fearfulness in publishing his doctrine: 13 warneth the people to beware of covetousness, by the parable of the rich man who set up greater barns. 22 We must not be over-careful of earthly things; 31 but seek the kingdom of God, 33 give alms; 36 be ready at a knock to open to our Lord whensoever he cometh. 41 Christ's ministers are to see to their charge, 49 and look for persecution. 51 The people must take this time of grace; 53 because it is a fearful thing to die without reconciliation.

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all. Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2<sup>b</sup> For there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear, in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.

4<sup>c</sup> And I say unto you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear: Fear him which, after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6<sup>d</sup> Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings? and not one of them is forgotten before God:

7<sup>e</sup> But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8<sup>f</sup> Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men, shall be denied before the angels of God.

10<sup>g</sup> And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven.

11<sup>h</sup> And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14<sup>i</sup> And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15<sup>k</sup> And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19<sup>l</sup> And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20<sup>m</sup> But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21<sup>n</sup> So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.

22<sup>o</sup> And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24<sup>p</sup> Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have store-house nor barn; and God feedeth them. How much more are ye better than the fowls?

25<sup>q</sup> And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow; they toil not, they spin not: and yet I say unto you, That Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31<sup>r</sup> But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32<sup>s</sup> Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33<sup>t</sup> Sell that ye have, and give alms: provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

1 Christ preacheth repentance upon the punishment of the Galileans, and others. 6 The fruitless fig-tree may not stand. 11 He healeth the crooked woman: 18 sheweth the powerful working of the word in the hearts of his chosen, by the parable of the grain of mustard-seed, and of leaven: 24 exhorteth to enter in at the strait gate: 31 and reproveth Herod and Jerusalem.

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

b Isa. 5, 2.
Mat. 21, 19

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 ¶ And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath:

11 And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath-day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath-day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite! doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath-day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying towards Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When once the Master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence you are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence you are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must walk to-day, and to-morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

2 Christ healeth the dropsy on the sabbath: 8 teacheth humility: 12 to feast the poor: 17 under the parable of the great supper, sheweth how worldly-minded men, who condemn the word of God, shall be shut out of heaven. 25 Those who will be his disciples, to bear their cross, must make their accounts aforehand, lest with shame they revolt from him afterward, 34 and become altogether unprofitable, like salt that hath lost his savour.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath-day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering, spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath-day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath-day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

4 <sup>c</sup> What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 <sup>d</sup> And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 <sup>e</sup> I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons which need no repentance.

8 Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do, for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

7 How we are bound to God, and not he to us.

11 He healeth ten lepers. 22 Of the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Son of man.

<sup>a</sup> THEN said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but ye unto him through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 <sup>b</sup> Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 <sup>b</sup> And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 <sup>c</sup> And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this sycamine-tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing, or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 <sup>d</sup> So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say,

(751)

We are unprofitable servants; we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 <sup>e</sup> And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 <sup>f</sup> And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 <sup>g</sup> And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God;

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 <sup>h</sup> And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 <sup>i</sup> And when he was demanded of the Pharisees when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 <sup>j</sup> Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, Lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is || within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 <sup>k</sup> And they shall say to you, See here; or, See there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 <sup>l</sup> For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 <sup>m</sup> But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 <sup>n</sup> And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 <sup>o</sup> Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 <sup>p</sup> But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 <sup>q</sup> In that day, he which shall be upon the house-top, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 <sup>r</sup> Remember Lot's wife.

3 Of the importunate widow. 9 Of the Pharisee and the publican. 15 Children brought to Christ: 18 A ruler that would follow Christ, but is hindered by his riches. 28 The reward of them that leave all for his sake. 31 He foresheweth his death, 35 and restoreth a blind man to his sight.

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint:

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet, because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 ¶ And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised other:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself: God, I thank thee that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican:

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 'I tell you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 ¶ And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein.

18 ¶ And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way-side, begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore-tree to see him ; for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zaccheus, make haste, and come down ; for to-day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

9 <sup>b</sup> And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is the son of Abraham.

10 <sup>c</sup> For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 <sup>d</sup> And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 <sup>e</sup> He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 <sup>f</sup> But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 <sup>g</sup> And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant : because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin :

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man : thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 <sup>h</sup> And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow :

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury ?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 <sup>i</sup> For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given ; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 <sup>j</sup> And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 <sup>k</sup> And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you ; in the which, at your entering, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat : loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt ?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 <sup>l</sup> And they brought him to Jesus : and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, That they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 <sup>c</sup> Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

28 <sup>a</sup> Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.
30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

<sup>a</sup> NOW the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 <sup>b</sup> And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 <sup>c</sup> Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 <sup>d</sup> And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 <sup>e</sup> ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 <sup>f</sup> And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 <sup>g</sup> For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the <sup>h</sup> cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 <sup>i</sup> For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 <sup>j</sup> And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 <sup>k</sup> But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 <sup>l</sup> And truly the Son of man goeth as it was determined: but wo unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 <sup>m</sup> And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 <sup>n</sup> And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called Benefactors.

26 <sup>o</sup> But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 <sup>p</sup> For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

29 <sup>a</sup> And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 <sup>a</sup> That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 <sup>a</sup> And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

32 <sup>a</sup> But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison and to death.

34 <sup>a</sup> And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 <sup>a</sup> And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one.

37 <sup>a</sup> For I say unto you, That this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 <sup>a</sup> And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 <sup>a</sup> And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 <sup>a</sup> And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 <sup>a</sup> Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

43 <sup>a</sup> And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 <sup>a</sup> And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 <sup>a</sup> And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 <sup>a</sup> And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 <sup>a</sup> Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 <sup>a</sup> Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 <sup>a</sup> And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him; for he is a Galilean.

60 <sup>a</sup> And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 <sup>a</sup> And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 <sup>a</sup> And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 <sup>a</sup> And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 <sup>a</sup> Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, you will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, you will not answer me, nor let me go,

69 <sup>a</sup> Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him: and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me as one that perverteth the people; and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man, touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him: and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast in prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors; one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the King of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And a superscription also was written over him, in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 <sup>a</sup> And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit; and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 <sup>b</sup> Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 <sup>c</sup> And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 <sup>d</sup> And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 <sup>e</sup> (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them:) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews; who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 <sup>f</sup> And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 <sup>g</sup> And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 <sup>h</sup> And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 <sup>i</sup> And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath-day, according to the commandment.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by two angels to the women that come to the sepulchre. 9 These report it to others. 13 Christ himself appeareth to the two disciples that went to Emmaus. 36 Afterward he appeareth to the apostles, and reproveth their unbelief: 47 giveth them a charge: 49 promiseth the Holy Ghost; 51 and so ascendeth into heaven.

<sup>a</sup> NOW upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 <sup>b</sup> And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 <sup>c</sup> And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And, as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 <sup>d</sup> He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 <sup>e</sup> And they remembered his words,

9 <sup>f</sup> And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 <sup>g</sup> It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 <sup>h</sup> And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 <sup>i</sup> Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 <sup>j</sup> And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 <sup>k</sup> And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 <sup>l</sup> But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 <sup>m</sup> And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 <sup>n</sup> And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 <sup>o</sup> But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done.

22 <sup>p</sup> Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre:

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, That they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

26 <sup>q</sup> Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 <sup>r</sup> And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 <sup>s</sup> But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat

¶ The GOSPEL according to St. JOHN.

C H A P. I.

1 The divinity, humanity, and office of Jesus Christ.
15 The testimony of John. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

<sup>a</sup> IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 <sup>b</sup> The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 <sup>c</sup> And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ <sup>d</sup> There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 <sup>e</sup> The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 <sup>f</sup> He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 <sup>g</sup> He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 <sup>h</sup> But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 <sup>i</sup> Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 <sup>j</sup> And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only-begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

15 <sup>k</sup> John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 <sup>l</sup> And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 <sup>m</sup> For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 <sup>n</sup> No man hath seen God at any time; the only-begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 <sup>o</sup> And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 <sup>p</sup> And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 <sup>q</sup> And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 * He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 † And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou them, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 † John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who, coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 * These things were done in Bethabara, beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 † The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world!

30 † This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 † And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 † And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 † And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 † Again, the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 † And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 † One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 † He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah, which is, being interpreted, The Christ.

42 † And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, A stone.

43 The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 † Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

47 † Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 † Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

1 Christ turneth water into wine, 12 departeth into Capernaum, and to Jerusalem, 14 where he purgeth the temple of buyers and sellers: 19 He foretelleth his death and resurrection: 23 Many believed because of his miracles, but he would not trust himself with them.

† AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

4 † Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 † And there were set there six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 * And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 <sup>b</sup> And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 <sup>b</sup> And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 * And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 <sup>b</sup> Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 * Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 <sup>a</sup> But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 * When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast-day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 <sup>a</sup> But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men;

25 <sup>a</sup> And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

C H A P. III.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration: 14 Of faith in his death. 16 The great love of God towards the world. 18 Condemnation for unbelief. 23 The baptism, witness, and doctrine of John concerning Christ.

<sup>a</sup> THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 <sup>b</sup> The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 <sup>c</sup> Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 <sup>d</sup> Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 * That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 <sup>f</sup> The † wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 * Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 <sup>b</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 <sup>b</sup> And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man, which is in heaven.

14 * And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up;

15 <sup>b</sup> That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 * For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 * For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 * He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God.

19 * And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 <sup>a</sup> For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved:

21 <sup>a</sup> But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.

23 * And John also was baptizing in Enon, near to Salim, because there was much water there; and they came, and were baptized:

24 <sup>a</sup> For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews, about purifying.

26 * And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou bearest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 <sup>a</sup> John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

C H A P. IV.

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria, and revealeth himself unto her. 27 His disciples marvel.

31 He declareth to them his zeal to God's glory.

39 Many Samaritans believe on him. 43 He departeth into Galilee, and healeth the ruler's son that lay sick at Capernaum.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 <sup>b</sup> Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well; and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 * Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 <sup>d</sup> Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

11 * The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 <sup>f</sup> Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 * But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst: but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 <sup>h</sup> The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 <sup>i</sup> Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 <sup>k</sup> Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship; for salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 <sup>l</sup> God is a spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 <sup>m</sup> The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 <sup>n</sup> Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

27 * And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 <sup>p</sup> The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 <sup>q</sup> Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: Is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 <sup>r</sup> In the mean-while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 <sup>s</sup> But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 <sup>t</sup> Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 <sup>u</sup> Say not ye, There are yet //four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

C H A P. V.

1 Jesus, on the sabbath-day, cureth him that was diseased eight and thirty years. 10 The Jews therefore caviil, and persecute him for it. 17 He answereth for himself, and reproveth them, shewing by the testimony of his Father, 32 of John, 36 of his works, 39 and of the scriptures, who he is.

AFTER this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem, by the sheep-market, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the troubling of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath-day; it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 ° For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 ° For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 ° That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 ° Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

25 ° Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 ° And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28 ° Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 ° I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 ° If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not || true.

32 ° There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 ° Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 ° He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ° But I have greater witness than that of John; for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ° Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

40 ° And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 ° I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 ° How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 ° For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

C H A P. VI.

1 Christ feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes. 15 Thereupon the people would have made him king. 16 But withdrawing himself, he walketh on the sea to his disciples: 26 reproveth the people flocking after him, and all the fleshly hearers of his word: 32 declareth himself to be the bread of life to believers. 66 Many disciples depart from him. 68 Peter confesseth him. 70 Judas is a devil.

AFTER these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 ° And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 ° And the || passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ° When Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him,

9 ° There is a lad here, which hath five barley-loaves and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 ° And Jesus took the loaves: and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 ° Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world.

15 ° When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 ¶ And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose, by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty || furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks;)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 * Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 † Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, That ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 † They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 † Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 ° Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 † For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 † Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 † And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 † But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 † All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 † For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 † And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, That of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 † And this is the will of him that sent me, That every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 † And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 † No man can come to me, except the Father, which hath sent me, draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 † It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 † Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God; he hath seen the Father.

47 † Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 † I am that bread of life.

49 † Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 † I am the living bread which came down from heaven: If any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 † The Jews therefore strove amongst themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 † Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 † Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 † He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 ¶ Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he ?

12 ¶ And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him : for some said, He is a good man : others said, Nay ; but he deceiveth the people.

13 ¶ Howbeit no man spake openly of him, for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned ?

16 ¶ Jesus answered them, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 ¶ If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 ¶ He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory : but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 ¶ Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law ? Why go ye about to kill me ?

20 ¶ The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil : who goeth about to kill thee ?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 ¶ Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision ; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers ;) and ye on the sabbath-day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath-day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken ; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath-day ?

24 ¶ Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 ¶ Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill ?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ ?

27 ¶ Howbeit we know this man whence he is : but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 ¶ Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am : and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 ¶ But I know him : for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 ¶ Then they sought to take him : but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 ¶ And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done ?

33 <sup>a</sup> Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 <sup>e</sup> Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 ¶ <sup>f</sup> In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 <sup>g</sup> He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 <sup>h</sup> (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

40 <sup>i</sup> Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 <sup>j</sup> Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 <sup>k</sup> Hath not the Scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?

43 <sup>l</sup> So there was a division among the people because of him:

44 <sup>m</sup> And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 <sup>n</sup> Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people, who knoweth not the law, are cursed.

50 <sup>o</sup> Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them.)

51 <sup>p</sup> Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 <sup>q</sup> They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery: 12 He preacheth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine; 33 answereth the Jews that boasted of Abraham, 59 and conveyeth himself from their cruelty.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.
2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 <sup>a</sup> Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 <sup>b</sup> So when they continued asking him, he lift up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 <sup>c</sup> And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lift up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 <sup>d</sup> She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ <sup>e</sup> Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 <sup>f</sup> The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 <sup>g</sup> Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 <sup>h</sup> It is also written in your law, That the testimony of two men is true.

18 <sup>i</sup> I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 <sup>k</sup> Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 <sup>l</sup> These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.

21 ¶ <sup>m</sup> Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 <sup>n</sup> And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, That ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 ° I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 ° Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lift up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 ° And he that sent me is with me; the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 ¶ Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed:

32 ° And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 ° Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin.

35 ° And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 ° I know that ye are Abraham's seed: but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 ° I speak that which I have seen with my Father; and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 ° They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 ° But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 ° Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin?

And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 ° He that is of God heareth God's words; ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 ° Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil: but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 ° And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 ° Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 ° Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

54 ° Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honour-eth me; of whom ye say, That he is your God:

55 ° Yet ye have not known him: but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 ° Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 ° Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 ° Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAP. IX.

1 The man that was born blind restored to sight: 13 He is brought to the Pharisees: 16 They are offended at it, and 34 excommunicate him: 35 but he is received of Jesus, and confesseth him. 39 Who they are whom Christ enlighteneth.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 ° And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents; but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 ° I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 ° As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay.

7 And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is, by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

CHAP. X.

1 Christ is the door, and the good shepherd: 19 Divers opinions of him: 25 He proveth by his works, that he is Christ the Son of God: 39 Escapeth the Jews, 40 and goeth again beyond Jordan, where many believe on him.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 ¶ Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 ¶ All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not; the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the Scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works; that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand;

40 And went away again beyond Jordan, into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true.

42 And many believed on him there.

C H A P. XI.

1 Christ raiseth Lazarus four days buried. Many Jews believe. 47 The chief priests and Pharisees gather a council against Christ. 49 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Jesus hideth himself. 55 At the passover they inquire after him, and lay wait for him.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they

Anno DOMINI

& 16, 29.

they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 ° Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead :

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe ; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off.

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him : but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 <sup>r</sup> But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 <sup>s</sup> Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 <sup>b</sup> Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life : he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live :

26 <sup>i</sup> And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this ?

27 <sup>k</sup> She saith unto him, Yea, Lord : I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 <sup>l</sup> The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 <sup>m</sup> Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled.

34 And said, Where have ye laid him ? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him !

37 <sup>n</sup> And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died ?

38 Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh : for he hath been dead four days.

40 ° Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God ?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lift up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always : but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth !

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes ; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 <sup>p</sup> Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ <sup>q</sup> Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we ? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him ; and the Romans shall come, and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 <sup>r</sup> Nor consider that it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself : but, being high priest that year, he prophesied, That Jesus should die for that nation ;

52 <sup>s</sup> And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews ; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 <sup>t</sup> And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand : and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast ?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

3 <sup>c</sup> Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

d ch. 13, 29.

6 <sup>d</sup> This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

13 <sup>g</sup> Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna! Blessed is the King of Israel, that cometh in the name of the Lord!

h Zech. 9, 9.

15 <sup>h</sup> Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy king cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 <sup>k</sup> He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 <sup>l</sup> If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 <sup>m</sup> Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 <sup>n</sup> Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 <sup>o</sup> And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 <sup>p</sup> The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 <sup>q</sup> Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 <sup>r</sup> That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,

40 <sup>s</sup> He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 <sup>t</sup> These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 <sup>u</sup> Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

Feb. 1, 3. <sup>i</sup> Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father, that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

z Mark 16, 17. <sup>j</sup> Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12. <sup>k</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13. <sup>l</sup> And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15. <sup>m</sup> If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16. <sup>n</sup> And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17. <sup>o</sup> Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18. <sup>p</sup> I will not leave you || comfortless: I will come to you.

19. <sup>q</sup> Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20. <sup>r</sup> At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21. <sup>s</sup> He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father; and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 Judas saith unto him (not Iscariot,) Lord, † how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23. <sup>t</sup> Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24. <sup>u</sup> He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word which you hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26. <sup>v</sup> But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27. <sup>w</sup> Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28. <sup>x</sup> Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

29. <sup>y</sup> And now I have told you before it come to pass; that when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30. <sup>z</sup> Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

31. <sup>a</sup> But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

1 The consolation and mutual love between Christ and his members, under the parable of the vine. 18 A comfort in the hatred and persecution of the world. 26 The office of the Holy Ghost, and of the apostles.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2. <sup>b</sup> Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 <sup>c</sup> Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 <sup>d</sup> Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 <sup>e</sup> I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 <sup>f</sup> If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 <sup>g</sup> If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 <sup>h</sup> Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 <sup>i</sup> These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 <sup>k</sup> This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 <sup>l</sup> Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 <sup>m</sup> Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 <sup>n</sup> Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 <sup>o</sup> Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 <sup>p</sup> These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 <sup>q</sup> If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 <sup>r</sup> If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 <sup>s</sup> Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than the lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 <sup>t</sup> But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 <sup>u</sup> If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin.

23 <sup>v</sup> He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 <sup>w</sup> If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 <sup>z</sup> But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 <sup>a</sup> But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

27 <sup>b</sup> And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples against tribulation by the promise of the Holy Ghost, and by his resurrection and ascension; 23 assureth their prayers made in his name to be acceptable to his Father. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world, affliction.

<sup>a</sup> THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 <sup>b</sup> They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 <sup>c</sup> And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 <sup>d</sup> But these things have I told you, that, when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 <sup>e</sup> But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 <sup>f</sup> But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 <sup>g</sup> Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 <sup>h</sup> And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

12 <sup>i</sup> I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 <sup>m</sup> Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 <sup>n</sup> All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 <sup>o</sup> A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, and ye shall see me; because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me : and again, A little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father ?

13 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, and ye shall see me ?

20 <sup>p</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice : and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come : but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 <sup>a</sup> And ye now therefore have sorrow : but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 <sup>r</sup> And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 <sup>r</sup> Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name : ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 <sup>t</sup> These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs : but the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 <sup>u</sup> At that day ye shall ask in my name : and I say not unto you that I will pray the Father for you ;

27 <sup>r</sup> For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

28 <sup>v</sup> I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world : again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou || plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 <sup>z</sup> Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee : by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe ?

32 <sup>a</sup> Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone : and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 <sup>b</sup> These things have I spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

C H A P. XVII.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him : 6 to preserve his apostles, 11 in unity, 17 and truth : 20 to glorify them, and all other believers with him in heaven.

<sup>a</sup> THESE words spake Jesus, and lift up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come : glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee :

2 <sup>b</sup> As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 <sup>c</sup> And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 <sup>d</sup> I have glorified thee on the earth : I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 <sup>e</sup> And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 <sup>f</sup> I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world : thine they were, and thou gavest them me ; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things, whatsoever thou hast given me, are of thee :

8 <sup>g</sup> For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me ; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them : I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me ; for they are thine.

10 <sup>h</sup> And all mine are thine, and thine are mine ; and I am glorified in them.

11 <sup>i</sup> And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 <sup>k</sup> While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name : those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition ; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 <sup>l</sup> And now come I to thee ; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 <sup>m</sup> I have given them thy word ; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 <sup>n</sup> I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 <sup>o</sup> They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 <sup>p</sup> Sanctify them through thy truth : thy word is truth.

18 <sup>q</sup> As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 <sup>r</sup> And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 <sup>s</sup> Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word ;

21 <sup>t</sup> That they all may be one ; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us : that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 <sup>b</sup> And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place; for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 <sup>c</sup> Judas then, having received a band of men, and officers, from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

12 <sup>f</sup> Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,

13 <sup>g</sup> And led him away to Annas first; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

14 <sup>h</sup> Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 <sup>i</sup> And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple; that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 <sup>k</sup> And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 <sup>l</sup> Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 <sup>m</sup> Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 <sup>n</sup> Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 <sup>o</sup> And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

28 <sup>p</sup> Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early: and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring you against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 <sup>q</sup> That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

31 ¶ The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath-day, (for that sabbath-day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true; and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 * For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 * And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this, Joseph of Arimathea, (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews) besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 * And there came also Nicodemus, (which at the first came to Jesus by night,) and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 * Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews' preparation-day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

1 Mary cometh to the sepulchre : 3 so do Peter and John, ignorant of the resurrection. 11 Jesus appeareth to Mary Magdalene, 19 and to his disciples. 24 The incredulity and confession of Thomas. 30 The scripture is sufficient to salvation.

THE first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 * Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 * Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together : and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he, stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie;

7 * And the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 * But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 * And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 * And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

17 * Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus, and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 * And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.

21 * Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 * And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost.

AFTER these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, if I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 <sup>b</sup> Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 <sup>c</sup> And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 <sup>d</sup> And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 <sup>e</sup> And all that believed were together, and had all things common;

45 <sup>f</sup> And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 <sup>g</sup> And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 <sup>h</sup> Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

C H A P. III.

1 Peter preacheth to the people that came to see a lame man restored to his feet, 12 and professeth the cure not to have been wrought by his or John's own power, or holiness, but by God; and his son Jesus, and through faith in his name: 13 withal reprehending them for crucifying Jesus: 17 which because they did it through ignorance, and that thereby were fulfilled God's determinate counsel, and the scriptures, 19 he exhorteth them by repentance and faith to seek remission of their sins, and salvation in the same Jesus.

2 And a certain man, lame from his mother's womb, was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lift him up: and immediately his feet and ancle-bones received strength.

8 <sup>b</sup> And he leaping up, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 <sup>c</sup> And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 <sup>d</sup> And, as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them, in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 <sup>e</sup> And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 <sup>f</sup> The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 <sup>g</sup> But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 <sup>h</sup> And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.

16 <sup>i</sup> And his name, through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know; yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 <sup>j</sup> And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 <sup>k</sup> But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 <sup>l</sup> Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 <sup>m</sup> And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 <sup>n</sup> Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 <sup>o</sup> For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things, whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul which will not hear that Prophet shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 <sup>p</sup> Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 <sup>q</sup> Unto you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

31 <sup>a</sup> And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 <sup>b</sup> And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

1 The apostles desirous to have the poor regarded for their bodily sustenance, as also careful themselves to dispense the word of God, the food of the soul, 3 appoint the office of deaconship to seven chosen men : 5 of whom Stephen, a man full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost, is one : 12 who is taken of those whom he confounded in disputing, 13 and after falsely accused of blasphemy against the law and the temple.

AND in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude : and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch :

6 Whom they set before the apostles : and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased ; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly ; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called The synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, disputing with Stephen

10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place and the law :

14 For we have heard him say, That this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

C H A P. VII.

1 Stephen permitted to answer to the accusation of blasphemy, 2 sheweth that Abraham worshipped God rightly, and how God chose the fathers, 20 before Moses was born, and before the tabernacle and temple were built : 37 that Moses himself witnessed of Christ : 44 and that all outward ceremonies were ordained according to the heavenly pattern to last but for a time : 51 reprehending their rebellion, and murdering of Christ, the Just One, whom the prophets foretold should come into the world : 54 whereupon they stone him to death : He commendeth his soul to Jesus, and humbly prayeth for them.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so ?

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken ; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran : and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no not so much as to set his foot on : yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land ; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God : and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day ; and Isaac begat Jacob ; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt ; but God was with him, 32 <sup>u</sup> Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet; for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By occasion of the persecution in Jerusalem, the church being planted in Samaria, 5 by Philip the deacon, who preached, did miracles, and baptized many, among the rest Simon the sorcerer, a great seducer of the people: 14 Peter and John come to confirm and enlarge the church; where, by prayer and imposition of hands, giving the Holy Ghost, 18 when Simon would have bought the like power of them, 20 Peter sharply reproveth his hypocrisy, and covetousness, and exhorting him to repentance, together with John, preaching the word of the Lord, return to Jerusalem. 26 But the angel sendeth Philip to teach, and baptize the Ethiopian eunuch.

AND Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 <sup>b</sup> And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3 <sup>c</sup> As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house; and haling men and women, committed them to prison.

4 <sup>d</sup> Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 <sup>e</sup> Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing, and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 <sup>f</sup> But there was a certain man called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 <sup>g</sup> But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

14 <sup>h</sup> Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 For as yet he was fallen upon none of them; only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw, that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 <sup>i</sup> Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness; and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 <sup>j</sup> And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

26 <sup>a</sup> And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 <sup>o</sup> Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Eneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole; arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt in Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed: and turning him to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lift her up: and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa, with one Simon a tanner.

C H A P. X.

1 Cornelius, a devout man, 5 being commanded by an angel, sendeth for Peter: 11 who by a vision, 15, 20 is taught not to despise the Gentiles. 34 As he preacheth Christ to Cornelius and his company, 44 the Holy Ghost falleth on them, 48 and they are baptized.

THERE was a certain man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 <sup>a</sup> A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. a verse 4, 22, 30.

3 He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 <sup>b</sup> And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter. b verse 32.

6 <sup>c</sup> He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea-side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do. c ch. 9, 43. & 11, 11. verses 22, 32.

7 <sup>d</sup> And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; d Mark 3, 9. chap. 8, 13.

8 <sup>e</sup> And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa. e ch. 11, 11. verse 33.

9 <sup>f</sup> On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the house to pray, about the sixth hour: f ch. 1, 3. & 11, 5. & 20, 8.

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, 11 <sup>g</sup> And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet, knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth; g ch. 11, 5.

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 <sup>h</sup> And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. h Lev. 11, 7. 13, 23. & 20, 25.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean. Deut. 14, 3. Ezek. 4, 14.

15 <sup>i</sup> And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. i Mat. 15, 11. chap. 11, 9. verses 23, 34. Rom. 14, 14. 20.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven. i Cor. 10, 25. 1 Tim. 4, 3. Titus 1, 15.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked, whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 <sup>k</sup> While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. k ver. 7. 17.

20 <sup>1</sup> Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 <sup>m</sup> And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel, to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 <sup>a</sup> Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 <sup>o</sup> And the morrow after they entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 <sup>p</sup> But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 <sup>q</sup> And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 <sup>r</sup> And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gain-saying, as soon as I was sent for. I ask, therefore, for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 <sup>a</sup> And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house; and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon whose surname is Peter: he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner, by the sea-side; who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 <sup>t</sup> Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 <sup>u</sup> But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 <sup>x</sup> The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ; (he is Lord of all;)

37 <sup>y</sup> That word, I say, you know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached:

38 <sup>z</sup> How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him.

39 <sup>a</sup> And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree.

40 <sup>b</sup> Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

41 <sup>c</sup> Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 <sup>d</sup> And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 <sup>e</sup> To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 <sup>f</sup> While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 <sup>g</sup> And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost:

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 <sup>h</sup> Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 <sup>i</sup> And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

C H A P. XI.

1 Peter being accused for going in to the Gentiles, 5 maketh his defence, 18 which is accepted. 19 The gospel being spread into Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, Barnabas is sent to confirm them. 26 The disciples there are first called Christians. 27 They send relief to the brethren in Judea in time of famine.

<sup>a</sup> AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 <sup>b</sup> And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 <sup>c</sup> Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 <sup>d</sup> I was in the city of Joppa, praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay, and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me; and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 <sup>e</sup> And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 <sup>f</sup> Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 <sup>g</sup> Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen, travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 <sup>h</sup> And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 <sup>i</sup> Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 <sup>k</sup> And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them, named

Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.

29 <sup>l</sup> Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

C H A P. XII.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter, whom an angel delivereth upon the prayers of the church. 20 In his pride, taking to himself the honour due to God, he is stricken by an angel, and dieth miserably. 24 After his death the word of God prospereth.

NOW about that time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands, to vex certain of the church.

2 <sup>a</sup> And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. Then were the days of unleavened bread.

4 <sup>b</sup> And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison; but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 <sup>c</sup> And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together, praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 <sup>d</sup> And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he beckoning unto them with the hand, to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go, shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 <sup>e</sup> And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day, Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 <sup>f</sup> But the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 <sup>g</sup> And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Paul and Barnabas are chosen to go to the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer. 14 Paul preacheth at Antioch, that Jesus is Christ. 42 The Gentiles believe; 45 but the Jews gainsay, and blaspheme: 46 whereupon they turn to the Gentiles. 48 As many as were ordained to life, believed.

<sup>h</sup> NOW there were in the church that was at Antioch, certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 <sup>i</sup> As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the work whereunto I have called them.

3 <sup>j</sup> And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 <sup>k</sup> And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

6 <sup>l</sup> And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 <sup>m</sup> But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul (who also is called Paul), filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 <sup>n</sup> And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about, seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 <sup>o</sup> Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia; and John departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 <sup>p</sup> Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 <sup>q</sup> The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 <sup>r</sup> And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 <sup>s</sup> And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.

20 <sup>t</sup> And after that, he gave unto them judges, about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 <sup>u</sup> And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 <sup>v</sup> And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found

David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 <sup>q</sup> Of this man's seed hath God, according to his promise, raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus :

24 <sup>r</sup> When John had first preached, before his coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 <sup>s</sup> And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am ? I am not he : but, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 <sup>t</sup> Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 <sup>u</sup> For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath-day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 <sup>v</sup> And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 <sup>w</sup> And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 <sup>x</sup> But God raised him from the dead :

31 <sup>y</sup> And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 <sup>z</sup> And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 <sup>a</sup> God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again ; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 <sup>b</sup> And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 <sup>c</sup> Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 <sup>d</sup> For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption :

37 But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 <sup>e</sup> Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins :

39 <sup>f</sup> And by him, all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the prophets ;

41 <sup>g</sup> Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish : for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 <sup>h</sup> And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 <sup>i</sup> Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas : who speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 <sup>j</sup> And the next sabbath-day came almost the whole city together, to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 <sup>k</sup> Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you : but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

47 <sup>l</sup> For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 <sup>m</sup> And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord : and as many as were ordained to eternal life, believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 <sup>n</sup> But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 <sup>o</sup> But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

C H A P. XIV.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium. 3 At Lystra Paul healeth a cripple ; whereupon they are reputed as gods. 19 Paul is stoned. 21 They pass through divers churches, confirming the disciples in faith and patience : 26 Returning to Antioch, they report what God had done with them.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude, both of the Jews and also of the Greeks, believed.

2 <sup>a</sup> But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil-affected against the brethren.

3 <sup>b</sup> Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided : and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 <sup>c</sup> And when there was an assault made, both of the Gentiles and also of the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 <sup>d</sup> They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ <sup>e</sup> And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 <sup>f</sup> The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 <sup>g</sup> Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 <sup>h</sup> And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lift up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 <sup>i</sup> Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 <sup>k</sup> Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 <sup>l</sup> And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities, unto the living God, which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 <sup>m</sup> Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 <sup>n</sup> Nevertheless, he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ <sup>o</sup> And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 <sup>p</sup> Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 <sup>q</sup> Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 <sup>r</sup> And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 <sup>s</sup> And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 <sup>t</sup> And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

C H A P. XV.

1 Great dissension ariseth touching circumcision:

6 The apostles consult about it, 22 and send their determination by letters to the churches. 36 Paul and Barnabas thinking to visit the brethren together, fall at strife, and part asunder.

<sup>u</sup> AND certain men which came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 <sup>v</sup> When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem, unto the apostles and elders, about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 <sup>w</sup> And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders; and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 <sup>x</sup> But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 <sup>y</sup> And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them; Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 <sup>z</sup> And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 <sup>aa</sup> And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

10 <sup>ab</sup> Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 <sup>ac</sup> But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

12 <sup>ad</sup> Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 <sup>ae</sup> And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

ch. 21, 15.

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made: and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm; for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas;

30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God, with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves, and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 <sup>d</sup> And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also;

7 <sup>e</sup> Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 <sup>f</sup> And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 <sup>g</sup> These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed: also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 <sup>h</sup> But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 <sup>i</sup> And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 <sup>k</sup> And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus, for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 <sup>l</sup> ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 <sup>m</sup> Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoics, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians, and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' Hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 <sup>a</sup> God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 <sup>b</sup> Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing; seeing he giveth to all, life, and breath, and all things;

26 <sup>c</sup> And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth; and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 <sup>d</sup> Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 <sup>e</sup> And the times of this ignorance God winked at, but now commandeth all men everywhere to repent:

31 <sup>f</sup> Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

2 <sup>a</sup> And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome;) and came unto them.

3 <sup>b</sup> And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tent-makers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 <sup>c</sup> And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus, whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 <sup>1</sup> And many that believed, came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many also of them which used curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 <sup>2</sup> So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 <sup>3</sup> After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 <sup>4</sup> So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 <sup>5</sup> And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.

24 <sup>6</sup> For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 <sup>7</sup> Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians!

29 <sup>8</sup> And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another; for the assembly was confused: and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 <sup>9</sup> And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice, about the space of two hours, cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians!

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

7 <sup>d</sup> And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

e 1 Kings 17,
21.
2 Kings 4, 34.

10 <sup>e</sup> And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 <sup>f</sup> And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

f ch. 13, 21.
& 19, 21.
& 21, 4, 12.

16 <sup>f</sup> For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia; for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 <sup>g</sup> And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the laying in wait of the Jews:

21 <sup>h</sup> Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 <sup>i</sup> And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 <sup>j</sup> Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 <sup>k</sup> But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy: and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 <sup>m</sup> Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 <sup>n</sup> For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 <sup>o</sup> Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 <sup>p</sup> For I know this, that after my departing, shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 <sup>q</sup> Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 <sup>r</sup> Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 <sup>s</sup> And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 <sup>t</sup> I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 <sup>u</sup> Yea, you yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 <sup>v</sup> I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak; and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 <sup>w</sup> And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 <sup>x</sup> And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him;

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees : and the multitude was divided.

8 <sup>f</sup> For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel nor spirit : but the Pharisees confess both.

9 <sup>g</sup> And there arose a great cry : and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man : but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 <sup>h</sup> And the night following, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul : for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 <sup>i</sup> And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 <sup>k</sup> Now therefore ye, with the council, signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him : and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain ; for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me ?

20 <sup>l</sup> And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them : for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves || with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him : and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and || spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night ;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner :

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 <sup>m</sup> This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them : then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 <sup>n</sup> And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council :

29 <sup>o</sup> Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 <sup>p</sup> And when it was told me, how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 <sup>q</sup> Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle :

33 Who, when they came to Cesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia ;

35 <sup>r</sup> I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's || judgment-hall.

AND after five days, Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 <sup>b</sup> For we have found this man <sup>a</sup> † pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 <sup>c</sup> Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom, thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 ¶ Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 <sup>d</sup> Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 <sup>e</sup> And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 <sup>f</sup> But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and the prophets;

15 <sup>g</sup> And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 <sup>h</sup> And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God and toward men.

17 <sup>i</sup> Now after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 <sup>k</sup> Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult:

19 <sup>l</sup> Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council;

21 <sup>m</sup> Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead, I am called in question by you this day.

22 ¶ And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 <sup>n</sup> And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 ¶ And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 <sup>o</sup> But after two years, Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

C H A P. XXV.

2 The Jews accuse Paul before Festus: 8 He answereth for himself, 11 and appealeth unto Cesar; 14 Afterwards Festus openeth his matter to king Agrippa, 23 and he is brought forth: 25 Festus cleareth him to have done nothing worthy of death.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 <sup>a</sup> Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 <sup>b</sup> And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered; that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea; and the next day sitting in the judgment-seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 <sup>c</sup> While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews

Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 <sup>a</sup> For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cesar.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without any delay, on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

C H A P. XXVI.

2 Paul in the presence of Agrippa declareth his life from his childhood, 12 and how miraculously he was converted, and called to his apostleship. 24 Festus chargeeth him to be mad, whereunto he answereth modestly. 28 Agrippa is almost persuaded to be a Christian. 31 The whole company pronounce him innocent.

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself: 2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee, touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially, because I know thee to be † expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 <sup>a</sup> Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.

6 <sup>b</sup> And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 <sup>c</sup> Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 <sup>d</sup> I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 <sup>e</sup> Whereupon as I went to Damascus, with authority and commission from the chief priests:

13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 <sup>f</sup> But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of the things which thou hast seen, and of those in the which I will appear unto thee:

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee ;

18 * To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God ; that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified, by faith that is in me.

19 * Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision :

20 * But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 * For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 * Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come :

23 * That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 * And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself ; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 * For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely : for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him ; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 * And Paul said, I would to God that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 * And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them.

31 * And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cesar.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 Paul shipping towards Rome, 10 foretelleth of the danger of the voyage, 11 but is not believed. 14 They are tossed to and fro with tempest, 41 and suffer shipwreck ; 22, 34, 43 yet all come safe to land.

* AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 * And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia ; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 * And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy ; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone ;

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens ; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them ;

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter ; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south-west and north-west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after, there arose against it † a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Claudia, we had much work to come by the boat ;

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship ; and fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship ;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer : for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

26 <sup>g</sup> Howbeit, we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country:

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have † cast anchors out of the foreship,

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 <sup>h</sup> And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, and continued fasting, having || taken nothing.

34 <sup>i</sup> Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 <sup>k</sup> And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 <sup>l</sup> And we were in all in the ship, two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 <sup>m</sup> And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder-bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 <sup>n</sup> And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 Paul after his shipwreck is kindly entertained of the barbarians: 5 The viper on his hand hurteth him not: 8 He healeth many diseases in the island: 11 They depart towards Rome: 17 He declareth to the Jews the cause of his coming: 24 After his preaching some were persuaded, and some believed not: 30 Yet he preached there two years.

<sup>a</sup> AND when they were escaped, then they <sup>a ch. 27, 26.</sup> knew that the island was called Melita.

2 <sup>b</sup> And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. <sup>b Rom. 1, 14. 1 Cor. 13, 11. Col. 3, 11.</sup>

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 <sup>c</sup> And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm. <sup>c Mark 16, 18. Luke 10, 19 d chap. 8, 10 & 14, 11.</sup>

6 <sup>d</sup> Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 <sup>e</sup> And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever, and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him. <sup>e Mat. 9, 18. Mark 6, 5. & 7, 32. Luke 4, 40. & 13, 13. chap. 14, 3. & 19, 11. James 5, 14, 15.</sup>

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 <sup>f</sup> Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary. <sup>f Mat. 10, 10. A. D. 63.</sup>

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was † Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum, and the Three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 <sup>g</sup> And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself, with a soldier that kept him. <sup>g ch. 24, 23 & 27, 3.</sup>

17 <sup>b</sup> And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans:

18 <sup>i</sup> Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 <sup>k</sup> But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 <sup>l</sup> For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came, shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 <sup>m</sup> But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

23 <sup>n</sup> And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 <sup>o</sup> And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word; Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 <sup>p</sup> Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 <sup>q</sup> Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 <sup>r</sup> And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to the ROMANS.

C H A P. I.

1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romans, 9 and his desire to come to them: 16 what his gospel is, and the righteousness which it sheweth. 19 God is angry with all manner of sin. 21 What were the sins of the Gentiles.

<sup>a</sup> PAUL a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God,

2 <sup>b</sup> Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,

3 <sup>c</sup> Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;

4 <sup>d</sup> And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 <sup>e</sup> By whom we have received grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 <sup>f</sup> To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 <sup>g</sup> ¶ First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 <sup>h</sup> For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 <sup>i</sup> Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God, to come unto you.

11 <sup>k</sup> For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established:

12 <sup>l</sup> That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 <sup>m</sup> Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 <sup>n</sup> I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 <sup>o</sup> For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 <sup>p</sup> For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

18 <sup>q</sup> ¶ For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness:

19 * Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 * For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead: so that they are without excuse.

21 * Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened:

22 * Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 * And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 * Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 * Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature || more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 * For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 * And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 * Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

C H A P. II.

1 They that sin, though they condemn it in others, cannot excuse themselves, 6 and much less escape the judgment of God, 9 whether they be Jews or Gentiles. 14 The Gentiles cannot escape, 17 nor yet the Jews, 25 whom their circumcision shall not profit, if they keep not the law.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest; for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest, doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things.

3 * And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 * Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance.

5 * But after thy hardness and impenitent heart, treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 * Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them, who, by patient continuance in well doing, seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 * But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness; indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile:

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile;

11 * For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 * For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law;

13 * (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing, or else excusing one another;)

16 * In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men, by Jesus-Christ, according to my gospel.

17 ¶ Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,

18 * And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

19 * And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 * An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law:

21 * Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preaches, A man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou

22 <sup>a</sup> Thou that sayest, A man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 <sup>a</sup> Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 <sup>a</sup> For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 <sup>a</sup> For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 <sup>a</sup> Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 <sup>a</sup> And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 <sup>a</sup> For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:

29 <sup>a</sup> But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

C H A P. III.

1 The Jews' prerogative; 3 which they have not lost. 9 Howbeit, the law convinceth them also of sin: 20 therefore no flesh is justified by the law, 28 but all, without difference, by faith only: 31 and yet the law is not abolished.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 <sup>b</sup> Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 <sup>a</sup> For what, if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 <sup>a</sup> God forbid; yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 <sup>a</sup> But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man.)

6 <sup>a</sup> God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory, why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 <sup>a</sup> And not rather (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 <sup>b</sup> What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;

10 <sup>i</sup> As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 <sup>a</sup> Their throat is an open sepulchre: with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 <sup>i</sup> Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 <sup>m</sup> Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 <sup>a</sup> There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 <sup>a</sup> Now we know, that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 <sup>p</sup> Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 <sup>q</sup> But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

22 <sup>r</sup> Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ, unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

23 <sup>a</sup> For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 <sup>t</sup> Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:

25 <sup>u</sup> Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time, his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 <sup>a</sup> Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.

28 <sup>v</sup> Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 <sup>z</sup> Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 <sup>a</sup> Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 <sup>b</sup> Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

C H A P. IV.

1 Abraham's faith was imputed to him for righteousness, 10 before he was circumcised. 13 By faith only, he and his seed received the promise. 16 Abraham is the father of all that believe. 24 Our faith also shall be imputed to us for righteousness.

WHAT shall we say then, that Abraham, our father as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 <sup>b</sup> For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 <sup>c</sup> For what saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 <sup>d</sup> Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 <sup>e</sup> But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 <sup>f</sup> Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

11 <sup>a</sup> And he received the sign of circumcision; a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had, yet being uncircumcised; that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

13 <sup>b</sup> For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 <sup>i</sup> Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 <sup>k</sup> Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

17 <sup>l</sup> (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

23 <sup>q</sup> Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 <sup>r</sup> But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

25 <sup>r</sup> Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

C H A P. V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, 2 and joy in our hope; 8 that since we were reconciled by his blood, when we were enemies, 10 we shall much more be saved being reconciled. 12 As sin and death came by Adam, 17 so much more righteousness and life by Jesus Christ. 20 Where sin abounded, grace did superabound.

<sup>a</sup> THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 <sup>b</sup> By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 <sup>c</sup> And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 <sup>d</sup> And patience, experience; and experience, hope;

5 <sup>e</sup> And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us.

6 <sup>f</sup> For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 <sup>g</sup> For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 <sup>h</sup> But God commendeth his love towards us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 <sup>i</sup> Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 <sup>j</sup> For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 <sup>k</sup> Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

13 <sup>l</sup> (For until the law, sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 <sup>m</sup> Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 <sup>n</sup> But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead; much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation; but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ:)

18 Therefore, as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover, the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign, through righteousness, unto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

C H A P. VI.

1 We may not live in sin, 2 for we are dead unto it, 3 as appeareth by our baptism. 12 Let not sin reign any more, 18 because we have yielded ourselves to the service of righteousness, 23 and for that death is the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death; that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin: but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity, unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness, unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness; and the end, everlasting life.

23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C H A P. VII.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 4 But we are dead to the law. 7 Yet is not the law sin, 12 but holy, just, and good, 16 as I acknowledge, who am grieved because I cannot keep it.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband, so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of the husband.

3 So then, if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members, to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law, sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 <sup>k</sup> And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 <sup>l</sup> For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 <sup>m</sup> Wherefore the law is holy; and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 <sup>n</sup> Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 <sup>o</sup> For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am carnal, sold under sin.

15 <sup>p</sup> For that which I do, I † allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 <sup>q</sup> If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 <sup>r</sup> For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 <sup>s</sup> For I delight in the law of God after the inward man:

23 <sup>t</sup> But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

25 <sup>u</sup> I thank God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

C H A P. VIII.

1 They that are in Christ, and live according to the Spirit, are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit, 17 and what of being God's children: 19 Whose glorious deliverance all things long for. 29 It was beforehand decreed from God. 33 What can sever us from his love?

<sup>a</sup> THERE is, therefore, now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 <sup>b</sup> For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 <sup>c</sup> For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 <sup>d</sup> For they that are after the flesh, do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 <sup>e</sup> For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace:

7 <sup>f</sup> Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 <sup>g</sup> So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 <sup>h</sup> But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 <sup>i</sup> And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 <sup>k</sup> But if the Spirit of him, that raised up Jesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 † Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 <sup>m</sup> For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 <sup>n</sup> For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 <sup>o</sup> For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again, to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 <sup>p</sup> The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 <sup>q</sup> And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may he also glorified together.

18 <sup>r</sup> For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 <sup>s</sup> For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 <sup>t</sup> For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope;

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 <sup>u</sup> For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 <sup>v</sup> And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 <sup>w</sup> For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 <sup>x</sup> But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 <sup>y</sup> Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27<sup>b</sup> And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

23<sup>c</sup> And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

29<sup>d</sup> For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

30<sup>e</sup> Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31<sup>f</sup> What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32<sup>g</sup> He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33<sup>h</sup> Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.

34<sup>i</sup> Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35<sup>k</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36<sup>l</sup> As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37<sup>m</sup> Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us.

38<sup>n</sup> For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

C H A P. IX.

1 Paul is sorry for the Jews. 7 All the seed of Abraham were not the children of the promise. 18 God hath mercy upon whom he will. 21 The potter may do with the clay what he lists. 25 The calling of the Gentiles, and rejecting of the Jews were foretold. 32 The cause why so few Jews embraced the righteousness of faith.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2<sup>b</sup> That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3<sup>c</sup> For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4<sup>d</sup> Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;

5<sup>e</sup> Whose are the fathers, and of whom, as concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6<sup>f</sup> Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel which are of Israel:

7<sup>g</sup> Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8<sup>h</sup> That is, they which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9<sup>i</sup> For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10<sup>k</sup> And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;

11<sup>l</sup> (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God, according to election, might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)

12<sup>m</sup> It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger:

13<sup>n</sup> As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14<sup>o</sup> What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15<sup>p</sup> For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17<sup>q</sup> For the Scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19<sup>r</sup> Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?

20<sup>s</sup> Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21<sup>t</sup> Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22<sup>u</sup> What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction;

23<sup>v</sup> And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,

24<sup>w</sup> Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25<sup>x</sup> As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26<sup>y</sup> And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my

6 <sup>f</sup> But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

g Deut. 30,

9 <sup>h</sup> That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

11 <sup>i</sup> For the Scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 <sup>k</sup> For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 <sup>l</sup> For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 <sup>m</sup> How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 <sup>n</sup> And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 <sup>o</sup> But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 <sup>p</sup> But I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 <sup>q</sup> But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 <sup>r</sup> But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 <sup>s</sup> But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

C H A P. XI.

1 God hath not cast off all Israel. 7 Some were elected, though the rest were hardened. 16 There is hope of their conversion. 18 The Gentiles may not insult upon them: 26 for there is a promise of their salvation. 33 God's judgments are unsearchable.

ISAY then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 <sup>t</sup> God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 <sup>u</sup> Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 <sup>v</sup> But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 <sup>w</sup> Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 <sup>x</sup> And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then it is no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 <sup>y</sup> What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded.

8 <sup>z</sup> (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear) unto this day.

9 <sup>1</sup> And David saith, Let their table be made a snare and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompence unto them :

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 <sup>k</sup> I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fulness?

13 <sup>l</sup> For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office;

14 <sup>m</sup> If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 <sup>n</sup> For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 <sup>o</sup> For if the first-fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 <sup>p</sup> And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive-tree, wert grafted in amongst them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive-tree;

18 <sup>q</sup> Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 <sup>r</sup> Well; because of unbelief they were broken off; and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 <sup>s</sup> Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but towards thee, goodness; if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 <sup>t</sup> And they also, if they hide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 <sup>u</sup> For if thou wert cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree; how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree?

25 <sup>v</sup> For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 <sup>w</sup> And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

27 <sup>x</sup> For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 <sup>y</sup> As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved of the fathers' sakes.

29 <sup>b</sup> For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

30 <sup>c</sup> For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief;

31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 <sup>d</sup> For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 <sup>e</sup> O the depth of the riches, both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34 <sup>f</sup> For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 <sup>g</sup> Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 <sup>h</sup> For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

C H A P. XII.

1 God's mercies must move us to please God. 3 No man must think too well of himself, 6 but attend every one on that calling, wherein he is placed.

9 Love and many other duties are required of us. 19 Revenge is specially forbidden.

<sup>a</sup> BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 <sup>b</sup> And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, that acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 <sup>c</sup> For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

4 <sup>d</sup> For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office;

5 <sup>e</sup> So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 <sup>f</sup> Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophecy according to the proportion of faith;

7 <sup>g</sup> Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 <sup>h</sup> Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 <sup>i</sup> Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 <sup>k</sup> Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

11 <sup>l</sup> Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 <sup>m</sup> Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

13 <sup>a</sup> Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

14 <sup>a</sup> Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 <sup>a</sup> Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 <sup>a</sup> Be of the same mind one towards another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 <sup>a</sup> Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 <sup>a</sup> If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 <sup>a</sup> Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves; but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 <sup>a</sup> Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 <sup>a</sup> Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Subjection, and many other duties we owe to the magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 Gluttony, and drunkenness, and the works of darkness, are out of season in the time of the gospel.

LET every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

2 <sup>b</sup> Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 <sup>c</sup> For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 <sup>d</sup> For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 <sup>e</sup> Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause pay you tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 <sup>f</sup> Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 <sup>g</sup> Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 <sup>h</sup> For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 <sup>i</sup> Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 <sup>j</sup> And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 <sup>k</sup> The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 <sup>l</sup> Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 <sup>m</sup> But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

C H A P. XIV.

3 Men may not condemn nor condemn one the other for things indifferent; 13 but take heed that they give no offence in them: 15 For that the apostle proveth unlawful by many reasons.

HIM that is weak in the faith receive you, but not to doubtful disputations.

2 <sup>b</sup> For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 <sup>c</sup> Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 <sup>d</sup> Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 <sup>e</sup> One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 <sup>f</sup> He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord; for he giveth God thanks: and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not; and giveth God thanks.

7 <sup>g</sup> For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 <sup>h</sup> For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 <sup>i</sup> But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11 <sup>j</sup> For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 <sup>k</sup> So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 <sup>l</sup> Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 <sup>m</sup> I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 ° But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 ° Let not then your good be evil spoken of.

17 ° For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ, is acceptable to God and approved of men.

19 ° Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

20 ° For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 ° It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 ° Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 ° And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

C H A P. XV.

1 The strong must bear with the weak. 2 We may not please ourselves, 3 for Christ did not so: 7 but receive one the other, as Christ did us all, 8 both Jews, 9 and Gentiles. 15 Paul excuseth his writing, 28 and promiseth to see them, 30 and requesteth their prayers.

WE then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 ° Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

3 ° For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 ° For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.

5 ° Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one towards another, according to Christ Jesus;

6 ° That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 ° Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

8 ° Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers;

9 ° And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 ° And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 ° And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 ° And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 ° Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 ° And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 ° Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 ° That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.

18 ° For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, 19 ° Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 ° Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 ° But, as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 ° For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 ° But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 ° But now I go unto Jerusalem, to minister unto the saints.

26 ° For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 ° It hath pleased them, verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 ° When, therefore, I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 ° And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 ° Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 ° That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judea; and that my service which

3 Paul willeth the brethren to greet many: 17 and adviseth them to take heed of those which cause dissension and offences: 21 and after sundry salutations endeth with praise and thanks to God.

I COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea :

2 <sup>a</sup> That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you : for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 <sup>b</sup> Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my helpers in Christ Jesus :

4 <sup>c</sup> Who have for my life laid down their own necks : unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 <sup>d</sup> Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epenetus, who is the first-fruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary ; who bestowed much labour on us.

7 <sup>e</sup> Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles ; who also were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ ; and Stachys my beloved.

10 <sup>f</sup> Salute Apelles, approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus's household.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 <sup>g</sup> Salute Rufus, chosen in the Lord ; and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 <sup>h</sup> Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

17 <sup>i</sup> Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned ; and avoid them.

18 <sup>k</sup> For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly ; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 <sup>l</sup> For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf : but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.

20 <sup>m</sup> And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21 <sup>n</sup> Timotheus my work-fellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you.

22 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 <sup>o</sup> Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

24 <sup>p</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 <sup>q</sup> Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, (according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began,

26 <sup>r</sup> But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith ;)

27 <sup>s</sup> To God only wise, be glory, through Jesus Christ, for ever. Amen.

The First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the CORINTHIANS.

C H A P. I.

1 After his salvation and thanksgiving, 10 he exhorteth them to unity, 12 and reproveth their dissensions. 18 God destroyeth the wisdom of the wise 21 by the foolishness of preaching ; and 26 calleth not the wise, mighty, and noble, but 27, 28 the foolish, weak, and men of no account.

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

2 <sup>a</sup> Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours :

3 <sup>b</sup> Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 <sup>c</sup> I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ ;

5 <sup>d</sup> That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge ;

6 <sup>e</sup> Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you :

7 <sup>f</sup> So that ye come behind in no gift : waiting for the <sup>g</sup> coming of our Lord Jesus Christ :

† S

8 Who

Amo
DOMINI
59.
8<sup>b</sup> Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9<sup>i</sup> God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10<sup>7</sup> Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11<sup>1</sup> For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12<sup>m</sup> Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

13<sup>a</sup> Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14<sup>o</sup> I thank God that I baptized none of you but Crispus and Gaius;

15 lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16<sup>p</sup> And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17<sup>p</sup> For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18<sup>r</sup> For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

19<sup>s</sup> For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20<sup>t</sup> Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21<sup>u</sup> For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22<sup>v</sup> For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23<sup>w</sup> But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

24<sup>x</sup> But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26<sup>y</sup> For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27<sup>z</sup> But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world, to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to confound the things which are mighty;

28<sup>a</sup> And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are;

29<sup>b</sup> That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30<sup>c</sup> But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31<sup>d</sup> That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul declareth that his preaching, though it bring not excellency of speech, or of 4 human wisdom; yet consisteth in the 4, 5 power of God; and so far excelleth 6 the wisdom of this world, and 9 human sense, as that 14 the natural man cannot understand it.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God:

2<sup>b</sup> For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3<sup>c</sup> And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4<sup>d</sup> And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5<sup>e</sup> That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6<sup>f</sup> Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect; yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world that come to nought:

7<sup>g</sup> But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8<sup>h</sup> Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory.

9<sup>i</sup> But, as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10<sup>k</sup> But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11<sup>l</sup> For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12<sup>m</sup> Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13<sup>n</sup> Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14<sup>o</sup> But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15<sup>p</sup> But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16<sup>q</sup> For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

C H A P. III.

2 Milk is fit for children. 3 Strife and division are arguments of a fleshly mind. 7 He that planteth and he that watereth, is nothing. 9 The ministers are God's fellow-workmen. 11 Christ the only foundation. 16 Men the temples of God, 17 which must be kept holy. 19 The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you, as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 <sup>b</sup> I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 <sup>c</sup> For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

4 <sup>a</sup> For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 <sup>e</sup> Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 <sup>f</sup> I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

7 <sup>g</sup> So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 <sup>h</sup> Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 <sup>i</sup> For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

10 <sup>k</sup> According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 <sup>l</sup> For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 <sup>m</sup> Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 <sup>n</sup> Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work, of what sort it is.

14 <sup>o</sup> If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 <sup>p</sup> If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 <sup>q</sup> Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 <sup>r</sup> Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 <sup>s</sup> For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 <sup>t</sup> And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 <sup>u</sup> Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours;

22 <sup>v</sup> Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23 <sup>w</sup> And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

C H A P. IV.

1 In what account the ministers ought to be had. 7 We have nothing which we have not received. 9 The apostles, spectacles to the world, angels, and men; 13 the filth and off-scouring of the world; 15 yet our fathers in Christ, 16 whom we ought to follow.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 <sup>b</sup> Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 <sup>c</sup> But ye me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment; yea, I judge not mine own self:

4 <sup>d</sup> For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 <sup>e</sup> Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 <sup>f</sup> And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 <sup>g</sup> For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? Now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 <sup>h</sup> Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign; that we also might reign with you.

9 <sup>i</sup> For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 <sup>k</sup> We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 <sup>l</sup> Even unto this present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place;

12 <sup>m</sup> And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it;

13 <sup>n</sup> Being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the earth, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

14 <sup>o</sup> I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 <sup>p</sup> For though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers; for, in Christ Jesus, I have begotten you through the gospel.

C H A P. V.

1 <sup>a</sup> The incestuous person is cause rather of shame unto them, than of rejoicing. 7 The old leaven is to be purged out. 10 Heinous offenders are to be shunned and avoided.<sup>a</sup> It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.2 <sup>b</sup> And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.3 <sup>c</sup> For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed;4 <sup>d</sup> In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,5 <sup>e</sup> To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.6 <sup>f</sup> Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?7 <sup>g</sup> Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:8 <sup>h</sup> Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.9 <sup>i</sup> I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators:10 <sup>k</sup> Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.11 <sup>l</sup> But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no one is to eat.12 <sup>m</sup> For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?13 <sup>n</sup> But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

C H A P. VI.

1 <sup>a</sup> The Corinthians must not vex their brethren, in going to law with them: especially under infidels. 9 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 15 Our bodies are the members of Christ, 19 and temples of the Holy Ghost: 16, 17 They must not therefore be defiled.<sup>a</sup> DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?2 <sup>a</sup> Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?3 <sup>b</sup> Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 <sup>c</sup> But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, you do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 <sup>d</sup> Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 <sup>e</sup> And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God:12 <sup>f</sup> ¶ All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.13 <sup>g</sup> Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.14 <sup>h</sup> And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.15 <sup>i</sup> Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.16 <sup>k</sup> What! know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.17 <sup>l</sup> But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.18 <sup>m</sup> Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committethAnno mitteth fornication sinneth against his own body.

19 <sup>a</sup> What! know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

20 <sup>o</sup> For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

C H A P. VII.

2 He treateth of marriage, 4 shewing it to be a remedy against fornication; 10 and that the bond thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved. 18, 20 Every man must be content with his vocation. 25 Virginity wherefore to be embraced. 35 And for what respects we may either marry, or abstain from marrying.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 <sup>b</sup> Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 <sup>c</sup> The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 <sup>d</sup> Defraud you not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 <sup>e</sup> But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

7 <sup>f</sup> For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 <sup>g</sup> But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 <sup>h</sup> And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 <sup>i</sup> And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 <sup>k</sup> But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.

16 <sup>l</sup> For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.

18 <sup>m</sup> Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 <sup>n</sup> Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 <sup>o</sup> Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 <sup>p</sup> Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 <sup>q</sup> For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.

23 <sup>r</sup> Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 <sup>t</sup> Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord, yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 <sup>u</sup> I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress; I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 <sup>v</sup> But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 <sup>w</sup> But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 <sup>x</sup> And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 <sup>y</sup> But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 <sup>z</sup> There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 <sup>a</sup> And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

¶ NOW as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 ° And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 ° But if any man love God, the same is known of him. 4 ° As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 ° For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many and lords many,)

6 ° But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 ° Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some, with conscience of the idol unto this hour, eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 ° But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 ° But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumbling-block to them that are weak.

10 ° For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 ° And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 ° But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 ° Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

C H A P. IX.

1 He sheweth his liberty, 7 and that the minister ought to live by the gospel; 15 yet that himself hath of his own accord abstained, 18 to be either chargeable unto them, 22 or offensive unto any in matters indifferent. 24 Our life is like unto a race.

¶ AM I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not you my work in the Lord?

2 ° If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this;

4 ° Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 ° Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 ° Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

7 ° Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 ° For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 ° Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 ° If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 ° If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 ° Do ye not know, that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 ° Even so hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 ° But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 ° For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, wo is unto me if I preach not the gospel.

17 ° For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 ° What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge; that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 <sup>r</sup> For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 <sup>s</sup> And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 <sup>t</sup> To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 <sup>u</sup> To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 <sup>v</sup> Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

25 <sup>w</sup> And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

26 <sup>x</sup> I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 <sup>y</sup> But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection; lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.

C H A P. X.

1 <sup>z</sup> The sacraments of the Jews, 6 are types of ours, 7 and their punishments, 11 examples for us. 14 We must flee from idolatry. 21 We must not make the Lord's table the table of devils; 24 and in things indifferent we must have regard of our brethren.

<sup>a</sup> MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 <sup>b</sup> And did all eat the same spiritual meat;

4 <sup>c</sup> And did all drink the same spiritual drink; for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 <sup>d</sup> But with many of them God was not well pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 <sup>e</sup> Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 <sup>f</sup> Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 <sup>g</sup> Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day, three and twenty thousand.

9 <sup>h</sup> Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 <sup>i</sup> Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 <sup>k</sup> Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 <sup>l</sup> Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 <sup>m</sup> There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that you are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 <sup>n</sup> Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 <sup>o</sup> I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 <sup>p</sup> The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? the bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 <sup>q</sup> For we, being many, are one bread, and one body; for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 <sup>r</sup> Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 <sup>s</sup> What say I then? that the idol is any thing? or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 <sup>t</sup> But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 <sup>u</sup> Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 <sup>v</sup> Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

23 <sup>w</sup> All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 <sup>x</sup> Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 <sup>y</sup> Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 <sup>z</sup> For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 <sup>a</sup> If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 <sup>b</sup> But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols; eat not, for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake. The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

29 <sup>c</sup> Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the others: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 <sup>d</sup> For, if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of, for that for which I give thanks?

31 <sup>e</sup> Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 <sup>f</sup> Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

33 <sup>1</sup> Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAP. XI.

1 <sup>1</sup> He reproveth them, because in holy assemblies, 4 their men prayed with their heads covered, and 6 women with their heads uncovered: 17 and because generally their meetings were not for the better, but for the worse; as 21 namely, in profaning with their own feasts the Lord's supper. 23 Lastly, he calleth them to the first institution thereof.

BE ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 <sup>1</sup> Now I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 <sup>1</sup> But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.

4 <sup>1</sup> Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 <sup>1</sup> But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 <sup>1</sup> For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 <sup>1</sup> For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 <sup>1</sup> For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man;

9 Neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman for the man.

10 <sup>1</sup> For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head, because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 <sup>1</sup> For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

16 <sup>1</sup> But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 <sup>1</sup> Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that you come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 <sup>1</sup> For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 <sup>1</sup> For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 <sup>1</sup> For in eating, every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 <sup>1</sup> What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 <sup>1</sup> For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 <sup>1</sup> For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

27 <sup>1</sup> Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 <sup>1</sup> But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 <sup>1</sup> For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 <sup>1</sup> For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 <sup>1</sup> But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 <sup>1</sup> And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 <sup>1</sup> Spiritual gifts 4 are diverse, 7 yet all to profit withal; 8 and to that end are diversely bestowed:

12 that by the like proportion, as the members of a natural body tend all to the 16 mutual decency, 22 service and 26 succour of the same body; 27 so we should do one for another, to make up the mystical body of Christ.

NOW concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 <sup>1</sup> Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 <sup>1</sup> Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed; and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 <sup>1</sup> Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

• ch. 3, 5.

5 * And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 * And there are diversities of operations; but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

7 * But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 * For to one is given, by the Spirit, the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge, by the same Spirit;

9 * To another faith, by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing, by the same Spirit;

10 * To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 * But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 ¶ For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ.

13 * For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 * But now hath God set the members, every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay much more; those members of the body which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured; all the members rejoice with it.

27 * Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 ¶ And God hath set some in the church; first, apostles; secondarily, prophets; thirdly, teachers; after that, miracles; then gifts of healings, helps in governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 * But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

C H A P. XIII.

1 All gifts, 2, 3 how excellent soever, are nothing worth without charity. 4 The praises thereof, and 13 prelation before hope and faith.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 * And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 * And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 * Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 * Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 * Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 * Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 * Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part;

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 * For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

C H A P. XIV.

1 Prophecy is commended, 2, 3, 4 and preferred before speaking with tongues, 6 by a comparison drawn from musical instruments. 12 Both must be referred to edification, 22 as to their true and proper end. 26 The true use of each is taught, 29 and the abuse taxed. 34 Women are forbidden to speak in the church.

FOLLOW after charity, and desire spiritual gifts; but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue, speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise you, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them are without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian; and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth; but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned, say Amen at thy giving of thanks? seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest.

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than you all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children; but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not; but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into some place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What! came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

3 By Christ's resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection against all such as deny the resurrection of the body: 21 The fruit, 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the changing of them that shall be found alive at the last day.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also you have received, and wherein ye stand:

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order; Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's, at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him; it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? Let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool! that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, another of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, ritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 <sup>1</sup> The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 <sup>2</sup> As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 <sup>1</sup> And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 ¶ <sup>m</sup> Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 <sup>n</sup> Behold, I shew you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 <sup>o</sup> In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 <sup>p</sup> For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 <sup>q</sup> So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 <sup>r</sup> The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 <sup>s</sup> But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 <sup>t</sup> Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as you know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER XVI.

<sup>1</sup> He exhorteth them to relieve the want of the brethren at Jerusalem; 10 commendeth Timothy; 13 and after friendly admonitions, 16 shutteth up his epistle with divers salutations.

<sup>a</sup> NOW concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 <sup>b</sup> Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 <sup>c</sup> And when I come, whomsoever you shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 <sup>d</sup> Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 <sup>e</sup> And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 <sup>f</sup> For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 <sup>g</sup> But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 <sup>h</sup> For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 ¶ <sup>i</sup> Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 <sup>k</sup> Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 <sup>l</sup> As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 <sup>m</sup> Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 <sup>n</sup> Let all your things be done with charity.

15 ¶ <sup>o</sup> I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

16 <sup>p</sup> That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 <sup>q</sup> I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 <sup>r</sup> For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 <sup>s</sup> The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 <sup>t</sup> All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.

21 ¶ <sup>u</sup> The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be anathema maran-atha.

23 <sup>v</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

¶ The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi by Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

¶ The Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to the CORINTHIANS.

C H A P. I.

Anno
60.

3 The apostle encourageth them against troubles, by the comforts and deliverances which God had given him, as in all his afflictions, 8 so particularly in his late danger in Asia: 12 and calling both his own conscience and theirs to witness of his sincere manner of preaching the immutable truth of the gospel, 15 he excuseth his not coming to them, as proceeding not of lightness, but of his lenity towards them.

a Rom. 1. 1. PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ¶ Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 ¶ For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.

13 For we write none other things unto you than what you read or acknowledge; and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that you might have a second benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay.

18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 ¶ Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that, to spare you, I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

C H A P. II.

1 Having shewed the reason why he came not to them, 6 he requireth them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated person, 10 even as himself also, upon his true repentance, had forgiven him: 12 declaring withal why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, 14 and the happy success which God gave to his preaching in all places.

2 BUT I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

3 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

4 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

5 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that you should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

6 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

7 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.

7 <sup>f</sup> So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with over much sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that you would confirm your love towards him.

9 <sup>e</sup> For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 <sup>h</sup> To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;

11 <sup>i</sup> Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 <sup>k</sup> Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 <sup>l</sup> I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 <sup>m</sup> Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 <sup>n</sup> For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:

16 <sup>o</sup> To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?

17 <sup>p</sup> For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

C H A P. III.

1 <sup>q</sup> Lest their false teachers should charge him with vain-glory, he sheweth the faith and graces of the Corinthians to be sufficient commendation of his ministry. 6 Whereupon entering a comparison between the ministers of the law, and of the gospel, 12 he proveth that his ministry is so far the more excellent, as the gospel of life and liberty is more glorious than the law of condemnation.

<sup>r</sup> DO we begin again to commend ourselves? Or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 <sup>b</sup> Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 <sup>c</sup> Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God: not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 <sup>d</sup> And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 <sup>e</sup> Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing, as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;

6 <sup>f</sup> Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

7 <sup>g</sup> But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away;

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious?

9 <sup>h</sup> For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:

13 <sup>k</sup> And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

14 <sup>l</sup> But their minds were blinded; for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament: which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 <sup>m</sup> Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 <sup>n</sup> Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 <sup>o</sup> But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

C H A P. IV.

1 He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the gospel; 7 and how the troubles and persecutions which he daily endured for the same did redound to the praise of God's power, 12 to the benefit of the church, 16 and to the apostle's own eternal glory.

<sup>r</sup> THEREFORE, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 <sup>b</sup> But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 <sup>c</sup> But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 <sup>d</sup> In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 <sup>e</sup> For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 <sup>f</sup> For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 ¶ But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 <sup>b</sup> We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 <sup>c</sup> Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 <sup>d</sup> Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 <sup>e</sup> For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 <sup>f</sup> So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 <sup>g</sup> We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 <sup>h</sup> Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 <sup>i</sup> For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might, through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 <sup>j</sup> For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 <sup>k</sup> For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 <sup>l</sup> While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

C H A P. V.

1. That in his assured hope of immortal glory, 9 and in expectance of it, and of the general judgment, he laboureth to keep a good conscience; 12 not that he may herein boast of himself, 14 but as one that having received life from Christ, endeavoureth to live as a new creature to Christ only, 18 and by his ministry of reconciliation, to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

FOR we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 <sup>b</sup> For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 <sup>c</sup> If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 <sup>d</sup> For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 <sup>e</sup> Now he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 <sup>f</sup> Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord;

7 <sup>g</sup> (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 <sup>h</sup> We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 ¶ Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 <sup>a</sup> For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 <sup>b</sup> Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 <sup>c</sup> For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that you may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 <sup>d</sup> For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 <sup>e</sup> And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 <sup>f</sup> Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 <sup>g</sup> Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 <sup>h</sup> And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 <sup>i</sup> To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 <sup>j</sup> Now then we are ambassadors for Christ; as though God did beseech you by us, we pray you in Christ's stead, Be ye reconciled to God.

21 <sup>k</sup> For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

C H A P. VI.

1 That he hath approved himself a faithful minister of Christ, both by his exhortations, 3 and by integrity of life, 4 and by patient enduring all kinds of affliction and disgraces for the gospel. 10 Of which he speaketh the more boldly among them, because his heart is open to them, 13 and he expecteth the like affliction from them again: 14 exhorting to flee the society and pollution of idolaters, as being themselves temples of the living God.

WE then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 <sup>b</sup> (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 <sup>c</sup> Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 <sup>d</sup> But in all things approving ourselves, as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 <sup>e</sup> In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 <sup>f</sup> By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 <sup>g</sup> By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 <sup>h</sup> By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 <sup>i</sup> As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

10 <sup>k</sup> As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 <sup>l</sup> ¶ O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 <sup>m</sup> Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 <sup>n</sup> Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 <sup>o</sup> Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 <sup>p</sup> And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 <sup>q</sup> And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 <sup>r</sup> Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, 18 <sup>s</sup> And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

1 <sup>t</sup> He proceedeth in exhorting them to purity of life, 2 and to bear him like affection as he doth to them.

3 <sup>u</sup> Whereof, lest they might seem to doubt, he declareth what comfort he took in his afflictions, by the report which Titus gave of their godly sorrow which his former epistle had wrought in them, 13 and of their loving-kindness and obedience towards Titus, answerable to his former boastings of them.

<sup>v</sup> HAVING therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 <sup>w</sup> Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 <sup>x</sup> I speak not this to condemn you; for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 <sup>y</sup> Great is my boldness of speech towards you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 <sup>z</sup> For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 <sup>aa</sup> Nevertheless God that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 <sup>ab</sup> For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 <sup>ac</sup> Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance, for ye were made sorry, after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 <sup>ad</sup> For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 <sup>ae</sup> For behold this self-same thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 <sup>af</sup> Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 <sup>ag</sup> For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 <sup>ah</sup> And his inward affection is more abundant towards you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.

16 <sup>ai</sup> I rejoice, therefore, that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 <sup>aj</sup> He stirreth them up to a liberal contribution for the poor saints at Jerusalem, by the example of the Macedonians, 7 by commendation of their former forwardness, 9 by the example of Christ, 14 and by the spiritual profit that shall redound to themselves thereby: 16 commending to them the integrity and willingness of Titus, and those other brethren, who upon his request, exhortation, and commendation, were purposely come to them for this business.

<sup>ak</sup> MOREOVER, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 <sup>b</sup> How that, in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power (I hear record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves;

4 <sup>c</sup> Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 <sup>d</sup> Inasmuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 <sup>e</sup> Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 <sup>f</sup> I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 <sup>g</sup> For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 <sup>h</sup> And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

12 <sup>i</sup> For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 <sup>k</sup> For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality:

15 <sup>l</sup> As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over: and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 ¶ But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 <sup>m</sup> For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 <sup>n</sup> And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 <sup>o</sup> Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 <sup>p</sup> Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 <sup>q</sup> Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brethren be inquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 <sup>r</sup> Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

C H A P. IX.

1 He yieldeth the reason why, though he knew their forwardness, yet he sent Titus and his brethren beforehand: 6 And he proceedeth in stirring them up to a bountiful alms, as being but a kind of sowing of seed, 10 which shall return a great increase to them, 12 and occasion a great sacrifice of thanksgivings unto God.

<sup>a</sup> FOR as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 <sup>b</sup> For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 <sup>c</sup> Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 <sup>d</sup> Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 <sup>e</sup> Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your † bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not of covetousness.

6 <sup>f</sup> But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap bountifully.

7 <sup>g</sup> Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 <sup>h</sup> And God is able to make all grace abound towards you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 <sup>i</sup> (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 <sup>k</sup> Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

11 <sup>l</sup> Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 <sup>m</sup> For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 <sup>n</sup> Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men;

14 ° And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

CHAP. X.

1 Against the false apostles, who disgraced the weakness of his person and bodily presence, he setteth out the spiritual might and authority with which he is armed against all adversary powers, 7 assuring them that at his coming he will be found as mighty in word, as he is now in writing being absent: 12 and withal taxing them for reaching out themselves beyond their compass, and vaunting themselves in other men's labours.

NOW I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold towards you:

2 ° But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, where-with I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 ° For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 ° (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds:)

5 ° Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 ° And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 ° Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

8 ° For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 ° That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 ° For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 ° Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also indeed when we are present.

12 ° For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 ° But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 ° For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 ° Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

17 ° But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 ° For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAP. XI.

1 Out of his jealousy over the Corinthians, who seemed to make more account of the false apostles than of him, he entereth into a forced commendation of himself, 5 of his equality with the chief apostles, 7 of his preaching the gospel to them freely, and without any their charge: 13 shewing that he was not inferior to those deceitful workers in any legal prerogative; 23 and in the service of Christ, and in all kind of sufferings for his ministry, far superior.

WOULD to God you could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.

2 ° For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 ° But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 ° For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 ° For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 ° But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 ° Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 ° I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so will I keep myself.

10 ° As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 ° Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 <sup>1</sup> But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 <sup>m</sup> For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 <sup>n</sup> Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

16 <sup>o</sup> I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 <sup>p</sup> That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 <sup>q</sup> Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 <sup>r</sup> For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 <sup>s</sup> For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 <sup>t</sup> I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 <sup>u</sup> Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 <sup>v</sup> Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 <sup>w</sup> Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.

25 <sup>x</sup> Thrice I was beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep.

26 <sup>y</sup> In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 <sup>z</sup> In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 <sup>a</sup> Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

29 <sup>b</sup> Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 <sup>c</sup> If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 <sup>d</sup> The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 <sup>e</sup> In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

C H A P. XII.

1 For commending of his apostleship, though he might glory of his wonderful revelations, 9 yet he rather chooseth to glory of his infirmities, 11 blaming them for forcing him to this vain boasting. 14 He promiseth to come to them again; but yet altogether in the affection of a father, 20 although he feareth he shall to his grief find many offenders, and public disorders there.

1 <sup>a</sup> It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 <sup>b</sup> I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 <sup>c</sup> Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 <sup>d</sup> For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 <sup>e</sup> And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan, to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 <sup>f</sup> For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 <sup>g</sup> And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 <sup>h</sup> Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 <sup>i</sup> I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 <sup>j</sup> Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 <sup>k</sup> For what is it wherein you were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 <sup>l</sup> Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 <sup>m</sup> And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

1 He threateneth severity, and the power of his apostleship against obstinate sinners: 5 and advising them to a trial of their faith, 7 and to reformation of their sins before his coming, 11 he concludeth his epistle with a general exhortation and a prayer.

THIS is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 ° I told you before, and foretel you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

3 ° Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 ° For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 ° Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 ° Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 ° For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 ° For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.

10 ° Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 ¶ Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 ° Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to the GALATIANS.

C H A P. I.

6 He wondereth that they have so soon left him and the gospel; 8 and accurseth those that preach any other gospel than he did. 11 He learned the gospel not of men but of God: 13 and sheweth what he was before his calling, 17 and what he did presently after it.

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia:

3 ° Grace be to you, and peace, from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ° Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 ¶ I marvel that you are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

7 ° Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 ° But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 ° As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 ° For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 ¶ But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 ° For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 <sup>1</sup> For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it;

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 <sup>2</sup> But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, 16 <sup>3</sup> To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood.

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 <sup>4</sup> Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 <sup>5</sup> But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

20 <sup>6</sup> Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 <sup>7</sup> Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea which were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

C H A P. II.

1 He sheweth when he went up again to Jerusalem, and for what purpose; 3 and that Titus was not circumcised: 11 and that he resisted Peter, and told him the reason, 14 why he and others, being Jews, do believe in Christ to be justified by faith, and not by works: 20 and that they live not in sin, who are so justified.

THEN, || fourteen years after, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 <sup>1</sup> And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles; but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 <sup>2</sup> But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 <sup>3</sup> And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

5 <sup>4</sup> To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 <sup>5</sup> But of those who † seemed to be somewhat, whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person: for they who seemed to be somewhat, in conference added nothing to me;

7 <sup>6</sup> But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 <sup>7</sup> (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me towards the Gentiles;)

9 <sup>8</sup> And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.

11 <sup>9</sup> But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 <sup>10</sup> For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 <sup>11</sup> But when I saw that they || walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 <sup>12</sup> We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16 <sup>13</sup> Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 <sup>14</sup> But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I † destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 <sup>15</sup> For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 <sup>16</sup> I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 <sup>17</sup> I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

C H A P. III.

1 He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and hang upon the law. 6 They that believe are justified, 9 and blessed with Abraham. 10 And this he sheweth by many reasons.

O FOOLISH Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2<sup>b</sup> This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3<sup>c</sup> Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4<sup>d</sup> Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5<sup>e</sup> He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6<sup>f</sup> Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7<sup>g</sup> Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8<sup>h</sup> And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10<sup>i</sup> For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11<sup>k</sup> But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

12<sup>l</sup> And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13<sup>m</sup> Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14<sup>n</sup> That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15<sup>o</sup> Brethren, I speak after the manner of men, Though it be but a man's covenant; yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16<sup>p</sup> Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17<sup>q</sup> And this I say, That the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18<sup>r</sup> For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19<sup>s</sup> Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22<sup>t</sup> But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24<sup>u</sup> Wherefore the law was our school-master to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a school-master.

26<sup>v</sup> For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27<sup>w</sup> For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

28<sup>x</sup> There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29<sup>y</sup> And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

CH A P. IV.

1 We were under the law till Christ came, as the heir is under his guardian till he be of age. 5 But Christ freed us from the law: 7 therefore we are servants no longer to it. 14 He remembereth their good will to him, and his to them; 22 and sheweth that we are the sons of Abraham by the free woman.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors, until the time appointed of the father.

3<sup>b</sup> Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

4<sup>c</sup> But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

5<sup>d</sup> To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6<sup>e</sup> And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7<sup>f</sup> Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8<sup>g</sup> Howbeit, then when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9<sup>h</sup> But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10<sup>i</sup> Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11<sup>k</sup> I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12<sup>l</sup> Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13<sup>m</sup> Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first:

14<sup>n</sup> And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected: but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 Where is then the blessedness you spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 ° Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 ° They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that you might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected *al-*ways in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 ° My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 ° For it is written, That Abraham had two sons; the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free woman.

23 ° But he who was of the bond-woman was born after the flesh; but he of the free woman was by promise.

24 ° Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 ° But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 ° For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not; for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 ° Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 ° But as then he that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 ° Nevertheless what saith the Scripture? Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free woman.

31 ° So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free.

C H A P. V.

1 He moveth them to stand in their liberty 3 and not to observe circumcision; 13 but rather love, which is the sum of the law: 19 He reckoneth up the works of the flesh, 22 and the fruits of the Spirit; 25 and exhorteth to walk in the Spirit.

° STAND therefore in the liberty where-with Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 ° Behold, I Paul say unto you, That if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 ° For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 ° Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law: ye are fallen from grace.

5 ° For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 ° For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

7 ° Ye did run well; who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth?

8 ° This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 ° A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 ° I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 ° And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.

12 ° I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

13 ° For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 ° For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 ° But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed ye be not consumed one of another.

16 ° This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh.

17 ° For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 ° But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 ° Now the works of the flesh are manifest; which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 ° Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revelings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 ° But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 ° Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 ° And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 ° If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 ° Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

C H A P. VI.

1 He moveth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath slipped, 2 and to bear one another's burdens, 6 to be liberal to their teachers, 9 and not weary of well doing: 12 He sheweth what they intend that preach circumcision: 14 He glorieth in nothing, save in the cross of Christ.

BRETHREN, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

2 <sup>b</sup> Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

3 <sup>c</sup> For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 <sup>d</sup> But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another:

5 <sup>e</sup> For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 <sup>f</sup> Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 <sup>g</sup> Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 <sup>h</sup> For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 <sup>i</sup> And let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 <sup>k</sup> As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 <sup>l</sup> Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 <sup>m</sup> As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised, only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 <sup>n</sup> For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 <sup>o</sup> But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 <sup>p</sup> For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 <sup>q</sup> And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 <sup>r</sup> From henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 <sup>s</sup> Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to the EPHESIANS.

CH A P. I.

1 After the salutations, 3 and thanksgiving for the Ephesians, 4 he treateth of our election, 6 and adoption by grace, 11 which is the true and proper fountain of man's salvation: 13 And because the height of this mystery cannot easily be attained unto, 16 he prayeth that they may come 18 to the full knowledge, and 20 possession thereof in Christ.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 <sup>b</sup> Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 <sup>c</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:

4 <sup>d</sup> According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before him in love:

5 <sup>e</sup> Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 <sup>f</sup> To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved:

7 <sup>g</sup> In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;

8 <sup>h</sup> Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 <sup>i</sup> Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he had purposed in himself:

10 <sup>k</sup> That in the dispensation of the fulness of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth: even in him,

11 <sup>l</sup> In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will;

12 <sup>m</sup> That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

13 <sup>n</sup> In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also, after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 <sup>o</sup> Which is the earnest of our inheritance, until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 <sup>p</sup> Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 <sup>q</sup> That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

18 <sup>r</sup> The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 <sup>a</sup> And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,
20 <sup>a</sup> Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,
21 <sup>a</sup> Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come;
22 <sup>a</sup> And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,
23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

1 <sup>a</sup> By comparing what we were by 3 nature, with what we are 5 by grace, 10 he declareth, that we are made for good works; and 13 being brought near by Christ, should not live as 11 Gentiles, and 12 foreigners in time past, but as 19 citizens with the saints, and the family of God.

AND you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 <sup>b</sup> Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:

3 <sup>c</sup> Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 <sup>d</sup> But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 <sup>e</sup> Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

6 <sup>f</sup> And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus;

7 <sup>g</sup> That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindness towards us through Christ Jesus.

8 <sup>h</sup> For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God:

9 <sup>i</sup> Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 <sup>k</sup> For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 <sup>l</sup> Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 <sup>m</sup> That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

13 <sup>n</sup> But now, in Christ Jesus, ye who sometimes were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 <sup>o</sup> For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 <sup>p</sup> Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;

16 <sup>q</sup> And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby;

17 <sup>r</sup> And came and preached peace to you which were afar off and to them that were nigh.

18 <sup>s</sup> For through him we both have an access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 <sup>t</sup> Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

20 <sup>u</sup> And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone;

21 <sup>v</sup> In whom all the building, fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 <sup>w</sup> In whom you also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

5 The hidden mystery, 6 that the Gentiles should be saved, 3 was made known to Paul by revelation: 8 and to him was that grace given, that 9 he should preach it. 13 He desireth them not to faint for his tribulation, 14 and prayeth 19 that they may perceive the great love of Christ towards them.

FOR this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 <sup>b</sup> (If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given one to you-ward:

3 <sup>c</sup> How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; as I wrote afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ;

5 <sup>d</sup> Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 <sup>e</sup> That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel;

7 <sup>f</sup> Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

8 <sup>g</sup> Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 <sup>h</sup> And to make all men see, what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 <sup>i</sup> To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known, by the church, the manifold wisdom of God,

11 <sup>k</sup> According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 <sup>l</sup> In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 ° Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 ° Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 ° That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

17 ° That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 ° May be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 ° And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

20 ° Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think; according to the power that worketh in us,

21 ° Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAP. IV.

1 He exhorteth to unity; 7 and declareth that God therefore giveth divers 11 gifts unto men, that his church might be 13 edified, and 16 grown up in Christ. 18 He calleth them from the impurity of the Gentiles, 24 to put on the new man, 25 to cast off lying, and 29 corrupt communication.

1 THEREFORE, the prisoner of the Lord,) I beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 ° With all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 ° Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 ° There is one body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 ° One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 ° One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 ° But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 ° Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 ° (Now, that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth ?

10 ° He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

11 ° And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

12 ° For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

13 ° Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 ° That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 ° But, speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 ° From whom the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 ° This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 ° Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart;

19 ° Who being past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 ° If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 ° That ye put off, concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 ° And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

25 ° Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 ° Be ye angry and sin not; let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 ° Neither give place to the devil.

28 ° Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

29 ° Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 ° And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 ° Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil-speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

32 ° And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

2 After general exhortations to love, 3 to flee fornication, 4 and all uncleanness. 7 not to converse with the wicked, 15 to walk warily, and to be 18 filled with the Spirit, 22 he descendeth to the particular duties, how wives ought to obey their husbands, 25 and husbands ought to love their wives, 32 even as Christ doth his church.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient; but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them:

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light;

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of the body.

24 Therefore, as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word:

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

C H A P. VI.

1 The duty of children towards their parents, 5 of servants towards their masters. 10 Our life is a warfare, 12 not only against flesh and blood, but also spiritual enemies. 13 The complete armour of a christian, 18 and how it ought to be used. 21 Tychicus is commended.

CHILDREN, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise,)

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters, according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men;

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt

¶ The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

3 He testifieth his thankfulness to God, and his love towards them, for the fruits of their faith, and fellowship in his sufferings, 9 daily praying to him for their increase in grace: 12 He sheweth what good the faith of Christ had received by his troubles at Rome, 21 and how ready he is to glorify Christ, either by his life or death: 27 exhorting them to unity, 28 and to fortitude in persecution.

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons;

2 <sup>b</sup> Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 <sup>c</sup> I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 (Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,)

5 <sup>d</sup> For your fellowship in the gospel, from the first day until now;

6 <sup>e</sup> Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 <sup>f</sup> Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 <sup>g</sup> For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 <sup>h</sup> And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;

10 <sup>i</sup> That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 <sup>k</sup> Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 <sup>l</sup> So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;

14 <sup>m</sup> And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 <sup>n</sup> Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds;

17 <sup>o</sup> But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 <sup>p</sup> For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 <sup>q</sup> According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also, Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 <sup>r</sup> ¶ For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 <sup>s</sup> But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 <sup>t</sup> For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 <sup>u</sup> And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 <sup>v</sup> That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.

27 <sup>w</sup> Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ; that, whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with with one mind, striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 <sup>a</sup> And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 <sup>a</sup> For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 <sup>b</sup> Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

C H A P. II.

1 He exhorteth them to unity, and to all humbleness of mind, by the example of Christ's humility and exaltation: 12 to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation, that they be as lights to the wicked world, 16 and comforts to him their apostle, who is now ready to be offered up to God. 19 He hopeth to send Timothy to them, whom he greatly commendeth, 25 as Epaphroditus also, whom he presently sendeth to them.

<sup>a</sup> IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 <sup>b</sup> Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 <sup>c</sup> Let nothing be done through strife or vain glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 <sup>d</sup> Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 <sup>e</sup> Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 <sup>f</sup> Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God;

7 <sup>g</sup> But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

8 <sup>h</sup> And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 <sup>i</sup> Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name;

10 <sup>k</sup> That † at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 <sup>l</sup> And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 <sup>m</sup> Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling:

13 <sup>n</sup> For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 <sup>o</sup> Do all things without murmurings and disputings;

15 <sup>p</sup> That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

16 <sup>q</sup> Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 <sup>r</sup> Yea, and if I be † offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 <sup>s</sup> For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 <sup>t</sup> But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 <sup>u</sup> For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 <sup>v</sup> For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 <sup>w</sup> But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 <sup>x</sup> But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 <sup>y</sup> Yet supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 <sup>z</sup> Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:

30 <sup>a</sup> Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

C H A P. III.

1 He warneth them to leave off the false teachers of the circumcision, 4 shewing that himself hath greater cause than they to trust in the righteousness of the law: 7 which notwithstanding he counteth as dung and loss, to gain Christ and his righteousness, 12 therein acknowledging his own imperfection. 15 He exhorteth them to be thus minded, 17 and to imitate him, 18 and to decline the ways of carnal Christians.

<sup>a</sup> FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 <sup>b</sup> Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

3 <sup>c</sup> For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh:

4 <sup>d</sup> Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 <sup>f</sup> But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 <sup>g</sup> Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 <sup>h</sup> And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 <sup>i</sup> That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 <sup>k</sup> If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 <sup>l</sup> Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, 14 <sup>m</sup> I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 <sup>n</sup> Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 <sup>o</sup> Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 <sup>p</sup> Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as ye have us for an ensample.

18 <sup>q</sup> (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 <sup>r</sup> Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 <sup>s</sup> For our conversation is in heaven: from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ;

21 <sup>t</sup> Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

C H A P. IV.

1 From particular admonitions 4 he proceedeth to general exhortations, 10 shewing how he rejoiced at their liberality towards him lying in prison, not so much for the supply of his own wants, as for the grace of God in them; 19 and so concludeth with prayer and salutation.

<sup>a</sup> THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 <sup>b</sup> I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 <sup>c</sup> And I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 <sup>d</sup> Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 <sup>e</sup> Let your moderation be known unto all men: The Lord is at hand.

6 <sup>f</sup> Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God:

7 <sup>g</sup> And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 <sup>h</sup> Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 <sup>i</sup> Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 <sup>k</sup> But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 <sup>l</sup> Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, there-with to be content.

12 <sup>m</sup> I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where, and in all things, I am instructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 <sup>n</sup> I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 <sup>o</sup> Notwithstanding, ye have well done that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 <sup>p</sup> Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 <sup>q</sup> Not because I desire a gift; but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 <sup>r</sup> But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 <sup>s</sup> But my God shall supply all your need, according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

22 <sup>t</sup> All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Cesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

CHAP. I.

1 After salutation, he thanketh God for their faith, 7 confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 prayeth further for their increase in grace; 14 describeth the true Christ; 21 encourageth them to receive Jesus Christ; and commendeth his own ministry.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother, 2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints;

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness;

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins;

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature:

16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist:

18 And he is the head of the body, the church; who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead; that in all things he might have the pre-eminence:

19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, that were sometimes alienated, and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled,

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy, and unblameable, and un-reproveable in his sight;

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church;

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God;

26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

1 He still exhorteth them to be constant in Christ, 8 to beware of philosophy, and vain traditions, 18 worshipping of angels, 20 and legal ceremonies, which are ended in Christ.

FOR I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 <sup>e</sup> For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 <sup>f</sup> As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him;

7 <sup>g</sup> Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 <sup>h</sup> Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ:

9 <sup>i</sup> For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 <sup>k</sup> And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power;

11 <sup>l</sup> In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ;

12 <sup>m</sup> Buried with him in baptism, wherein also you are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 <sup>n</sup> And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 <sup>o</sup> Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 <sup>p</sup> And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 <sup>q</sup> Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holy-day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath-days;

17 <sup>r</sup> Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

18 <sup>s</sup> Let no man beguile you of your reward, in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind;

19 <sup>t</sup> And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 <sup>u</sup> Wherefore, if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 <sup>x</sup> Which all are to perish with the using,) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23 <sup>y</sup> Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will-worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

C H A P. III.

1 <sup>z</sup> He sheweth where we should seek Christ: 5 He exhorteth to mortification, 10 to put off the old man, and to put on Christ; 12 exhorting to charity, humility, and other several duties.

<sup>a</sup> IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 <sup>b</sup> Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 <sup>c</sup> For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 <sup>d</sup> When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 <sup>e</sup> Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 <sup>f</sup> For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:

7 <sup>g</sup> In the which ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.

8 <sup>h</sup> But now you also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 <sup>i</sup> Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 <sup>k</sup> And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

11 <sup>l</sup> Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.

12 <sup>m</sup> Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering;

13 <sup>n</sup> Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 <sup>o</sup> And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

15 <sup>p</sup> And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 <sup>q</sup> Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 <sup>r</sup> And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 <sup>s</sup> Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 <sup>t</sup> Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 <sup>u</sup> Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 <sup>v</sup> Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 <sup>w</sup> Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 <sup>x</sup> Knowing, that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 <sup>a</sup> But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

C H A P. IV.

1 <sup>a</sup> He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, 5 to walk wisely towards them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ. 10 He saluteth them, and wisheth them all prosperity.

MASTERS, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 <sup>b</sup> Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

3 <sup>c</sup> Withal, praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

4 <sup>d</sup> That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 <sup>e</sup> Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 <sup>f</sup> Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 <sup>g</sup> All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord;

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

9 <sup>h</sup> With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

10 <sup>i</sup> Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments; if he come unto you, receive him;)

11 And Jesus, which is called Justus; who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

12 <sup>k</sup> Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are of Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

14 <sup>l</sup> Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you.

15 <sup>m</sup> Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

16 <sup>n</sup> And when this epistle is read amongst you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

17 <sup>o</sup> And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

18 <sup>p</sup> The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen

¶ The First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to the THESSALONIANS.

C H A P. I.

1 <sup>a</sup> The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindful of them St. Paul was at all times in thanksgiving, and prayer; 5 and also how well he was persuaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith and conversion to God.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 <sup>b</sup> We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 <sup>c</sup> Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 <sup>d</sup> Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

5 <sup>e</sup> For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 <sup>f</sup> And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost;

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 <sup>g</sup> For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 <sup>h</sup> For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God;

10 <sup>i</sup> And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2<sup>b</sup> But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3<sup>c</sup> For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4<sup>d</sup> But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5<sup>e</sup> For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is witness:

6<sup>f</sup> Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7<sup>g</sup> But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8<sup>h</sup> So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9<sup>i</sup> For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10<sup>j</sup> Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11<sup>k</sup> As you know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,

12<sup>l</sup> That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13<sup>m</sup> For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14<sup>n</sup> For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews;

15<sup>o</sup> Who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men;

16<sup>p</sup> Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins away; for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18<sup>q</sup> Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

13<sup>r</sup> For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

C H A P. III.

1 Saint Paul testifieth his great love to the Thessalonians; partly by sending Timothy unto them to strengthen and comfort them; partly by rejoicing in their well-doing; 10 and partly by praying for them, and desiring a safe coming unto them.

WHEREFORE, when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

2<sup>a</sup> And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith;

3<sup>b</sup> That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5<sup>c</sup> For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6<sup>d</sup> But now, when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you;

7<sup>e</sup> Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you, in all our affliction and distress, by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10<sup>f</sup> Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

12<sup>g</sup> And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one towards another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you:

13<sup>h</sup> To the end he may establish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints:

C H A P. IV.

1 He exhorteth them to go forward in all manner of godliness, 6 to live holily and justly, 9 to love one another, 11 and quietly to follow their own business; 13 and last of all, to sorrow moderately for the dead; 15 and unto this last exhortation is annexed a brief description of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ to judgment.

FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 <sup>b</sup> For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 <sup>c</sup> That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 <sup>d</sup> Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 <sup>e</sup> That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter; because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 <sup>f</sup> For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 <sup>g</sup> He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 <sup>h</sup> But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you; for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

10 <sup>i</sup> And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more:

11 <sup>k</sup> And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 <sup>l</sup> That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 <sup>m</sup> But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 <sup>n</sup> For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 <sup>o</sup> For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 <sup>p</sup> For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 <sup>q</sup> Then we which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 <sup>r</sup> Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 He proceedeth in the former description of Christ's coming to judgment, 12 and giveth divers precepts, 23 and so concludeth the epistle.

BUT of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 <sup>b</sup> For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 <sup>c</sup> For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 <sup>d</sup> But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 <sup>e</sup> Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 <sup>f</sup> Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 <sup>g</sup> For they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 <sup>h</sup> But let us who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breast-plate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 <sup>i</sup> For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 <sup>k</sup> Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 <sup>l</sup> Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

12 <sup>m</sup> And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

14 <sup>n</sup> Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 <sup>o</sup> See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

16 <sup>p</sup> Rejoice evermore.

17 <sup>q</sup> Pray without ceasing.

18 <sup>r</sup> In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19 <sup>s</sup> Quench not the Spirit.

20 <sup>t</sup> Despise not prophesyings.

21 <sup>u</sup> Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

22 <sup>v</sup> Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 <sup>w</sup> And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly: and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 <sup>x</sup> Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

25 <sup>y</sup> Brethren, pray for us.

26 <sup>z</sup> Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.

27 <sup>a</sup> I charge you by the Lord, that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

28 <sup>b</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

¶ The Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Saint Paul certifieth them of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience; 11 and therewithal useth divers reasons for the comforting of them in persecution, whereof the chiefest is taken from the righteous judgment of God.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth:

4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure;

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled, rest with us; when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power;

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

1 He willeth them to continue stedfast in the truth received; 3 sheweth that there shall be a departure from the faith, 8 and a discovery of antichrist, before the day of the Lord come: 15 and thereupon repeateth his former exhortation, and prayeth for them.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth, that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth, will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth;

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace,

17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

C H A P. III.

1 He craveth their prayers for himself, 3 testifieth what confidence he hath in them, 5 maketh request to God in their behalf, 6 giveth them divers precepts, especially to shun idleness and ill company; 16 and last of all, concludeth with prayer and salutation.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 <sup>b</sup> And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 <sup>c</sup> But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.

4 <sup>d</sup> And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 <sup>e</sup> And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 <sup>f</sup> Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 <sup>g</sup> For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 <sup>h</sup> Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 <sup>i</sup> Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 <sup>k</sup> For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 <sup>l</sup> For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busy-bodies.

12 <sup>m</sup> Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 <sup>n</sup> But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.

14 <sup>o</sup> And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 <sup>p</sup> Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 <sup>q</sup> Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 <sup>r</sup> The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

¶ The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

¶ The First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to TIMOTHY.

C H A P. I.

1 Timothy is put in mind of the charge which was given unto him by Paul, at his going to Macedonia. 5 Of the right use and end of the law. 11 Of Saint Paul's calling to be an apostle: 20 and of Hymeneus and Alexander.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope;

2 <sup>b</sup> Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 <sup>c</sup> As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine,

4 <sup>d</sup> Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than edifying which is in faith; so do.

5 <sup>e</sup> Now the end of the commandment is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 <sup>f</sup> From which some have swerved, have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 <sup>g</sup> Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 <sup>h</sup> But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 <sup>i</sup> Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 <sup>k</sup> For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

11 <sup>l</sup> According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 <sup>m</sup> And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

13 <sup>n</sup> Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 <sup>o</sup> This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long suffering, for a pattern to them which should should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 <sup>p</sup> Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 <sup>a</sup> This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

19 <sup>b</sup> Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away, concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 <sup>c</sup> Of whom is Hymaneus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

C H A P. II.

1 That it is meet to pray and give thanks for all men, and the reason why. 9 How women should be attired. 12 They are not permitted to teach. 15 They shall be saved notwithstanding the testimonies of God's wrath, in child-birth, if they continue in faith.

I EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 <sup>a</sup> For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 <sup>b</sup> For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 <sup>c</sup> Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 <sup>d</sup> For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 <sup>e</sup> Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

7 <sup>f</sup> Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not,) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 <sup>g</sup> I will therefore that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 <sup>h</sup> In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 <sup>i</sup> Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 <sup>k</sup> For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 <sup>l</sup> And Adam was not deceived; but the woman being deceived, was in the transgression.

15 <sup>m</sup> Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

C H A P. III.

1 How bishops, and deacons, and their wives should be qualified; 14 and to what end Saint Paul wrote to Timothy of these things. 15 Of the church, and the blessed truth therein taught and professed.

(858)

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 <sup>a</sup> A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach:

3 <sup>b</sup> Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 <sup>c</sup> Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 <sup>d</sup> Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 <sup>e</sup> Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 <sup>f</sup> For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 <sup>g</sup> These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 <sup>h</sup> But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 <sup>i</sup> And, without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

C H A P. IV.

1 He foretelleth that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith. 6 And to the end that Timothy might not fail in doing his duty, he furnisheth him with divers precepts belonging thereto.

NOW the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2 <sup>a</sup> Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 <sup>b</sup> Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 <sup>c</sup> For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 <sup>a</sup> If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 <sup>c</sup> But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 <sup>e</sup> For bodily exercise profiteth little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 <sup>h</sup> This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation.

10 <sup>i</sup> For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 <sup>k</sup> Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 <sup>i</sup> Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 <sup>m</sup> Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them: that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 <sup>n</sup> Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

C H A P. V.

1 Rules to be observed in reprovng. 3 Of widows.

17 Of elders. 23 A precept for Timothy's health.

24 Some men's sins go before unto judgment, and some men's do follow after.

<sup>a</sup> REBUKE not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren; <sup>b</sup> The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 <sup>c</sup> Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 <sup>d</sup> But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 <sup>e</sup> Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 <sup>f</sup> And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 <sup>g</sup> But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 <sup>h</sup> Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 <sup>i</sup> And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 <sup>k</sup> I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 <sup>l</sup> If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 <sup>m</sup> Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 <sup>n</sup> For the Scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn: And, The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 <sup>o</sup> Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

20 <sup>p</sup> Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

21 <sup>q</sup> I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 <sup>r</sup> Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

23 <sup>s</sup> Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 <sup>t</sup> Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness,

4 <sup>c</sup> He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 <sup>d</sup> Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

6 <sup>e</sup> But godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 <sup>f</sup> For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 <sup>g</sup> And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

9 <sup>h</sup> But they that will be rich, fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 <sup>i</sup> For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 <sup>k</sup> But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 <sup>l</sup> Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 <sup>m</sup> I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;

14 <sup>n</sup> That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:

15 <sup>o</sup> Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

16 <sup>p</sup> Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 <sup>q</sup> Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18 <sup>r</sup> That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

19 <sup>s</sup> Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 <sup>t</sup> O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

21 <sup>u</sup> Which some professing, have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

¶ The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacatiana.

¶ The Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul's love to Timothy, and the unfeigned faith which was in Timothy himself, his mother, and grandmother: 6 He is exhorted to stir up the gift of God which was in him, 8 to be stedfast and patient in persecution, 13 and to persist in the form and truth of that doctrine which he had learned of him. 15 Phygellus and Hermogenes, and such like are noted, and Onesiphorus is highly commended.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 <sup>a</sup> To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 <sup>b</sup> I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 <sup>c</sup> Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 <sup>d</sup> When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 <sup>e</sup> Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 <sup>f</sup> For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, of love, and of a sound mind.

8 <sup>g</sup> Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 <sup>h</sup> Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began;

10 <sup>i</sup> But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 <sup>k</sup> Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 <sup>l</sup> For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 <sup>m</sup> Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 <sup>n</sup> That good thing which was committed unto thee, keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

Heb. 6, 10.

15 ° This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 ° The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 ° But when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 ° The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

1 He is exhorted again to constancy and perseverance, and to do the duty of a faithful servant of the Lord, in dividing the word aright, and shunning profane and vain babblings. 17 Of Hymeneus and Philetus. 19 The foundation of the Lord is sure. 22 He is taught whereof to beware, and what to follow after, and in what sort the servant of the Lord ought to behave himself.

THOU therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 ° And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 ° Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 ° No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 ° And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 ° The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 ° Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, was raised from the dead according to my gospel:

9 ° Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil-doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 ° Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 ° It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 ° If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: If we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 ° If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful; he cannot deny himself.

14 ° Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 ° Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 ° But shun profane and vain babblings; for they will increase unto more ungodliness:

17 ° And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 ° Who concerning the truth have erred, saying That the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 ° Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 ° But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 ° If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 ° Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 ° But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 ° And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,

25 ° In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves: if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 ° And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 He adviseth him of the times to come, 6 describeth the enemies of the truth, 10 propoundeth unto him his own example, 16 and commendeth the holy scriptures.

THIS know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 ° For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 ° Without natural affection, truce-breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 ° Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 ° Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

6 ° For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 ° Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 ° But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.

10 ° But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, patience, 11 ° Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

1 <sup>1</sup> He exhorteth him to do his duty with all care and diligence; 6 certifieth him of the nearness of his death; 9 willeth him to come speedily unto him, and 11 to bring Mark with him, and certain other things which he wrote for; 14 warneth him to beware of Alexander the smith; 16 informeth him what had befallen him at his first answering: 19 and soon after he concludeth.

I CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 <sup>b</sup> Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all long-suffering and doctrine.3 <sup>c</sup> For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;4 <sup>d</sup> And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.5 <sup>e</sup> But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.6 <sup>f</sup> For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.7 <sup>g</sup> I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:8 <sup>h</sup> Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous

C H A P. I.

1, 5 For what end Titus was left in Crete. 6 How they that are to be chosen ministers ought to be qualified. 11 The mouths of evil teachers to be stopped: 12 and what manner of men they be.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;

2 <sup>b</sup> In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;3 <sup>c</sup> But hath in due time manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 <sup>d</sup> To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.5 <sup>e</sup> For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:6 <sup>f</sup> If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

7 <sup>a</sup> For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 <sup>b</sup> But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 <sup>c</sup> Holding fast the faithful word, as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 <sup>k</sup> For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11 <sup>l</sup> Whose mouths must be stopped; who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 <sup>m</sup> This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply; that they may be sound in the faith.

14 <sup>n</sup> Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn from the truth.

15 <sup>o</sup> Unto the pure all things are pure; but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 <sup>p</sup> They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 Directions given unto Titus both for his doctrine and life. 9 The duty of servants, and in general of all Christians.

BUT speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 <sup>b</sup> The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 <sup>c</sup> To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

7 <sup>d</sup> In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works; in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 <sup>e</sup> Sound speech that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 <sup>f</sup> Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

10 <sup>g</sup> Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 <sup>h</sup> For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

12 <sup>i</sup> Teaching us, that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 <sup>k</sup> Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14 <sup>l</sup> Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 <sup>m</sup> These things speak, and exhort; and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach: 10 He is willed also to reject obstinate heretics: 12 which done, he appointeth him both time and place, wherein he should come unto him; and so concludeth.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

2 <sup>b</sup> To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 <sup>c</sup> For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 <sup>d</sup> But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 <sup>e</sup> Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 <sup>f</sup> Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 <sup>g</sup> That, being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 <sup>h</sup> This is a faithful saying; and these things I will that thou affirm constantly; that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 <sup>i</sup> But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 <sup>k</sup> A man that is an heretic, after the first and second admonition reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such, is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

12 <sup>l</sup> When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 <sup>m</sup> Bring Zenas the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 <sup>n</sup> And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

PAUL, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow-labourer,

2 <sup>b</sup> And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 <sup>c</sup> I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 <sup>d</sup> Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 <sup>e</sup> That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 <sup>f</sup> For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 <sup>g</sup> Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ;

10 <sup>h</sup> I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels;

13 <sup>i</sup> Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:

14 <sup>k</sup> But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 <sup>l</sup> For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

16 <sup>m</sup> Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 <sup>n</sup> Having confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to the HEBREWS.

C H A P. I.

1 Christ in these last times coming to us from the Father, & is preferred above the angels, both in person and office.

GOD, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 <sup>b</sup> Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

3 <sup>c</sup> Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 <sup>d</sup> Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 <sup>e</sup> For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 <sup>f</sup> And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 <sup>g</sup> And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 <sup>h</sup> But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom:

9 <sup>i</sup> Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 <sup>k</sup> And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They shall perish, but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 <sup>l</sup> But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 <sup>m</sup> Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAP. II.

1 <sup>n</sup> We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, 5 and that because he vouchsafed to take our nature upon him, 14 as it was necessary.

<sup>a</sup> THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 <sup>b</sup> For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 <sup>c</sup> How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 <sup>d</sup> God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 <sup>e</sup> For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 <sup>f</sup> But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 <sup>g</sup> Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 <sup>h</sup> Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 <sup>i</sup> But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 <sup>k</sup> For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 <sup>l</sup> For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren;

12 <sup>m</sup> Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren; in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 <sup>n</sup> And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 <sup>o</sup> Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 <sup>p</sup> And deliver them who through fear of death were all their life-time subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 <sup>q</sup> Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people:

18 <sup>r</sup> For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

1 <sup>s</sup> Christ is more worthy than Moses: 7 therefore if we believe not in him, we shall be more worthy of punishment than hard-hearted Israel.

<sup>a</sup> WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 <sup>b</sup> Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 <sup>c</sup> For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 <sup>d</sup> For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.

5 <sup>e</sup> And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 <sup>f</sup> But Christ as a Son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 <sup>g</sup> Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To-day, if ye will hear his voice,

8 <sup>h</sup> Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness;

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 <sup>i</sup> Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their hearts; and they have not known my ways.

11 <sup>k</sup> So I swear in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 <sup>l</sup> Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 <sup>m</sup> But exhort one another daily, while it is called To-day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 <sup>n</sup> For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 <sup>o</sup> While it is said, To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

19 <sup>s</sup> So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

C H A P. IV.

1 The rest of Christians is attained by faith. 12 The power of God's word. 14 By our High Priest Jesus the Son of God, subject to infirmities, but not to sin, 16 we must and may go boldly to the throne of grace.

<sup>a</sup> LET us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 <sup>b</sup> For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 <sup>c</sup> For we which have believed do enter into rest; as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 <sup>d</sup> For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 <sup>e</sup> Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 <sup>f</sup> Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time; (as it is said) To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 <sup>g</sup> There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 <sup>h</sup> For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 <sup>i</sup> Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 <sup>j</sup> For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 <sup>k</sup> Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 <sup>l</sup> Seeing then that we have a great High Priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 <sup>m</sup> For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

16 <sup>n</sup> Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

C H A P. V.

1 The authority and honour of our Saviour's priesthood. 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved.

<sup>a</sup> FOR every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertain-ing to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 <sup>b</sup> Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 <sup>c</sup> And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 <sup>d</sup> And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 <sup>e</sup> So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 <sup>f</sup> As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

7 <sup>g</sup> Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;

8 <sup>h</sup> Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 <sup>i</sup> And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 <sup>k</sup> Called of God an high priest, after the order of Melchisedec:

11 <sup>l</sup> Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 <sup>m</sup> For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 <sup>n</sup> For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who, by reason of use, have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

C H A P. VI.

1 He exhorteth, not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be stedfast, 12 diligent and patient to wait upon God, 13 because God is most sure in his promise.

<sup>a</sup> THEREFORE, leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 <sup>b</sup> Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 ° And this will we do, if God permit.

4 ° For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 ° And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 ° If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 ° But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 ° For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 ° And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 ° That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 ° For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 ° And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 ° For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 ° Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath;

18 ° That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

19 ° Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

20 ° Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

C H A P. VII.

1 Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, 11 and so far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order.

2 FOR this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

3 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but, made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 ° Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 ° And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 ° But he, whose descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 ° And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 ° And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 ° For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 ° If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 ° For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 ° And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 ° For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 ° For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before, for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof:

19 ° For the law made nothing perfect; but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And in as much as not without an oath he was made priest,

21 ° (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath, by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec;)

22 ° By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 ° And they truly were many priests, because cause they were not suffered to continue by reason of death :

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens ;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's : for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity ; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

C H A P. VIII.

1 By the eternal priesthood of Christ, the Levitical priesthood of Aaron is abolished ; 7 and the temporal covenant with the fathers, by the eternal covenant of the gospel.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum : We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens ;

2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices : wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law ;

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle : for, See, (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah ;

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt : because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord ; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts ; and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people :

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord : for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away.

C H A P. IX.

1 The description of the rites and bloody sacrifices of the law, 11 far inferior to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ.

THEN verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made ; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shew-bread, which is called The Sanctuary :

3 And, after the second veil, the tabernacle, which is called The Holiest of all ;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant ;

5 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercy-seat : of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God :

7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people :

8 The Holy Ghost this signifying, That the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing :

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect as pertaining to the conscience ;

10 Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building ;

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh ;

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God ?

15 And for this cause he is the Mediator of the the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 <sup>q</sup> Gal. 3, 15. For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

20 <sup>s</sup> Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 <sup>t</sup> Moreover, he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 <sup>u</sup> And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 <sup>x</sup> It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 <sup>y</sup> For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 <sup>z</sup> Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 <sup>a</sup> For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once, in the end of the world, hath he appeared, to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 <sup>b</sup> And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment;

28 <sup>c</sup> So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

1 The weakness of the law-sacrifices. 10 The sacrifice of Christ's body once offered, 14 for ever hath taken away sins. 19 An exhortation to hold fast the faith, with patience and thanksgiving.

FOR the law, having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 <sup>b</sup> But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 <sup>c</sup> For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 <sup>d</sup> Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure:

7 <sup>e</sup> Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt-offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 <sup>f</sup> By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 <sup>g</sup> And every priest standeth daily ministering, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifice, which can never take away sins:

12 <sup>h</sup> But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 <sup>i</sup> For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 <sup>k</sup> This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 <sup>l</sup> Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 <sup>m</sup> By a new and living way which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 <sup>n</sup> And having an high priest over the house of God;

22 <sup>o</sup> Let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 <sup>p</sup> Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)

24 <sup>q</sup> Let us consider one another, to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 <sup>r</sup> Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more as we see the day approaching.

26 <sup>s</sup> For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 <sup>t</sup> But a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and fiery indignation which shall devour the adversaries.

28 <sup>u</sup> He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 * Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 * For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

31 * It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 * But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

33 * Partly, whilst ye were made a gazing-stock, both by reproaches and afflictions: and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 * For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 * Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 * For ye have need of patience; that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

37 For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 * But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition, but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

C H A P. XI.

1 What faith is. 6 Without faith we cannot please God. 7 The worthy fruits thereof in the fathers of old time.

NOW faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 * Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 * By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he, being dead, yet speaketh.

5 * By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 * But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 * By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 * By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 * By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 * For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 * Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 * Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 * These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 * But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 * By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac; and he that had received the promises, offered up his only-begotten son,

18 * Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 * Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 * By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 * By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 * By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 * By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

24 * By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 * Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 * By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 * Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.

29 * By faith they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned.

30 * By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 * By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 * And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthac; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets;

33 * Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 * Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to fight the armies of the aliens.

35 * Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 * And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea moreover, of bonds and imprisonment:

37 * They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 * (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 * And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 * God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

C H A P. XII.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness. 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience unto the race that is set before us,

2 * Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 * For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 * Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 * And ye have forgotten the exhortation, which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 * For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 * If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons, for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 * But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 * Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us; and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 * For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 * Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: Nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 * Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees:

13 * And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

14 * Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 * Looking diligently, lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 * Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birth-right.

17 * For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 * For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 * And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard, intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 * (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart.

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 * But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 * To the general assembly and church of the first-born, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,

24 * And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

25 * See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

1 Divers admonitions, as to charity, 4 to honest life, 5 to avoid covetousness, 7 to regard God's preachers, 9 to take heed of strange doctrines, 10 to confess Christ, 16 to give alms, 17 to obey governors, 18 to pray for the apostles. 20 The conclusion.

2 <sup>b</sup> Be not forgetful to entertain strangers : for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

3 <sup>c</sup> Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them ; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 <sup>d</sup> Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled : but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 <sup>e</sup> Let your conversation be without covetousness ; and be content with such things as ye have : for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 <sup>f</sup> So that ye may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 <sup>g</sup> Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God : whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation :

8 <sup>h</sup> Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.

9 <sup>i</sup> Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines : for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace ; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 <sup>k</sup> We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 <sup>l</sup> For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

12 <sup>m</sup> Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

13 <sup>n</sup> Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach :

14 <sup>o</sup> For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 <sup>p</sup> By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

16 <sup>q</sup> But to do good, and to communicate, forget not : for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 <sup>r</sup> Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves : for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account : that they may do it with joy, and not with grief : for that is unprofitable for you.

18 <sup>s</sup> Pray for us : for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

19 <sup>t</sup> But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 <sup>u</sup> Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 <sup>v</sup> Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation : for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 <sup>w</sup> Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty ; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

¶ The general Epistle of JAMES.

C H A P. I.

1 We are to rejoice under the cross. 5 To ask wisdom of God, 13 and in our trials not to impute our weakness, or sins unto him, 19 but rather to hearken to the word, to meditate in it, and to do thereafter : 28 otherwise men may seem, but never be truly religious.

<sup>a</sup> J A M E S, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 <sup>b</sup> My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations ;

3 <sup>c</sup> Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 <sup>d</sup> If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not ; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth, is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 <sup>e</sup> Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted ;

10 <sup>1</sup> But the rich, in that he is made low : because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth : so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 <sup>2</sup> Blessed is the man that endureth temptation : for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 <sup>3</sup> Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God : for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man :

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 <sup>1</sup> Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin : and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 <sup>2</sup> Every good gift, and every perfect gift, is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 <sup>1</sup> Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

19 <sup>2</sup> Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath :

20 <sup>3</sup> For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 <sup>4</sup> Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 <sup>5</sup> But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 <sup>6</sup> For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass :

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 <sup>7</sup> But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 <sup>8</sup> If any man among you seem to be religious and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 <sup>9</sup> Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

C H A P. II.

1 It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor brethren : 13 rather we are to be loving and merciful ; 14 and not to boast of faith, where no deeds are : 17 which is but a dead faith, 19 the faith of devils, 21 not of Abraham, 25 and Rahab.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel ; and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment ;

3 <sup>1</sup> And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place ; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool :

4 <sup>2</sup> Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts ?

5 <sup>3</sup> Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him ?

6 <sup>4</sup> But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats ?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called ?

8 <sup>1</sup> If ye fulfil the royal law, according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well :

9 <sup>2</sup> But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 <sup>3</sup> For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 <sup>1</sup> For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 <sup>2</sup> So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 <sup>1</sup> For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy, and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 <sup>2</sup> What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works ? Can faith save him ?

15 <sup>3</sup> If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled ; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body ; what doth it profit ?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works : shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 <sup>4</sup> Thou believest that there is one God ; thou doest well : the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead ?

21 <sup>5</sup> Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar ?

22 <sup>6</sup> Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect ?

puted unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.

21 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 <sup>a</sup> Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

C H A P. III.

1 We are not rashly or arrogantly to reprove others: 5 but rather to bridle the tongue, a little member, but a powerful instrument of much good, and great harm. 13 They who be truly wise, be mild and peaceable, without envying and strife.

<sup>a</sup> MY brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 <sup>b</sup> For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 <sup>c</sup> Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 <sup>d</sup> Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 <sup>e</sup> And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue amongst our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

8 <sup>f</sup> But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 <sup>g</sup> Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 <sup>h</sup> Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge amongst you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 <sup>i</sup> But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 <sup>k</sup> This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

16 <sup>l</sup> For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 <sup>m</sup> But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

13 <sup>n</sup> And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

C H A P. IV.

1 We are to strive against covetousness, 4 intemperance, 5 pride, 11 detraction and rash judgment of others: 13 and not to be confident in the good success of worldly business; but mindful ever of the uncertainty of this life, to commit ourselves and all our affairs to God's providence.

<sup>a</sup> FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?

2 <sup>b</sup> Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 <sup>c</sup> Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

4 <sup>d</sup> Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

5 <sup>e</sup> Do ye think that the Scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

6 <sup>f</sup> But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 <sup>g</sup> Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 <sup>h</sup> Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners: and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

9 <sup>i</sup> Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 <sup>k</sup> Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 <sup>l</sup> Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law; but a judge.

12 <sup>m</sup> There is one Lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

13 <sup>n</sup> Go to now, ye that say, To-day or tomorrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain.

14 <sup>o</sup> Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow: For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 <sup>p</sup> For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 <sup>q</sup> But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 <sup>r</sup> Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

sing in prosperity, 16 to acknowledge mutually our several faults, to pray one for another; 19 and to reduce a straying brother to the truth.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.
2 <sup>b</sup> Your riches are corrupted, and your garments moth-eaten.

3 <sup>a</sup> Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 <sup>d</sup> Behold, the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

5 <sup>e</sup> Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 <sup>f</sup> Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 <sup>g</sup> Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

8 <sup>h</sup> Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 <sup>i</sup> Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

10 <sup>k</sup> Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 <sup>l</sup> Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 <sup>m</sup> But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 <sup>n</sup> Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

14 <sup>o</sup> Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 <sup>p</sup> And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 <sup>q</sup> Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 <sup>r</sup> Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 <sup>s</sup> And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 <sup>t</sup> Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him, 20 <sup>u</sup> Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

¶ The First Epistle general of PETER.

CHAP. I.

1 <sup>a</sup> He blesseth God for his manifold spiritual graces, 10 shewing that the salvation in Christ is no news, but a thing prophesied of old: 13 and exhorteth them accordingly to a godly conversation, forasmuch as they are now born anew by the word of God.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 <sup>b</sup> Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ; Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 <sup>c</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 <sup>d</sup> To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5 <sup>e</sup> Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 <sup>f</sup> Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 <sup>g</sup> That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 <sup>h</sup> Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 <sup>i</sup> Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 <sup>k</sup> Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 <sup>l</sup> Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 <sup>m</sup> Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven;

heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

13<sup>a</sup> Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

14<sup>a</sup> As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

15<sup>a</sup> But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16<sup>a</sup> Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17<sup>a</sup> And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:

18<sup>a</sup> Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

19<sup>a</sup> But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20<sup>a</sup> Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you;

21<sup>a</sup> Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22<sup>a</sup> Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23<sup>a</sup> Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24<sup>a</sup> For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CH A P. II.

1 He exhorted them from the breach of charity; 4 shewing that Christ is the foundation whereon they are built. 11 He beseecheth them also to abstain from fleshly lusts, 13 to be obedient to magistrates; 18 and teacheth servants how to obey their masters, 20 patiently suffering for well-doing, after the example of Christ.

WHEREFORE laying aside all malice and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and evil speakings,

2 As new-born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3<sup>b</sup> If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

4<sup>c</sup> To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5<sup>d</sup> Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6<sup>e</sup> Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner-stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7<sup>f</sup> Unto you therefore which believe, he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8<sup>g</sup> And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

9<sup>h</sup> But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

10<sup>i</sup> Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11<sup>j</sup> Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

12<sup>k</sup> Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13<sup>l</sup> Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14<sup>m</sup> Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15<sup>n</sup> For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16<sup>o</sup> As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17<sup>p</sup> Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18<sup>q</sup> Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19<sup>r</sup> For this is thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20<sup>s</sup> For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21<sup>t</sup> For even hereto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22<sup>u</sup> Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23<sup>v</sup> Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24<sup>w</sup> Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 <sup>a</sup> For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

C H A P. III.

1 <sup>a</sup> He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands to each other; 8 exhorting all men to unity and love; 14 and to suffer persecution. 19 He declareth also the benefits of Christ towards the old world.

<sup>a</sup> LIKEWISE, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 <sup>b</sup> Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 <sup>c</sup> But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner, in the old time, the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 <sup>d</sup> Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 <sup>e</sup> Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

8 <sup>f</sup> Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another; love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 <sup>g</sup> Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 <sup>h</sup> For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 <sup>i</sup> Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 <sup>k</sup> For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

13 <sup>l</sup> And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 <sup>m</sup> But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 <sup>n</sup> But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

16 <sup>o</sup> Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing than for evil doing.

18 <sup>p</sup> For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

19 <sup>q</sup> By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;

20 <sup>r</sup> Which sometime were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water.

21 <sup>s</sup> The like figure whereunto, even baptism, doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God), by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 <sup>t</sup> Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

C H A P. IV.

1 He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ, and the consideration of the general end that now approacheth: 12 and comforteth them against persecution.

<sup>a</sup> FORASMUCH then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sin;

2 <sup>b</sup> That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 <sup>c</sup> For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 <sup>d</sup> Wherein they think it strange that you run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 <sup>e</sup> Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 <sup>f</sup> For, for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 <sup>g</sup> But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 <sup>h</sup> And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 <sup>i</sup> Use hospitality one to another, without grudging.

10 <sup>k</sup> As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 <sup>l</sup> If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ; to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

John 1, 12.

12 <sup>m</sup> Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 <sup>a</sup> But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 <sup>o</sup> If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 <sup>p</sup> But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as a busy-body in other men's matters.

16 <sup>q</sup> Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 <sup>r</sup> For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 <sup>s</sup> And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 <sup>t</sup> Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CH A P. V.

1 <sup>He</sup> exhorteth the elders to feed their flocks; 5 the younger to obey: 8 and all to be sober, watchful; and constant in the faith; 9 to resist the cruel adversary the devil.

¶ Second Epistle general of PETER.

CH A P. I.

1 <sup>c</sup> Confirming them in hope of the increase of God's graces, 5 he exhorteth them by faith and good works, to make their calling sure: 12 whereof he is careful to remember them, knowing that his death is at hand: 16 and warneth them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Son of God, by the eye-witness of the apostles beholding his majesty, and by the testimony of the Father and the prophets.

<sup>a</sup> SIMON Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 <sup>b</sup> Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord.

3 <sup>c</sup> According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

strait, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 <sup>c</sup> Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

4 <sup>d</sup> And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 <sup>e</sup> Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 <sup>f</sup> Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 <sup>g</sup> Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 <sup>h</sup> Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about seeking whom he may devour:

9 <sup>i</sup> Whom resist, stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 <sup>k</sup> But the God of all grace, who hath called us into his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 <sup>l</sup> To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 <sup>m</sup> By Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 <sup>n</sup> The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus my son.

14 <sup>o</sup> Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

4 <sup>d</sup> Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises; that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 <sup>e</sup> And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue: and to virtue knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 <sup>f</sup> And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.

8 <sup>g</sup> For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 <sup>h</sup> But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 <sup>i</sup> Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I wold not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be stablished in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up, by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover, I will endeavour that you may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

1 He foretelleth them of false teachers, shewing the impiety and punishment both of them and their followers; 7 from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom: 10 and more fully describeth the manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers, whereby they may be the better known and avoided.

BUT there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorra into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds:)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government: presumptuous are they, self-willed; they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day-time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass, speaking with man's voice; forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

coming to judgment, against those scorers who dispute against it; 8 warning the godly for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 He describeth also the manner how the world shall be destroyed: 11 exhorting them, from the expectation thereof, to all holiness of life; 15 and again, to think the patience of God to tend to their salvation, as Paul wrote to them in his epistles.

a ch. 1, 13. THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 <sup>b</sup> That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 <sup>c</sup> Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 <sup>d</sup> And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 <sup>e</sup> For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

6 <sup>f</sup> Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 <sup>g</sup> But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 <sup>h</sup> But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 <sup>i</sup> The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 <sup>a</sup> But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat; the earth also, and the works that are therein, shall be burnt up.

11 <sup>b</sup> Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness;

12 <sup>c</sup> Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens, being on fire, shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 <sup>d</sup> Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 <sup>e</sup> Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless:

15 <sup>f</sup> And account that the long-suffering of the Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you;

16 <sup>g</sup> As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 <sup>h</sup> Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 <sup>i</sup> But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory, both now and for ever. Amen.

¶ The First Epistle general of JOHN.

C H A P. I.

1 He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life by a communion with God: 5 to which we must adjoin holiness of life, to testify the truth of that our communion and profession of faith, as also to assure us of the forgiveness of our sins by Christ's death.

THAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

2 <sup>b</sup> (For the Life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal Life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 <sup>c</sup> That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 <sup>d</sup> And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 <sup>e</sup> This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 <sup>f</sup> If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 <sup>g</sup> But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 <sup>h</sup> If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 <sup>i</sup> If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 <sup>j</sup> If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar; and his word is not in us.

C H A P. II.

1 He comforteth them against the sins of infirmity.

3 Rightly to know God is to keep his commandments, 9 to love our brethren, 15 and not to love the world. 18 We must beware of seducers: 20 from whose deceits the godly are safely preserved by perseverance in faith, and holiness of life.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 <sup>b</sup> And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 <sup>c</sup> He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 <sup>d</sup> But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 <sup>e</sup> He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 <sup>f</sup> Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment, which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 <sup>g</sup> Again, a new commandment I write unto you; which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 <sup>h</sup> He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 <sup>i</sup> He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11 <sup>k</sup> But he that hateth his brother, is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 <sup>l</sup> I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 <sup>m</sup> I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 <sup>n</sup> I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 <sup>o</sup> Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 <sup>p</sup> And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 <sup>q</sup> Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 <sup>r</sup> They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would not doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 <sup>s</sup> But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 <sup>t</sup> Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 <sup>u</sup> Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son, hath the Father also.

24 <sup>v</sup> Let that therefore abide in you which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 <sup>w</sup> These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 <sup>x</sup> But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 <sup>y</sup> And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 <sup>z</sup> If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one which doeth righteousness is born of him.

C H A P. III.

1 He declareth the singular love of God towards us, in making us his sons: 3 who therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 11 as also brotherly to love one another.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 <sup>b</sup> Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

3 <sup>c</sup> And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 <sup>d</sup> Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 <sup>e</sup> And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 <sup>f</sup> Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 <sup>g</sup> Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness, is righteous even as he is righteous.

8 <sup>h</sup> He that committeth sin, is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 <sup>i</sup> Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 <sup>k</sup> In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 <sup>l</sup> For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 <sup>m</sup> Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 <sup>a</sup> Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 <sup>a</sup> We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 <sup>a</sup> Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 <sup>a</sup> Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 <sup>a</sup> But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 <sup>a</sup> My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 <sup>a</sup> And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 <sup>a</sup> Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God:

22 <sup>a</sup> And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 <sup>a</sup> And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 <sup>a</sup> And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

C H A P. IV.

1 He warneth them not to believe all teachers who boast of the Spirit, but to try them by the rules of the catholic faith: 7 and by many reasons exhorteth to brotherly love.

<sup>a</sup> BELOVED, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 <sup>b</sup> Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God:

3 <sup>a</sup> And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof you have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 <sup>a</sup> Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

5 <sup>a</sup> They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 <sup>a</sup> We are of God: he that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 <sup>a</sup> Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 <sup>b</sup> He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love.

9 <sup>a</sup> In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 <sup>a</sup> Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 <sup>a</sup> Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 <sup>a</sup> No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 <sup>a</sup> Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 <sup>a</sup> And we have seen, and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 <sup>a</sup> Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 <sup>a</sup> And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 <sup>a</sup> Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth, is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 <sup>a</sup> If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 <sup>a</sup> And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

C H A P. V.

1 He that loveth God, loveth his children, and keepeth his commandments; 3 which to the faithful are light, and not grievous. 9 Jesus is the Son of God, able to save us, 14 and to hear our prayers, which we make for ourselves, and for others.

<sup>a</sup> WHOSOEVER receiveth that Jesus is the Christ, is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 <sup>b</sup> By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 <sup>a</sup> For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

4 <sup>a</sup> For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 <sup>a</sup> Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 <sup>a</sup> This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 <sup>a</sup> For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 <sup>h</sup> And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 <sup>i</sup> If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

10 <sup>k</sup> He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 <sup>l</sup> And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

12 <sup>m</sup> He that hath the Son, hath life; and he that hath not the Son, hath not life.

13 <sup>n</sup> These things have I written unto you: that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 <sup>o</sup> And this is the confidence that we have in him, That, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 <sup>p</sup> If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 <sup>q</sup> All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 <sup>r</sup> We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 <sup>s</sup> And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 <sup>t</sup> And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true: and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

¶ The Second Epistle of JOHN.

He exhorteth a certain honourable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief; 8 lest they lose the reward of their former profession; 10 and to have nothing to do with those seducers that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesus.

<sup>a</sup> THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;

2 <sup>b</sup> For the truth's sake which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 <sup>c</sup> Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 <sup>d</sup> I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 <sup>e</sup> And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

6 <sup>f</sup> And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment,

That (as ye have heard from the beginning) ye should walk in it..

7 <sup>g</sup> For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist..

8 <sup>h</sup> Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward..

9 <sup>i</sup> Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 <sup>k</sup> If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed:

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 <sup>l</sup> Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

13 <sup>m</sup> The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

¶ The Third Epistle of JOHN.

He commendeth Gaius for his piety 5 and hospitality 7 to true preachers; 9 complaining of the unkind dealing of ambitious Diotrophes on the contrary side, 11 whose evil example is not to be followed: 12 and giveth special testimony to the good report of Demetrius.

<sup>a</sup> THE elder unto the well-beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 <sup>b</sup> For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 <sup>c</sup> I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in the truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 <sup>f</sup> Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

¶ The General Epistle of JUDE.

He exhorteth them to be constant in the profession of the faith. 4 False teachers are crept in to seduce them; for whose damnable doctrine and manners, horrible punishment is prepared: 20 whereas the godly, by the assistance of the Holy Spirit, and prayers to God, may persevere and grow in grace, and keep themselves, and recover others out of the snares of those deceivers.

3 <sup>b</sup> Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 <sup>c</sup> For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation; ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 <sup>d</sup> I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 <sup>e</sup> And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains, under darkness, unto the judgment of the great day.

7 <sup>f</sup> Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 <sup>g</sup> Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

9 <sup>h</sup> Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 <sup>i</sup> But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 <sup>k</sup> Wo unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gain-saying of Core.

12 <sup>l</sup> These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 <sup>m</sup> Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 <sup>n</sup> And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints, 15 <sup>o</sup> To execute judgment upon all; and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 <sup>p</sup> These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 <sup>q</sup> But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 <sup>r</sup> How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 <sup>s</sup> These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 <sup>t</sup> But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 <sup>u</sup> And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 <sup>v</sup> Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 <sup>w</sup> To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, now and ever. Amen.

¶ The Revelation of St. JOHN the Divine.

Anno DOMINI

C H A P. I.

4 John writeth his revelation to the seven churches of Asia, signified by the seven golden candlesticks. 7 The coming of Christ. 14 His glorious power and majesty.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 <sup>b</sup> Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 <sup>c</sup> Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 <sup>d</sup> JOHN to the seven churches in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne.

5 <sup>e</sup> And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the Prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 <sup>f</sup> And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 <sup>g</sup> Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 <sup>h</sup> I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 <sup>i</sup> I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 <sup>k</sup> I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 <sup>l</sup> Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches, which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 <sup>m</sup> And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 <sup>n</sup> And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 <sup>o</sup> His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 <sup>p</sup> And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 <sup>q</sup> And he had in his right hand seven stars; and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 <sup>r</sup> And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

18 <sup>s</sup> I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

19 <sup>t</sup> Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 <sup>u</sup> The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

C H A P. II.

What is commanded to be written to the angels (that is, the ministers) of the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira: and what is commended, or found wanting in them.

UNTO the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 <sup>b</sup> I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 <sup>c</sup> And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 <sup>d</sup> Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen; and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 <sup>e</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 <sup>1</sup> I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich,) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 <sup>2</sup> Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried: and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 <sup>3</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 <sup>4</sup> And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 <sup>5</sup> I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 <sup>6</sup> But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 <sup>7</sup> So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 <sup>8</sup> Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 <sup>9</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 <sup>10</sup> And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 <sup>11</sup> I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 <sup>12</sup> Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 <sup>13</sup> And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts; and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

25 <sup>14</sup> But that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 <sup>15</sup> And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 <sup>16</sup> (And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers:) even as I received of my Father.

28 <sup>17</sup> And I will give him the morning star.

29 <sup>18</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

C H A P. III.

1 The angel of the church of Sardis is reproved, 3 exhorted to repent, and threatened if he do not repent. 8 The angel of the church of Philadelphia, 10 is approved for his diligence and patience. 15 The angel of Laodicea is rebuked, for being neither hot nor cold, 19 and admonished to be more zealous. 20 Christ standeth at the door, and knocketh.

<sup>1</sup> AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 <sup>2</sup> Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard; and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 <sup>3</sup> Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 <sup>4</sup> He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 <sup>5</sup> And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 <sup>6</sup> I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 <sup>7</sup> Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 <sup>h</sup> Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 <sup>i</sup> Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 <sup>k</sup> Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God; and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is New Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 <sup>l</sup> And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God:

15 <sup>m</sup> I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then, because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 <sup>n</sup> Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 <sup>o</sup> I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

19 <sup>p</sup> As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 <sup>q</sup> Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 <sup>r</sup> To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 <sup>s</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

C H A P. IV.

2 John seeth the throne of God in heaven. 4 The four and twenty elders. 6 The four beasts full of eyes before and behind. 10 The elders lay down their crowns, and worship him that sat on the throne.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven; and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 <sup>b</sup> And immediately I was in the Spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 <sup>c</sup> And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine-stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 <sup>d</sup> And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

6 <sup>e</sup> And before the throne there was a sea of glass, like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts, full of eyes before and behind.

7 <sup>f</sup> And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 <sup>g</sup> And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

10 <sup>h</sup> The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 <sup>i</sup> Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

1 The book sealed with seven seals: 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open: 12 Therefore the elders praise him, 9 and confess that he redeemed them with his blood.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the back side, sealed with seven seals.

2 <sup>b</sup> And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 <sup>c</sup> And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 <sup>d</sup> And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 <sup>e</sup> And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb, as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

C H A P. VI.

1 The opening of the seals in order, and what followed thereupon; containing a prophecy to the end of the world.

<sup>a</sup> AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals; and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts, saying, Come and see.

2 <sup>b</sup> And I saw, and behold a white horse; and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo, a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 <sup>c</sup> And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 <sup>d</sup> And I looked, and behold, a pale horse; and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him: and power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 <sup>e</sup> And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:

10 <sup>f</sup> And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 <sup>g</sup> And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also, and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 <sup>h</sup> And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind:

14 <sup>i</sup> And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places:

15 <sup>k</sup> And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 <sup>l</sup> And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

C H A P. VII.

3 An angel sealeth the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number, 9 of all other nations an innumerable multitude, which stand before the throne, clad in white robes, and palms in their hands: 14 Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>a</sup> AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 <sup>b</sup> Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

C H A P. VIII.

1 At the opening of the seventh seal, 2 seven angels have seven trumpets given them. 6 Four of them sound their trumpets, and great plagues follow. 3 Another angel putteth incense to the prayers of the saints on the golden altar.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 <sup>a</sup> And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 <sup>b</sup> And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 <sup>c</sup> And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 <sup>d</sup> And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound.

C H A P. IX.

1 At the sounding of the fifth angel, a star falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomless pit: 2 He openeth the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions. 12 The first wo past. 13 The sixth trumpet soundeth. 14 Four angels are let loose, that were bound.

A<sup>a</sup>ND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 <sup>b</sup> And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion when he striketh a man.

6 <sup>c</sup> And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 <sup>d</sup> And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 <sup>e</sup> And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 <sup>f</sup> And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 <sup>g</sup> And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

12 <sup>h</sup> One wo is || past: and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14 <sup>i</sup> Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were || loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 <sup>k</sup> And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 <sup>l</sup> For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 <sup>m</sup> And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

4 <sup>b</sup> And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

7 <sup>e</sup> But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 <sup>f</sup> And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 <sup>g</sup> And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

1 <sup>a</sup> A woman clothed with the sun travaileth. 4 <sup>b</sup> The great red dragon standeth before her, ready to devour her child. 6 <sup>c</sup> When she was delivered she fleeth into the wilderness. 7 <sup>d</sup> Michael and his angels fight with the dragon, and prevail. 13 <sup>e</sup> The dragon being cast down unto the earth, persecuteth the woman.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 <sup>a</sup> And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 <sup>b</sup> And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 <sup>c</sup> And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 <sup>d</sup> And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 <sup>e</sup> And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 <sup>f</sup> And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 <sup>g</sup> And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 <sup>h</sup> And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony: and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 <sup>i</sup> Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Wo to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17<sup>l</sup> And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God,<sup>m</sup> and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

1 A beast riseth out of the sea with seven heads and ten horns, to whom the dragon giveth his power.

11 Another beast cometh up out of the earth; 14 causeth an image to be made of the former beast, 15 and that men should worship it, 16 and receive his mark.

<sup>a</sup> AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

2<sup>b</sup> And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3<sup>c</sup> And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

4<sup>d</sup> And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5<sup>e</sup> And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7<sup>f</sup> And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8<sup>g</sup> And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

9<sup>h</sup> If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10<sup>i</sup> He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11<sup>k</sup> And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12<sup>l</sup> And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13<sup>m</sup> And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14<sup>n</sup> And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16<sup>o</sup> And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17<sup>p</sup> And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18<sup>q</sup> Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is six hundred threescore and six.

2 The angels pour out their vials full of wrath: 6 the plagues that follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh as a thief. Blessed are they that watch.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go, your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 <sup>a</sup> And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3, 4 A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand, sitteth upon the beast, 5 which is great Babylon the mother of all abominations. 9 The interpretation of the seven heads, 12 and the ten horns. 14 The victory of the Lamb. 16 The punishment of the whore.

AND there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

2 <sup>b</sup> With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 <sup>c</sup> So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 <sup>d</sup> And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 <sup>e</sup> And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 <sup>f</sup> And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of this woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 <sup>g</sup> The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world,) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 <sup>h</sup> And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 <sup>i</sup> And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 <sup>k</sup> These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 <sup>l</sup> And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 <sup>m</sup> And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

6 <sup>f</sup> And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia; for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 <sup>g</sup> Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 <sup>h</sup> And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 <sup>i</sup> And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 <sup>k</sup> And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 <sup>s</sup> And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

C H A P. XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 10 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof: 23 She needeth no sun, the glory of God is her light: 24 The kings of the earth bring their riches unto her.

AND I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write; for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst, of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth four-square, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, || twelve thousand furlongs. The length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper; and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl; and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

2346.	XI. 10,	Eber born.		Genesis XIII.	17.
2311.	12,
2281.	14,

Before CHRIST 1913.	Genesis	Bera the king of Sodom, with four other kings, rebel against Chedorlaomer, but are overcome by him in the valley of Siddim. Lot being taken prisoner, Abram rescueth him, slayeth Chedorlaomer and his confederates, and in his return is blessed by Melchisedec king of Salem, and priest of God, to whom Abram gives tithe. The rest of the spoils, his partners having had their portions, he restoreth to the king of Sodom.	Before CHRIST 1745.	Genesis	Rachel, having been long barren, at length beareth Joseph: Jacob, desiring to depart, is persuaded by Laban to serve six years more for some part of his flock.
	XIV. 4.			XXX.	23.
	XIV. 19, 20.		1739.	XXXI.	Jacob, after he had been twenty years in Mesopotamia, sets forward on his journey homewards, without acquainting his father or his brothers-in-law. Rachel stealth her father's gods, and is pursued by Laban. Jacob by his prudence is reconciled to his brother Esau. He wrestleth with an angel at Peniel, and is called Israel.
	XV. 2.	Abram complaineth for want of an heir: God promiseth him a son, and a multiplying of his seed. Canaan is promised again, and confirmed by a sign.		XXXII.	About this time Dinah, Jacob's daughter, is deflowered by Sichem the son of Hamor. Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, revenge their sister's quarrel, by putting all the males of Sichem to the sword; for which thing Jacob reproveth them.
1911.	XVI. 1, 2.	Sarai, being barren, giveth Hagar her handmaid to Abram.		XXXIV.	Rachel is delivered of Benjamin on the way betwixt Beth-el, or Beth-lehem, and Ephrath, and dies in childbed. Some think that Job lived about this time.
1910.	15.	Ishmael, Hagar's son, born.		XXXV	Judah lieth with Tamar his daughter-in-law in disguise.
1908.	XI. 13.	Arphaxad, the third from Noah, dieth.		16.	Joseph is hated by his brethren, and is sold to merchantmen, Ishmaelites and Midianites, who carry him into Egypt, where he is sold to Potiphar an officer of Pharaoh, and by him made overseer of his house.
1897.	XVII. 5.	God maketh a covenant with Abram, and in token of a greater blessing changeth his name into Abraham. As a seal of this covenant, circumcision is ordained. Sarai her name also is changed into Sarah, and she is blessed. God promiseth them a son, and commandeth that his name be called Isaac; in him God promiseth to establish his covenant.	1729.	XXXVIII	Joseph resisteth the temptations of his master's wife: he is falsely accused by her, and cast into prison. He interpreteth the dreams of Pharaoh's butler and baker, which come to pass according to his interpretation.
	XVIII.	Abraham entertaineth three angels, who renew the promise to him of having a son. God revealeth to Abraham the destruction of Sodom, with whom Abraham intercedes for Lot and his family. See Gen. xix. 29.		16.	Isaac dieth, aged 180 years, and is buried by his sons, Jacob and Esau.
	XIX.	Lot is commanded, for the preservation of himself and his family, to get out of Sodom, and to flee to the mountain; but by much entreaty he obtaineth leave to go into Zoar. Sodom, Gomorrah, and all the cities in the vale of Siddim, with all the inhabitants of them, are for the most horrible sins destroyed by fire and brimstone from heaven. The Dead Sea remains a monument thereof unto this day. Lot's wife, for looking back upon Sodom, contrary to God's command, is turned into a pillar of salt; and Lot himself, fearing to continue at Zoar, leaves the plain country, and betakes himself to the mountain, carrying his two daughters with him.	1718.	XXXIX.	Joseph interpreteth Pharaoh's two dreams; he giveth Pharaoh counsel, and is made governor of the whole land of Egypt.
		Isaac born in the 100th year of Abraham's age.		XL.	Here begin the seven years of plenty in the land of Egypt. About this time Manasseh and Ephraim, Joseph's two sons, are born of Asenath, the daughter of Potiphar, priest of On.
1996.	XXI. 2.	Not long after, to Lot are born Moab and Ammon, his sons at the same time, and his grandsons.		XXV.	Here begin the seven years of famine.
1892.	XXI. 9.	Hagar and Ishmael, at Sarah's request, are cast forth.	1716.	XXV.	Jacob sendeth his ten sons to buy corn in Egypt; they are imprisoned by Joseph for spies; but are set at liberty on condition of bringing Benjamin; and Simeon is kept as a pledge.
1878.	XI. 15.	Salah, the fourth from Noah, dieth.	1715.	XXV.	Jacob is with much difficulty persuaded to send Benjamin. Joseph maketh himself known to his brethren, and sendeth for his father by command from Pharaoh.
1871.	XXII.	God tempteth Abraham to offer Isaac. Abraham giveth proof of his faith and obedience.		28.	Jacob, having offered sacrifice to God for that his son Joseph is yet alive, goes with all his family into Egypt in the third year of the famine, and 130th year of his age. He is seated in the land of Goshen.
1859.	XXIII.	Sarah dieth at Hebron in Canaan, in the 127th year of her age.		XXI. 25,	Joseph getteth all the money, lands, and cattle, of the Egyptians for bread; only the lands belonging to the priests he buyeth not.
1856.	XXIV.	Isaac marrieth Rebekah the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Nahor, in the 40th year of his age.		47,	Jacob adopteth Ephraim and Manasseh, and blesseth them, and all his sons: prophesieth the descent of the Messiah from Judah, and dieth, aged 147 years; seventeen whereof he lived in Egypt. He is with great pomp carried into Canaan, and buried in the sepulchre of his father.
1946.	XI. 11.	Shem, the son of Noah, dieth.		50,	Joseph on his death-bed prophesieth unto his brethren their return to Canaan; takes an oath of them to carry his bones out of Egypt, and dieth, aged 110 years.
1837.	XXV.	Jacob and Esau born in the 60th year of their father Isaac's age.			The book of Genesis endeth in the death of Joseph, containing the history of 2369 years: next to which in order of time the book of Job follows, written (as it is generally believed) by Moses.
1821.	XXV. 7.	Abraham dieth, aged 175 years.	1708.	XLII. 1,	Levi dieth in Egypt, aged 137 years; he was grandfather to Moses and Aaron.
1817.	XI. 17.	Heber, the fifth from Noah, dieth: from him Abraham and his posterity were called Hebrews. Gen. xiv. 13.	1707.	2, 3.	Here begins the bondage of the children of Israel, when a king rose up in Egypt, who knew not Joseph.
1796.	XXVI.	Esau, aged forty years, marrieth Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.		XLIII.	Aaron born three years before his brother Moses, 83 years before the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.
1773.	XXV. 17.	Ishmael dieth, aged 137 years.		XLV.	Pharaoh having in vain commanded the Hebrew
1760.	XXVII.	Jacob by his mother's instruction obtaineth the blessing from Isaac his father, which was designed for Esau. Upon which he is forced to flee into Mesopotamia, to shun his brother's rage. Upon the way are foretold unto him in a vision the blessings of his posterity. At length he cometh to his uncle Laban's house, and covenanteth to serve him seven years for his daughter Rachel, but Laban deceiveth him with Leah; the marriage week being completed, Rachel also is given him to wife, upon condition of serving seven years more.	1706. Before CHRIST 1491.		builds an altar at the foot of the mountain, and sets up 12 statues, according to the 12 tribes of Israel, and sends 12 young men of the first-born, (whom the Lord hath consecrated to himself as ministers of those holy things, before the Levitical Priesthood was ordained) which offer sacrifice, first for sin, and then for thanksgiving, to the Lord: and when Moses had read the Book of the Covenant, he takes the blood of the calves and goats so offered, and with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, sprinkles the book therewith, and all the people, or those 12 statues representing them; and so performs a solemn Covenant between God and his people.
	Exodus II. 1, 5,	Moses is born, who, being hid in the flags by the river's side, is found by Pharaoh's daughter; and becomes her adopted son.			Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and 70 Men of the elders of Israel, go up into the mount, and there behold the glory of God: the rest returning, Moses with his servant Joshua abides there still, and waits six days, and upon the seventh day God speaks unto him, and there he continues 40 days and 40 nights (reckoning those six days which he waited for the appearance of the Lord) eating no meat all that while, nor drinking water; ( Deut. ix. 9. ) where he receives God's command touching the frame of the tabernacle, the Priests' garments, their consecration, sacrifices, and other things comprised in this and the six following Chapters.
1531.	11.	Moses, in the 40th year of his age, having slain an Egyptian, whom he saw contending with an Hebrew, fleeth into Midian, where he marrieth Zipporah the daughter of Reuel, or Jethro, a priest, and liveth with him forty years.			At the end of 40 days God gives Moses the two tables of the Law in stone, made by God's own hand, and written with his own finger; bidding him withal quickly to get him down, for that the people had already made to themselves a molten calf to worship.
1530.	Josh. XIV. 7, 10.	Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, born.		XXV. &c. XXXI. 18.	Moses by prayer pacifieth God, and goes down from the mount, and seeing the people keeping a festival in honour of their idol in the camp, he breaks the tables of the law at the foot of the mount: for which the Jews keep a solemn fast unto this day.
1491	Ex. III. 1, 2, &c. V.	Whilst Moses keeps his father-in-law's sheep at mount Horeb, God appeareth to him in a burning bush, and sendeth him to deliver Israel.			20, 28.	Moses, having burnt and defaced the idol, puts 3000 of the idolaters to death by the hands of the Levites.
	VII. 7.	Moses and Aaron having declared to Pharaoh the message on which they are sent unto him from God, are charged by him as heads of a mutiny, and sent away with many bad words; and more grievous labours are forthwith laid upon the Israelites.			XXXIV.	God commands Moses to frame new Tables of stone, and to bring them with him into the mount: Moses brings them the next morning, and while he stands in the cleft of a rock, God passeth by, and sheweth him a glimpse of his glory.
	Psalm LXXXVIII CV.	Moses being now 60, and Aaron 83 years of age, urged thereunto by God, return again unto Pharaoh, where the magicians by their sorcery, imitating the miracles of Aaron's rod turned into a serpent, make Pharaoh more obstinate than he was before. Wherefore God by the hand of Moses lays ten plagues upon the Egyptians.			10.	God renews his Covenant with his people, and upon certain conditions gives them his laws again.
	Exodus XII. 11, 29, 41.	U PON the fourteenth day of the first month, (which was May the fourth, upon Monday with us) in the evening, the passover is instituted. Upon the fifteenth of the same month, at midnight, the first-born of Egypt being all slain, Pharaoh and his servants make haste to send away the Israelites; and they, the self-same day wherein they were let go out of bondage, being the complete term of 430 years from the first pilgrimage of their ancestors, reckoning from Abraham's departure out of Charran, take their journey, and march away, being 600,000 men, besides children, and come to Ramesses, from whence by several encampings they come to the Red Sea, the Lord conducting them in a pillar of a cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. They carry Joseph's bones with them.	1490.	XXXIX.		In the first six months of this year, the tabernacle, the ark of the covenant, the altar, the table of shew-bread, the priests' garments, the holy ointments, the candlestick, and other utensils and vessels belonging to the sacrifices, are finished in the desert at mount Sinai, and are brought unto Moses.
	Numb. XXXIII.	At the Red Sea Pharaoh with his host overtakes them; Moses divides the waters with his rod, and the children of Israel pass through on dry ground unto the desert of Etham; whom, when Pharaoh and his army would needs follow, they are all overwhelmed by the waters coming together at the dawning of the day, whereby the Israelites are wholly freed from the bondage of the Egyptians; whose carcasses when they see floating all the sea over, and cast upon the shore, they sing a song of praise and thanksgiving unto God.			XL.	The tabernacle is set up and anointed with holy oil. Aaron and his sons are consecrated for the priesthood.
	Exodus XIV.	At the Red Sea Pharaoh with his host overtakes them; Moses divides the waters with his rod, and the children of Israel pass through on dry ground unto the desert of Etham; whom, when Pharaoh and his army would needs follow, they are all overwhelmed by the waters coming together at the dawning of the day, whereby the Israelites are wholly freed from the bondage of the Egyptians; whose carcasses when they see floating all the sea over, and cast upon the shore, they sing a song of praise and thanksgiving unto God.			Lev. X.	Nadab and Abihu, for offering strange fire, are struck dead in the place by fire from heaven.
	XV.	Upon the fifteenth of the second month, (our June the 4th, being Thursday ) the Israelites come to the wilderness of Zin, which lieth between Elyma and Sinai, where, for want of food, they murmur against God and their leaders: about the even-tide God sends them quails, and the next morning rains upon them manna from heaven; and upon that kind of bread they lived afterward by the space of forty years, even till they came to the borders of the land of promise. An omer of it is preserved for a memorial.			Numb. VII.	The princes of the tribes present their offerings towards the dedication of the tabernacle. God speaketh to Moses from the mercy-seat.
	XVI.	Upon the fifteenth of the second month, (our June the 4th, being Thursday ) the Israelites come to the wilderness of Zin, which lieth between Elyma and Sinai, where, for want of food, they murmur against God and their leaders: about the even-tide God sends them quails, and the next morning rains upon them manna from heaven; and upon that kind of bread they lived afterward by the space of forty years, even till they came to the borders of the land of promise. An omer of it is preserved for a memorial.			IX.	The second passover is instituted.
	XVII. 1,	At Rephidim, which was the eleventh place of their encamping, the people murmur for want of water: Moses gives them water by striking the hard rock in Horeb with his rod.			X. 29.	Jethro, who is also called Hobab, brings his daughter Zipporah, with her two sons, Gershom and Eliezer, which were left with him, to his son-in-law Moses: and having congratulated his and the whole people of Israel's deliverance out of bondage, he openly declares his faith and devotion towards the true God. By his advice Moses imparts the government of the people to some others, and ordains magistrates for the deciding of lesser causes.
	8, 9, &c.	The Amalekites falling upon the rear of the Israelites are discomfited by Joshua, whilst Moses holds up his hands to God in prayer.			Exodus XVIII.	Moses complains to God of the over great burden of his government; God, to ease him of his charge, gives him for assistance the court of 70 Elders.
	XX.	God publisheth his Law contained in the Ten Commandments with a terrible voice from mount Sinai.			XI.	The people lust for flesh. God gives them quails in wrath; and sends withal a most grievous plague among them.
	XXI.	The people being in great fear, God gives them sundry other laws, all which being written in the book of the Covenant, Moses proposeth them to the people: which done, rising early in the morning, he			XII.	God rebukes the sedition of Miriam and Aaron and maintaineth Moses his right.
	XXII. &c.				XIII.	From the wilderness of Paran, near Kadesh-barnea, 12 men are sent (among whom are Caleb

Returning, they bring with them a branch of a vine, with a cluster of grapes upon it; ten of the twelve so sent speak ill of the country, declare it barren, and magnify the cities for their strength, and the giantly stature of the inhabitants.	Before CHRIST 1451.		tence of passing through his country, they should possess themselves of his whole kingdom; takes counsel with the princes of the Midianites his neighbours, and sends for Balaam a soothsayer out of Mesopotamia to come and curse the Israelites, promising him great rewards for his labour; purposing afterward to make war upon them.
	XIV.	The people, terrified with this relation, are about to return into Egypt, from which Caleb and Joshua endeavouring to dissuade them are like to be stoned. At this God is so provoked, that he threatens to destroy them; but is prevailed upon by Moses his prayers to spare them. Nevertheless he denounceth that all who are now 20 years old and upward (except Caleb and Joshua) shall die in the wilderness. The men who raised the evil report are all destroyed by sudden death. Some endeavouring to enter upon the promised land, contrary to the command of God, are smitten by the Amalekites and Canaanites.		Joshua XXIV. 9.	Balaam, forewarned of God, refuseth at first to come; but being sent for a second time, he importuneth God to let him go, and goes with a purpose indeed to curse Israel; but God, offended thereat, makes the dumb ass of this wizard, on which he rode, speaking in a man's voice, to reprove his folly.
1409.	Deut. I. 46.	In this place, viz. Kadesh-barnea, the Israelites continue many days; but that in some places they continued many years, appeareth, for that in the space of 37 years there are but 17 encampings mentioned.		Numb. XXII. 7, 35.	Balaam twice offers sacrifice, and would fain have cursed Israel, to gratify Balak therein; but being forced thereto by the Spirit of God, instead of cursing, he blest them altogether; foretelling what felicity attended them, and what calamities should befall their enemies.
	Numb. XXXIII.	To their long continuance in Kadesh, and the encampings from thence, all that we find delivered in the xvth and four next ensuing chapters of Numbers , seems to refer; as how Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, for raising a mutiny against Moses and Aaron, were swallowed alive into the earth, and 250 of their associates; and how the people, murmuring against Moses and Aaron for the calamity which had befallen their brethren, were destroyed by God to the number of 14,700 men; and how twelve rods being brought by 12 princes, and laid in the sanctuary, Aaron's rod only budded, and brought forth almonds, and was laid up before the ark, for a memorial to those who should afterward be given to rebellion.		2 Pet. By his advice the women of Moab and Midian are set on work to turn the Israelites away to idolatry. Wherefore God commands Moses first to take all the ringleaders of this disorder, and to hang them up before the sun, and then gives order to the judges to put to death all such as had joined themselves to Baal-peor. Last of all, God sends a plague upon the people, whereof die 23,000 men in one day: which added to them which were hanged and killed with the sword, amount in all to 24,000.
1471.	XVI.	In these 37 years the Israelites by 17 encampings, having compassed the hill country of Seir and Idom, they come to the wilderness of Zin in the first month of the 40th year after their departure out of Egypt.		Rev. II. 14. 1 Cor. X. 8. Numb. XXV. Psalm CVI. 30. Numb. XXV. 13, 17. XXVI.	Phinehas the son of Eleazar, by killing Zimri, the chief of his father's family, and Cozbi the daughter of Zur, a prince of the Midianites, appeaseth the wrath of God, and the plague ceaseth. God therefore setteth the high priesthood for ever upon the house of Phinehas, and commands that war be made upon the Midianites.
	XVII.	Here Miriam, the sister of Moses and Aaron, dieth.		XXVII. 1, 2,	Moses and Eleazar, by God's command, in the plain of Moab, near unto Jordan, over against Jericho, number the people from twenty years old and upwards, and find them to be 601,730 men, besides the Levites, whose number, reckoning them from one month old and upwards, comes to 22,000; and then Moses receives command for the parting the land of promise among the Israelites.
1452.	XX.	The people again for want of water murmur against Moses and Aaron, whom when God had commanded to call water out of the rock only by speaking to it, Moses, being moved in his mind through impatience and diffidence of the thing, speaks something, whatever it was, unadvisedly with his lips, and strikes the rock thrice with Aaron's rod, and thereby draws water from it; but for transgressing God's command, they are both debarred from entering into the land of Canaan.		12, 23. Deut. III. 26, 27, 28. Numb. XXXI.	The daughters of Zelophehad have their father's land parted among them, for want of issue male; this occasions the law for succession in heritages to be made.
	1,	In the fifth month of this year Aaron dieth at Mosera, on the top of Mount Hor, at the age of 123 years, leaving his son Eleazar his successor in the high priesthood.		12, 23. Deut. III. 26, 27, 28. Numb. XXXI.	God signifies to Moses that he shall die, and Joshua is thereupon declared to be his successor; upon whom Moses lays his hands, and gives him instructions. Several laws are made.
	2,	The people murmuring are plagued with fiery serpents, whereof many die; upon their repentance God commands that a brazen serpent be made and lifted up upon a pole, that as many as look on it may live.		Joshua XIII. 21, 22.	Twelve thousand of the Israelites under the command of Phinehas vanquish the Midianites, and put to the sword all the males among them, with their five princes, and among them Zur, the father of Cozbi, and Balaam the wizard; but they save the women alive; at which Moses is wroth, and commands that every male child, and all the women, except such as be virgins, be killed.
	12,	About the latter end of this year, all those who at Kadesh-barnea mutinied against God, being wholly extinct and dead, the Israelites pass over Zared, and come to the borders of Moab at Ar, and at length they arrive at Bamoth, a valley in the country of the Moabites, and pitch at mount Pisgah.		Numb. XXXII. Deut. III. Joshua X II. & XXII.	The lands which belonged to Sihon and Og, namely, all from the river Arnon to mount Hermon, Moses divides and gives to the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh; so that their possessions lay on this side Jordan; nevertheless, they assist the rest of the tribes in all their wars, till they have subdued the Canaanites, and possessed the promised land.
	23, 28.	Sihon king of the Amorites, refusing them passage through his country, is slain, and the Israelites possess his land.		Deut. XXVII.	Moses commands the people, that in their passage over Jordan they shall set up great stones, and engrave the Ten Commandments on them, with the form of blessing upon mount Gerizim, and of cursing on mount Ebal; exhorting them to observe the law of God, by setting before their eyes the benefits that would ensue thereon.
	XXI. 5, 9. John III. 14. 1 Cor. X. 9. Numb. XXI.	Og the king of Bashan, coming out against Israel, is destroyed with all his people, not one left alive, and his country possessed by the Israelites. mise of pardon and deliverance, if at any time, having broken it, they shall repent them of their sin; and tells them further, that God had therefore thus declared his will unto them, to the end that none hereafter offending shall pretend ignorance.

Moses, having written this law, delivers it to the priests the sons of Levi, and the elders of the people, to be kept; the same day also he writes his most excellent song, and teaches the same to the children of Israel to be sung; and having finished the book of the law, he takes order to have it laid up in the side of the ark.

Moses now drawing near to his end, blesseth every tribe in particular by way of prophecy, save only the tribe of Simeon.

In the 12th month of this year he goes up to mount Nebo, and from thence beholds the land of promise, and there dieth, aged 120 years; the body of Moses God translates out of the place where he died into a valley of the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor, and there burieth it; nor doth any man know the place where he laid it unto this day. The Israelites mourn for him 30 days.

Here ends the Pentateuch, or five books of Moses, containing the history of 2552 years and an half, from the beginning of the world; and the book of Joshua begins with the forty-first year after the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

Joshua, being confirmed in his government by God, sends forth spies from Shittim to the city of Jericho, who, being harboured by Rahab, are privily sent away, when search is made for them.

Upon the tenth day of the first month, (April 30) to wit, the same day that the Paschal Lamb was to be chosen out of the flock, the Israelites under the conduct of Joshua, a type of Jesus Christ, go up out of the river Jordan into the promised land of Canaan, a type of a more heavenly country. They pass through the river on dry ground, the waters being for the present divided; for a memorial of which miraculous passage, Joshua sets up 12 stones in the very channel of Jordan, and taking 12 other stones out of the midst thereof sets them up at Gilgal, the place where they next encamp.

The day following Joshua renews the use of circumcision, which had been omitted 40 years.

Upon the 14th day of the same month, in the evening, the Israelites celebrate their first passover in the land of Canaan.

Next day after the passover manna ceaseth.

Our Lord Jesus, Captain of his Father's host, appears to Joshua, the typical Jesus, before Jericho, with a drawn sword in his hand, and promiseth there to defend his people.

Jericho, the ark of the Lord having been carried round about it, is taken the seventh day, the walls thereof falling down at the sound of the priests' trumpets; all the inhabitants are put to the sword, except Rahab and her family.

The Israelites besiege Ai, and are smitten by their enemies, God having abandoned them for sacrilege committed by Achan; Achan's sin being discovered by the casting of lots, and himself found guilty, he is stoned to death, and, together with his children and cattle, burned with fire. God being pacified hereby, Ai is taken by ambushment and utterly destroyed.

On mount Ebal, according to the law made, is an altar erected, and the Ten Commandments engraven on it; the blessings and cursings are repeated on mount Ebal and mount Gerizim, and the book of the law read in the ears of the people.

The kings of Canaan combine against Israel; only the Gibeonites craftily find a way to save their own lives by making a league with them; but are afterwards deputed to the servile offices of the house of God.

that Gibeon is fallen off from them, join their forces together and besiege it; but Joshua raiseth the siege, pursueth those five kings, and smiteth them as far as Azekah, the Lord in the meanwhile killing more with hailstones from heaven, than the Israelites with their swords. Joshua commands the sun to stand still over Gibeon, and the moon over the valley of Ajalon, by the space almost of one whole day, until the Israelites are fully avenged of their enemies. The five kings hide themselves in a cave at Makkedah; from whence they are brought forth, scornfully used, and hanged.

From the autumn of this year, wherein, after the failing of Manna, they began to till the ground, the rise of the sabbatical years is to be taken.

Joshua, now grown old, is commanded by God to divide all the land on the west of Jordan among the nine tribes remaining, and the other half-tribe of Manasseh. The Lord and his sacrifices are the inheritance of Levi.

The rest of the kings, with whom Joshua had waged war for six years, resolve to set upon him with united forces; but Joshua comes upon them unawares, slays them, and possesseth their countries.

Joshua now roots out those giants, the Anakims, with their cities, out of the hill-countries, out of Hebron, Debir, and Anab, and generally out of all the mountains of Judah and all Israel. And having gotten the whole land into his hands, he divides it among the children of Israel according to their tribes; and the land rested from war.

The first sabbatical year, or year of rest; from hence the year of Jubilee, or every fifty years' space, is to be reckoned.

The tabernacle is set up at Shiloh, (thought to be the same with Salem,) where it continued 328 years.

The Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, with a blessing are sent home to their possessions on the other side of Jordan.

Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth 110 years old.

After the decease of Joshua, and the elders who outlived him, and who remembered the wonders which God had wrought for Israel, there succeeds a generation of men which forget God, and mingle themselves with the Canaanites by marriage, and worship their idols. In this time of anarchy and confusion, when every man did that which seemed right in his own eyes, all those disorders were committed, which are reported in the five last chapters of the Book of Judges: to wit, the idolatry of Micah, and the children of Dan; the war of the Benjamites, and the cause thereof. God, being highly provoked, gives them up into the hands of Cushan king of Mesopotamia; which first calamity of theirs holds them but eight years.

Othniel, the son of Kenaz, and son-in-law to Caleb, stirred up by God as a judge and avenger of his people, defeats Cushan, and delivers the Israelites out of bondage; and the land rested forty years after the first rest which Joshua procured for them.

Othniel dying, the Israelites fell again to sin against God, and are given over into the hands of Eglon king of Moab, who, joining with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, overthrow the Israelites, and takes Jericho; and this second oppression continueth 18 years.

Ehud the son of Gera is raised up by God to be an avenger of his people; for feigning a message to Eglon, he runs him into the belly with his dagger; then getting away, he gathers all Israel into a body on mount Ephraim, and slays 10,000 of the most valiant men of Moab: and the land resteth 40 years after the former rest obtained by Othniel.

After him, Shamgar, the son of Anath, slayeth 600 Philistines with an ox-goad, and he also avengeth Israel.

The Israelites, after the death of Ehud, returning

	Judges	Deborah, the wife of Lapi-lath, a prophetess, who at this time judgeth Israel in mount Ephraim, and Barak of the tribe of Naphtali, being made captain of the host of Israel, in sight of Megiddo, overcome Sisera, captain of Jabin's army, whom Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite afterward kills in her own tent. For a memorial of which victory Deborah composeth a song: and the land resteth 40 years after the former rest obtained by Ehud.	1161.	13.	Abdon the Ephraimite succeeds Elon, and judgeth Israel 8 years.
	IV. 4.		1156.	1 Sam. 6.	Eli the high priest (in whom the high priesthood was translated from the family of Eleazar to Ithamar's) succeeds Abdon, and judgeth Israel 40 years. The Israelites again provoke the Lord to anger, and he delivers them into the hands of the Philistines. This sixth thralldom begins seven months after Eli's entering upon the government, and lasteth 40 years, even till seven months after his death, when the ark was brought back again.
1252.	V. 31.			IV. 18.	Samson the Nazarite, as an angel had foretold, is born at Zora.
1245.	VI.	The Israelites sinning again are delivered into the hands of the Midianites; which fourth thralldom lasteth 7 years. Hereupon they cry unto God for help, and are reproved by a prophet. Then Gideon the son of Joash, of Manasseh, is by an angel from God sent to deliver them. He first overturns the altar of Baal and burns his grove, and is called Jerubbaal. He out of 32,000 men, which came unto him, chooseth only (God so commanding) 300; but with them he puts to flight all the host of the Midianites, whom the Ephraimites afterward pursue, and slay their princes Oreb and Zeeb. Gideon having pacified the Ephraimites, who complain that they were not called to the battle at first, passeth the river Jordan, and defeats the remainder of the Midianitish army; he chastiseth also the men of Succoth and Penueh, who had refused him victuals in his journey; and slays the two kings of the Midianites, Zebah and Zalmunna. After which great victories the Israelites offering to settle the kingdom upon him and his posterity, he refuseth it; but receiving their golden ear-rings, he makes thereof an ephod, which afterward proves an occasion of idolatry. The Midianites being thus vanquished, the land enjoys rest 40 years, after the former rest restored to them by Deborah and Barak.	1155.	24.	Whilst Eli the high priest executeth the office of a judge in civil causes under the Philistines, Samson takes an occasion to quarrel with them, by marrying a woman of Timnah; for having on the day of his betrothing propounded a riddle to the Philistines, and laid a wager, his wife tells them the meaning of it: enraged hereat, he goes and slays 30 men of Askelon, and gives them the suits of raiment which he had stripped off their bodies, in performance of the wager which he had lost, and returns home to his father.
	VII.		1137.	XIV. 4.	Samson again in harvest-time goes to present his wife with a kid at her father's house, but finds her given away in marriage to another man; Samson resolves to be revenged; he catches 300 foxes, and tying fire-brands to their tails, turns them all into the corn-fields of the Philistines, and into their vineyards, and olive-gardens, and sets them all on fire. The Philistines take Samson's wife and father-in-law, and burn them; Samson in revenge slays a great multitude of them, and sits down upon the rock Etam, from whence being taken by 3000 of the Jews, and by them delivered into the hands of the Philistines, he slays of them a thousand men with the jaw-bone of an ass; in which place he is miraculously refreshed, when thirsty and ready to faint.
	VIII.		1136.	Judges XV.	Samson is betrayed by Delilah his concubine, bereaved of the hair of his Nazariteship, and delivered to the Philistines; who put out his eyes, and bind him with chains of brass. The Philistines gather together to offer sacrifice to Dagon their god, and Samson is brought to make them sport; whose hair being grown, and his strength in a great measure restored, he takes hold of the two chief pillars whereon the house stood (wherein were the princes of the Philistines, and a great multitude of people) and pulls down the house, killing more men at his death, than he did in all his life-time. So he died, having judged Israel in the days of the Philistines 20 years.
1236.	33.	Gideon dieth, and the Israelites, falling back again to idolatry, worship Baal-berith their god.	1117.	XVI.	The Israelites take up arms against the Philistines, but with very ill success, for they lose 4000 men in one battle. Then they send for the ark of the covenant from Shiloh, and cause it to be brought into the camp. The Philistines, seeing now all lie at stake, encourage one another to behave themselves like men that day; and so falling on, they slay of the Israelites 30,000 men. The ark of God is taken, and Hophni and Phinehas, priests, and sons of Eli, are slain. Of all which when tidings are brought to old Eli, frightened thereat, he falls from his chair and breaks his neck, in the 98th year of his age.
	IX. 1, 2, &c.	Abimelech the son of Gideon (begotten upon his concubine) purposing to get to himself the kingdom which his father had refused, slayeth 70 of his brothers all upon one stone; and having by the help of the Shechemites got to be made king, Jotham the youngest son of Gideon, who only escaped Abimelech's fury, from the top of mount Gerizim expostulates with them the wrong they had done to his father's house; and by way of a parable foretells their ruin: which done, he flies, and dwells quietly in Beer.	1116.	1 Sam. IV.	The Philistines, having brought the ark into Ashdod, set it in the house of Dagon their god. But when Dagon had been found two several times fallen grovelling before it, and broken in pieces, and the inhabitants of the place sorely plagued, they remove it from thence to Gath, and from thence to Ekron. But the same plagues and judgments following wherever it went, after 7 months, by the advice of their priests, they send home the ark again with presents and gifts into the land of the Israelites, and it is brought to Beth-shemesh, where 50,070 men are smitten for looking into the ark. From hence it is carried to the house of Abinadab in Kirjath-jearim, who sanctifieth his son Eleazar to keep it.

1096.	I Sam. VII. 13.	After 20 years the Israelites, by Samuel's persuasion, solemnly repent at Mizpeh, and, upon their conversion, God by thunder from heaven delivers them from the invasion of the Philistines, who are subdued, the hand of the Lord being against them all the days of Samuel.	1048.	IV. 2.	He comes to David, and is kindly received: returning, he is treacherously murdered by Joab David much laments his untimely death, and buries him at Hebron.
1095.	VIII.	Samuel, being grown old, takes for his assistance in the government his sons; by whose ill management of affairs, the Israelites require a king to be given them: whereupon God gives them a king in his wrath, to wit, Saul the son of Kish, after Samuel had judged Israel 21 years. Saul is privately anointed by Samuel, and afterward publicly proclaimed king at Mizpeh. About a month after Jabesh-gilead is besieged by Nahash king of the Ammonites, and the siege raised by Saul: whereupon the whole congregation of Israel, coming together at Gilgal, again proclaim Saul king.	1047.	V.	Baanah and Rechab murder their lord and master Ishbosheth, as he lieth resting himself upon his bed. They bring his head to David, who in detestation of their treason causeth them immediately to be put to death.

The ark of the covenant, which in the first sabbatical year was brought from Gidgal to Shiloh, is this year, being also a sabbatical year, brought from Kirjath-jearim out of the house of Abinadab, and placed at Zion; 30,000 choice men of Israel attending it, and singing the 68th Psalm.
1063.	XVI. 11.	God rejects Saul, and sends Samuel to Beth-lehem, there to anoint David king, whom Saul ever after extremely persecuteth.	1044.	2 Sam. VII.	David now-dwelling in his house of cedar, which he had built, and living in a full and perfect peace, imparteth to Nathan the prophet his purpose of building a house for God; but is answered from God, that this was a work which should be done, not by him, because he was a man of blood, and trained up in war: but by his son Solomon, a man of peace, which should be born unto him. The time which passeth from hence till the birth of Solomon is spent in wars: wherein David subdued the Philistines, Edomites, Amalekites, Moabites, and Syrians, and extends his kingdom to the utmost bound of that land which had been promised to the seed of Abraham, and never possessed by any other king of Israel.
	XVIII.	Yet Jonathan, Saul's son, loveth him, and oftentimes rescueth him from Saul's cruelty.		1 Chron. XVII.	At the end of this year Joab, going against the Ammonites, besiegeth the city of Ammon, whilst David is at Hebron.

1060.	XXVII.	David, fearing he may some time or other fall into the hands of Saul, flies to Gath unto king Achish, carrying with him 600 men; and having obtained of him the town of Ziklag to dwell in, he continueth one year and four months in the land of the Philistines: from whence he invadeth the countries of the Geshurites, Gezrites, and Amalekites, and puts to the sword all, both men and women, not leaving one alive to carry the news thereof to king Achish.	1044.	2 Sam. VIII.	The child so gotten in adultery is convicted by Nathan the prophet; he repents; in testimony whereof David singeth the 51st Psalm. The child dieth.
1056.		Achish, proposing to make war upon the Israelites, takes David along with him in that expedition, to whom, whilst he is upon his march with his 600 men, repair a great many others of the tribe of Manasseh, and join with him.	1035.	1 Chron. XX.	Bathsheba becomes now David's wife, and he begetteth by her a son, unto whom, as unto one who should be a man of peace, God gives the name of Solomon; and, as to one beloved of the Lord, the name of Jedidiah.
1055.	XXVIII. 1 Chron. XII.	Saul, seeing the army of the Philistines, is in great fear, and (Samuel being now dead) goes to En-dor to consult with a witch there; the woman raiseth an apparition of Samuel, and Saul receives from it that dreadful doom, The Lord will deliver Israel, together with thyself, into the hands of the Philistines.	1034.	2 Sam. XII.	Amnon, David's eldest son, defloureth his sister Tamar.
	XXIX.	The princes of the Philistines growing jealous of David, he and his company early the next morning leave the army, and return to Ziklag.	1033.	25.	Absalom avengeth his sister Tamar, and killeth his brother Amnon; for which thing he fleeth to Geshur in Syria, where he continues three years with king Talmi, his grandfather by the mother's side.
	XXXI.	The armies join battle; and the Israelites are defeated; the three sons of Saul are slain, and he himself falls on his own sword.	1032.	2 Sam. XIII.	After three years exile he returns to Jerusalem, where he continues two years, before the king his father admits him into his presence, and is reconciled to him.
1054.	I Sam. XXVIII.	Three days after an Amalekite brings Saul's crown, and the bracelet that was upon his arm, and presents them to David, professing that, finding him fallen upon his sword, he had killed him outright, and taken the crown from off his head: whereupon David causeth him to be put to death for stretching forth his hand to slay the Lord's anointed, and lamenteth the death of Saul and Jonathan his son in a funeral song. David, having asked counsel of God, goes up to Hebron with those that are about him, where he is anointed king by the men of Judah, his own tribe, in the 30th year of his age; and there he reigns seven years and six months.	1030.	1, 23. The next year following, under pretence of a vow, he obtaineth leave to go to Hebron, where, by Ahithophel's counsel, he breaks out into open rebellion, and forceth his father to fly from Jerusalem.
	III.	After two years there arise frequent and mortal skirmishes between a party of men on David's side, headed by Joab, David's nephew, and another party on Ishbosheth's side, whereof Abner is chief; but the former still grows stronger and stronger.	1025.	XV.	Ahithophel, because his counsel in all matters is not followed by Absalom, hangs himself.
1053.	12.	Abner, afflicted by Ishbosheth, revolteth to David, and deals with the men of Israel to transfer the whole kingdom unto him, and this in the hearing of the Philistines.	1024.	XXIV.	Absalom having lost 20,000 men, fleeth, and a bough of an oak catching hold of him, he there hangs, and is run through by Joab.
1048.	III. 6,		1017.	XXIV.	David, tempted by Satan, commandeth Joab to number the people: God, offended thereat, sends a prophet to put three plagues to his choice, viz. the famine, the pestilence, and the sword.

Adonijah, seeing his father thus declining, by the assistance of Joab and Abiathar, makes himself king; which David understanding, he presently commands Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, with other great men, to anoint Solomon king. Adonijah hearing this, betakes himself to the sanctuary, and is pardoned.	953.	1 Kings XV.	Abijam the son of Rehoboam succeeds his father in the kingdom of Judah, and reigns three years.

At this time lived the prophets Jehu, Hanani, and Azarias.
1235.	2 Chron. V. VI. VII. 1 Kings XI. Chron. IX. 1 Kings XII. He reigned 40 years. The Israelites assemble at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, Solomon's son, king over all Israel. The people by Jeroboam sue unto him for a removal of some grievances; to whom Rehoboam, by the advice of young men, returning an harsh answer, alienates the hearts of ten tribes from him, who make Jeroboam king over them, and fall at the same time from the house of David, and from the true worship of God.	951.	2 Chron. XIV.	Asa destroyeth idolatry, and, enjoying ten years of peace, strengthens his kingdom with forts and a standing army.
	25.	Jeroboam, in the beginning of his reign, repairs Shechem, destroyed by Abimelech 253 years before, and there dwells; afterward going over Jordan he builds Penuel, and at length makes Tirzah the seat of his kingdom. But fearing lest his new subjects, by going to Jerusalem to worship, may be induced to revolt from him, he deviseth a new form of religion, setting up two golden calves, the one at Beth-el, the other at Dan, for the seduced people to bow down unto.	941.	9. XV.	Zerah the Ethiopian, with an innumerable army, invadeth Judah: Asa overcomes him, sacrificeth to God of the spoil, and maketh a solemn covenant with God. He also deposes Maachah his grandmother, a great patroness of idolatry; bringeth into the temple those things which his father and himself had consecrated unto God, and enjoys a long peace.

		sacrificing to his calf at Beth-el, a prophet	898.	XXII.	Ahab in the seventeenth year of the reign of Jehoshaphat

Before CHRIST 898.	1 Kings XXII. 51. 2 Kings III. 1.  I. 17.	Jehoshaphat maketh his son Ahaziah his associate in the government of his kingdom. Jehoshaphat also maketh Jehoram his son co-partner with him; whence it is, that Jehoram the son of Ahab, who succeeded his brother Ahaziah in the kingdom of Israel, in the 18th year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, is said to have begun his reign in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat. Ahab having got Jehoshaphat to assist him in the siege of Ramoth-gilead, before he goes, he asketh counsel of 400 false prophets, who promise him victory and success; but by Jehoshaphat's advice Micaiah, a true prophet of God, is consulted, who foretells his overthrow; and according to his word Ahab is slain at Ramoth-gilead, and buried at Samaria. Ahab being dead, the Moabites revolt from Israel, who had continued in subjection ever since king David's days. Ahaziah king of Israel, lying ill of a fall, sends to consult Baal-zebub the god of Ekron concerning his recovery. Elijah the prophet meeteth the messenger, and telleth him Ahaziah shall surely die; whereupon two captains over fifty men apiece are sent to apprehend him, and bring him before the king; Elijah calleth for fire from heaven, and destroyeth both them and their companies. A third captain with his fifty men being sent, and behaving himself submissively, Elijah goes along with him; the prophet certifies the king that he shall not come down from his bed alive. So Ahaziah dieth, having governed (partly by himself, and partly together with his father) two years. Jehoram succeedeth his brother Ahaziah in the kingdom of Israel in the latter end of the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat, and reigneth twelve years. Elijah is taken up into heaven in a fiery chariot. Jehoshaphat grown old gives to his sons many gifts with fenced cities in Judea; but his eldest son Jehoram he now more absolutely investeth with the throne of the kingdom in the fifth year of Jehoram king of Israel. Jehoram now, by the death of his father, has the kingdom of Judah to himself, which he holds four years. He is no sooner settled in his throne, but he puts all his brethren to the sword, with many of the princes of Israel. At this time the Edomites, who ever since king David's time had lived in subjection to Judah, revolt, and (as it was foretold by Isaac) they forever shake off his yoke. Libnah also, a city of the priests in the tribe of Judah, falls off from him about this time. Jehoram following the counsel of his wicked wife Athaliah, the daughter of Ahab king of Israel, sets up in Judah, and even in Jerusalem itself, the idolatrous worship of Baal, and compels his subjects thereto; a letter which was left for him by Elijah the prophet comes to his hands, which reproves him, and denounces all those calamities and punishments which afterward befell him. Ahaziah succeeds his father in the kingdom of Judah (having had part of the government bestowed upon him the year before) in the 12th year of Jehoram king of Israel, and reigneth one year in Jerusalem. Jehoram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah, lead their armies to Ramoth-gilead against Hazael, who had newly succeeded Ben-hadad in the kingdom of Syria; Jehoram is dangerously wounded, and retires himself to Jezreel to be cured. In the meantime Elisha sendeth a young prophet with instructions to anoint Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, at Ramoth-gilead, king over Israel, and to open to him the will of God for the rooting out of the house of Ahab; who, being proclaimed king by the soldiers, marcheth straight to Jezreel, killeth Jehoram in the field of Naboth, and causeth Jezebel to be cast out at a window, where she is eaten by dogs. He despatcheth letters also to Samaria, and causeth seventy of Ahab's children	Before CHRIST 884.	IX.  X.  XI. 2 Chron. XXII. 10.  873. 2 Kings XI. 2 Chron. XXIII.  857. 2 Kings XII. 7. XIII. 1. Then taking with him Jehonadab the son of Rechab, he comes himself to Samaria, and destroys the whole family of Ahab, and all the priests of Baal. Nevertheless, having put down the worship of Baal, he departs not from the worship of Jeroboam's golden calves, but maintains that idolatry all the time of his reign, which was 28 years. Jehu proceeds farther, and executes the divine vengeance upon the idolatrous house of Judah; he pursues Ahaziah who fled towards Megiddo, and overtaking him at Gur, causeth him to be killed in his chariot. Going also to Samaria, he meeteth with 42 of Ahaziah's kinsmen, whom he causeth to be slain. Athaliah the daughter of Ahab, seeing her son Ahaziah dead, usurps the kingdom, destroying those that had right to the succession; but Jehosheba the daughter of king Jehoram, and wife to Jehoiada the high priest, takes Jehoash, being then an infant, and son to her brother Ahaziah, and hides him in the temple, and so saves him from that massacre which was made of the rest of the blood royal. Jehoiada the high priest brings out Jehoash, now seven years old, and anoints him king; causeth Athaliah to be slain, and restoreth the worship of the true God, destroying the house of Baal, and commanding the idolatrous priest Mattan to be killed before his altars. Jehoash, now beginning his reign in the seventh year of Jehu, reigneth 40 years in Jerusalem. Jehoash, in the 23d year of his reign, giveth order for the repair of the temple, committing the charge thereof to Jehoiada the high priest. Jehoahaz succeedeth his father Jehu in the kingdom of Israel, and reigneth 17 years; during all which time Hazael king of Syria oppresseth him, and exerciseth all those cruelties upon the Israelites, which Elisha the prophet had foretold. Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, is taken into the consorship of that kingdom by his father in the 27th year of Jehoash king of Judah, and reigneth 16 years. Zechariah, the son of Jehoiada the high priest, for reproving the people of Judah that fall to idolatry after the decease of Jehoiada, is stoned to death in the court of the house of the Lord by the commandment of king Jehoash, who the next year after is murdered by some of his servants, as he lay in his bed; and Amaziah his son succeedeth him. Jehoahaz dieth, and Jehoash his son succeedeth in the kingdom of Israel. Not long after his father's funeral he visits Elisha the prophet, then lying sick, and with many tears asketh counsel of him, who promiseth him victory over the Syrians. A dead man is brought to life by being laid in Elisha's grave. Jeroboam the second is this year taken into the consorship of the kingdom of Israel by his father Jehoash, going to war against the Syrians. This is gathered from Azariah king of Judah's beginning his reign in the 27th year of this Jeroboam. Amaziah king of Judah, growing proud upon a victory obtained against the Edomites this 14th year of his reign, provoketh Jehoash king of Israel to battle. Jehoash overcomes him, and takes him prisoner, breaks down 400 cubits of the wall of Jerusalem, and having spoiled the temple and the king's house of a vast treasure, returns to Samaria. Jehoash dies fifteen years before Amaziah, and Jeroboam the second, his son, reigneth in Samaria 41 years. Amaziah, finding a conspiracy against him at Jerusalem, flies to Lachish, where he is murdered, after whom comes his son Uzziah, or Azariah, in the 27th year of Jeroboam the second, and reigneth 52 years in Jerusalem. Now is held the 13th Jubilee under the two most flourishing kings; in whose times live sundry great prophets in both kingdoms; Isaiah and Joel in Judah; Jonas, Hosea, and Amos, in Israel.

The self-same night an angel of the Lord slays 185,000 men in the Assyrian army; and the next morning Sennacherib departeth, and returns to Nineveh; where not long after, whilst he is worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, he is slain by his own sons.

Josiah calling to him the elders of Judah and Jerusalem, with the priests and prophets, causeth the book of the law to be read over before all the people, and reneweth the covenant between God and his people; he burneth also dead men's bones upon the altar at Beth-el, as was foretold; and keepeth a most solemn passover.
	2 Chron. XXVIII. 1.	This year Rezin king of Syria and Pekah king of Israel are confederate against Judah, which strikes a great terror into that nation; but unto Ahaz, God, by the prophet Isaiah, sends a gracious message, with a promise of deliverance; for a sign whereof (when the incredulous king, being bid to ask a sign, refused to do it) God gives him the promise of Immanuel to be born of a virgin. Rezin and Pekah now lay siege to Jerusalem, and therein to Ahaz, but are beaten off; Ahaz is no sooner delivered from his enemies, but he forsakes God his deliverer, and falls to idolatry. Wherefore God gives him over into the hands of the king of Israel, who slays of the men of Judah 120,000 in one day, with a great many of the nobility, and carrieth away 200,000 captives; but these, by the advice of the prophet Oded, are released and sent home.	610.	2 Kings XXIII. 29. The prophet Jeremy also in remembrance thereof composeth his Lamentations; where- in bewailing the calamities which were shortly to be- fall that people, as present before his eyes, in a most compassionate manner he points, as it were with his finger, at the death of Josiah as the source and original of all those ensuing miseries. After the death of Josiah the people anoint Shal- lum one of his younger sons to be their king. After three months reign he is deposed by Pharaoh Necho, who makes Eliakim, his elder brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changes his name into Jehoiakim; but Jehoahaz he carries along with him captive into Egypt, where he ends his days. Jehoiakim, at 25 years of age, begins to reign, and he reigneth 11 years. Uriah and Jeremiah prophesy against Jerusalem; the former is put to death, the latter is acquitted, and set at liberty. About this time Habakkuk also prophesieth. This year is Nebuchadnezzar the Great made by his father Nebopolazzar his associate in the kingdom of Assyria and Babylon; into whose hands God del- ivers up Jehoiakim, who is put in chains to be car- ried to Babylon; but upon his submission and pro- mises of obedience is left in his own house, where he lives a servant to Nebuchadnezzar 3 years. From which entering of the king and people of the Jews into the subjection and service of Nebuchadnezzar are the 70 years of the captivity of Babylon to be reckonod, which were foretold by the prophet Jeremy. Nebuchadnezzar gives order to Ashpenaz, master of the eunuchs, that he shall carry from thence of the children of Israel, both of the blood royal (as was foretold by the prophet Isaiah to Hezekiah) and also of the nobility the choicest youths both for beauty and wit that he can find; who, being edu- cated 3 years in the language and sciences of the Chaldeans, may afterward be fit to serve the king in his palace; among whom, of the tribe of Judah, are Daniel, called Belteshazzar; Hananiah, called Shadrach; Mishael, called Meshach; and Azariah, called Abed-nego; their names being thus changed by the master of the eunuchs. Whilst Nebuchadnezzar pursues his victories over the king of Egypt, his father dies; which coming to his knowledge, he gives order for the bringing away of the captives, and posts with a small company the nearest way to Babylon, where he is received as the lawful successor to his father's dominions. He caus- eth to be brought to Babylon what he thinks fit of the vessels and furniture of the temple, and placeth them in the house of his god, viz. Belus. Jehoiakim, having lived 3 years in subjection to the king of Babylon, falls off, and rebels against him. This year (being the second of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, taking it as it begun at his father's death,) Daniel recovers Nebuchadnezzar's dream, and in- terprets it to betoken the four chief monarchies; whereupon he and his companions are highly ad- vanced. Nebuchadnezzar sends an army, consisting of Chaldeans, Syrians, Moabites, and Ammonites, against Jehoiakim; these waste the whole coun- try of Judea, and carry away from thence 3023 captives: Jehoiakim also is taken prisoner; whom they put to death, cause his carcass to be drawn out at the gate of Jerusalem (as was foretold by the prophet Jeremiah) and leave it without the walls unburied. Jehoiachin (called also Conias and Jeconias) at 18 years of age succeeds his father Jehoiakim, and reigns 3 months in Jerusalem. Against him Nebuchadnezzar leads an army, and besiegeth Jerusalem: Jehoiachin with all his kind- red and courtiers come out to meet him. Nebu-	Before CHRIST 599.  Isaiah XXXIX. 6. Jerem. XXIV. 1. An Epistle, said to be Jeremiah's, is now sent to the captives, admonish- ing them to beware of the idolatry which they shall see in Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar before his departure from Jeru- salem makes Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's father's bro- ther, king, changing his name into Zedekiah. Zedekiah, beginning his reign at 21 years of age, reigneth 11 years; he, by rebelling against Nebu- chadnezzar, or rather by continuing in an open re- bellion (as his fathers had done) against God, brought upon Jerusalem and the whole nation of the Jews those long-deserved calamities which God had so often forewarned them of by his prophets; for, in the latter end of the 11th year of Zedekiah, Jeru- salem, after a long siege, is taken by Nebuchad- nezzar, and his Chaldeans enter it. Zedekiah flees away by night, but, being pursued, is taken, and brought prisoner to Riblah, Nebuchadnezzar's head- quarters; there having first seen his children slaugh- tered before his eyes, he has afterward those eyes put out, and being loaden with chains, is carried away captive to Babylon. About a month after the taking of the city, Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, sent by Nebuchadnezzar, makes his entry into it, sets fire to the temple, the king's palace, and some no- blemen's houses, and so layeth the whole city in ashes; the walls of Jerusalem being razed to the ground, all that were left in the city, and those that a little before had fallen to the Chaldeans, with what treasure he can find, doth Nebuzar-adan car- ry with him into Babylon. And thus was Judah carried out of her own land 468 years after David began to reign over it, 388 years after the falling off of the ten tribes, and 134 years after the destruction of the kingdom of Israel. Obadiah the prophet denounceth God's judgments against the Edomites, who now insult over the ca- lamity of the Jews. The same do Jeremy and Eze- kiel, and the author of the 79th and 137th Psalms, who wrote all about the same time. The sixth Age of the World. N EBUCHADNEZZAR, proud of his victories over Egypt, and his conquest of Judea and other countries, and boasting the magnificence of his buildings, falls distracted, and is driven from the society of men. After seven years spent among the beasts of the field, his understanding returning to him, he humbly acknowledgeth the power of God, and his goodness towards him: and is restored to his kingdom. A few days after he dies, having reigned about 20 months together with his father, and 43 years by himself. Evil-merodach his son succeeds him in the 37th year of the captivity of Jehoiachin, or Jeconiah, who presently gives order for the enlargement of Jehoiachin, and two days after changeth his prison- clothes, sets him above all the princes of his court, and causeth him to eat at his own table. Jehoiachin dies about two years after. Belshazzar, having removed some persons who had murdered his father Evil-merodach, and usup- ed his throne, succeeds in the kingdom of Babylon. In the first year of this king's reign Daniel has the vision of the four beasts, signifying the four mo- narchies of the world, and of God delivering over all power and sovereignty to the Son of man.

Isaiah XLIV. VI. XLIV. 1, 13.	In the third year of Belshazzar Daniel receives the vision of the ram and he-goat, betokening the destruction of the Persian monarchy, and the great misery which Antiochus should bring upon the people of God.  This year Belshazzar makes a great feast for all his nobles, and causeth to be brought forth all the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar his grandfather had brought away from Jerusalem, to the glory of his idols, and dishonour of the true God. In the midst of all this jollity a hand appears writing on the wall of the room in which the king and his numerous guests sit drinking. The king, greatly terrified hereat, sends for his Chaldean astrologers and wizards, and commands them to read the writing, and give him the interpretation of it; but they not being able to do either, Daniel is sent for, who reads the writing, and gives the king the interpretation of it: whereupon Daniel is publicly proclaimed the third man in the kingdom. The same night Belshazzar is slain, Babylon taken by Cyrus, and the empire translated to the Medes and Persians, as had been sundry times foretold by the prophets.  Cyrus having given the kingdom of Babylon to Darius the Mede, reserving some palaces in the city for himself, he returns through Media into Persia.  Daniel's greatness raising envy in some principal courtiers and officers, these contrive his ruin: but finding nothing in his management of affairs whereof to accuse him, they resolve to order matters so, that Daniel's piety towards God shall become an offence worthy of death. They move the king to make a decree, that for 30 days no petition shall be made to any god or man, but to himself only. Which decree Daniel breaks by making supplication to his God, and is for doing so cast into a den of lions: but being found to have received no hurt there, Darius commands the conspirators to be cast into the same den, who are presently devoured; and the king publisheth a decree, that all persons throughout his dominions shall reverence and fear the God of Daniel.  Towards the end of the first year of the reign of Darius the Mede, to be reckoned from the subversion of the Babylonish empire, begins the 70th year of the captivity of the Jews, which, by Jeremiah's prophecy, was to be the last year of their calamity. Upon consideration of which time so near at hand, Daniel pours out most fervent prayers to God for the remission of his own sins, and those of his people; and for that promised deliverance out of their captivity. To whom the angel Gabriel brings an answer not only of this, but also of the spiritual deliverance of the church by the death of the Messiah; uttering that memorable prophecy of the seventy weeks.  Cyrus, his father Cambyses, and his father-in-law Cyaxares both dying, Persia falls to him by inheritance, and Media by contract of marriage: and so he is possessed of the whole eastern empire; from which time both Xenophon ( Inst. lib. 8. ) reckons the 7 years of his reign, and the Holy Scripture out of the records of the Medes and Persians, reckons this his first year; for it teacheth us, that in this year came forth that renowned edict of his, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem which is in Judah, &c. At which time the 70 years of the Babylonish captivity being expired, (as was foretold by Isaiah and Jeremiah, the former making mention of Cyrus by name) he gives leave to all the Jews, dwelling in all parts of his dominions, to return into their own country, and commands them immediately to fall in hand with rebuilding of the temple.  He restoreth also all the vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought from thence; and contributes towards the building.	Before CHRIST 536. The Persian Empire.  Ezra I. 5, 6. II. The number of the children of the province, or Hebrews born in Chaldea, which with their captain Zerubbabel, and their high priest Jeshua, return out of captivity, is 42,360, besides proselytes, men-servants, and maid-servants, to the number of 7,337. Now the particular sums of Ezra's catalogue being cast up amount only to 29,818; and those in Nehemiah's account make but 31,031, both which come far short of that universal sum of 42,360, which at the bottom of each catalogue is said to be the number of the whole congregation. Wherefore the Hebrews in the xxixth chapter of their great chronicle tell us, that to complete the full sum 42,360, we must cast in those of the other ten tribes of Israel, who came up out of the captivity with the Jews. For even till the last extirpation of the Jewish state there remained some reliques of the other ten tribes, not only in the dispersion, and at Jerusalem, and other cities of Judah; but also of those who kept still in their own seats; for Shalmaneser swept not away all out of the whole ten tribes, but left a remnant of them in their own country, who were afterward, together with the Jews, Benjamites, and Levites, carried away by Nebuchadnezzar into Babylon, and are now dismissed and sent back again by Cyrus.  In the second year after their return from Babylon, in the second month, they appoint Levites to oversee the work of the house of God, and lay the foundation of the temple; the old men lamenting, who 53 years before had seen the old temple standing, and the younger sort rejoicing to see the new one going up.  The Samaritans by the means of certain courtiers about Cyrus, whom they had bribed for that purpose, disturb the Jews in their work of the temple.  In the beginning of the reign of Artaxerxes (called in profane story Cambyses) the Samaritans, who, whilst Cyrus lived, had secretly undermined the Jews, now openly frame a direct accusation in writing against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem, and present it to the king, who presently forbids the Jews to proceed in the building.  In the second year of king Darius Hystaspes (the same with Ahasuerus) Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple.  Haggai prophesieth that the glory of this second temple shall be greater than that of the former; not as being a more magnificent structure, but in regard the blessed Messiah shall one day honour it with his presence, and from thence propagate peace to all nations.  About this time Zechariah the prophet exhorteth the Jews to repentance.  Ahasuerus puts away qucen Vashti his wife, and not long after espouseth Esther, the niece of Mordecai the Jew.  In the sixth year of Darius, or Ahasuerus, the temple is finished; the dedication whereof is celebrated with great joy and abundance of sacrifices, the Priests and Levites, every one in his place, attending on the ministry of the temple. The pass-over also is celebrated.  Haman an Agagite, of the race of the Amalekites, a great favourite of king Ahasuerus, offended at Mordecai, because he falls not down and adores him, as others do, resolves to be revenged of the whole nation of the Jews, (which was ever averse to his) and to root it out; for the executing of which purpose, that he may find a successful time, he causeth Pur, that is, the Lot, to be cast before him, for to know the day and month wherein the Jews shall be destroyed, and the lot falls on the 12th month Adar.  Haman obtains an edict from the king, that all Jews, without respect to sex or age, upon the thirteenth day of the month Adar be put to death in all the provinces of the king's dominions. Hereupon Mordecai, Alexander, seeing his habit, falls prostrate before him, saying that, whilst he was in Macedonia, a man appeared unto him in the very same habit, who invited him to come into Asia, and promised to deliver the Persian Empire into his hands. After this he goes to the temple, and offers sacrifice according to the high priest's direction. They shew him the prophecy of Daniel, That a Grecian should come and destroy the Persians; whereby he is mightily confirmed in his persuasion that he himself is the man. Lastly, he bestoweth on the Jews whatever favours they desire, and departeth.

	VH.	Ahasuerus hearing it read in the chronicles, that a conspiracy had been discovered to him by Mordecai, commandeth that he be publicly honoured, and that by Haman himself, his deadly enemy.		The Persians are overcome, Darius slain, and Alexander remains universal monarch of the eastern world.

He sendeth several colonies of Jews into Egypt, and puts great confidence in them.

Heliodorus entering the temple, is by angels struck down in the very place, and carried from thence half dead; but by the prayers of Onias he is soon after restored to his health. Returning to Seleucus that sent him, he magnifies the holiness of the temple, and the power of God dwelling in it.

		Hitherto (saith Eusebius in his Chronicle, to the 32d year of Artaxerxes) the Divine Scriptures of the Hebrews contain the annals of the times. But those things which were done among them afterward we must deliver out of the books of the Macabees, and out of the writings of Josephus, who have delivered a general history of the Jewish affairs from thence down to the times of the Romans.	176.	Menelaus, not paying the money he had promised the king at his admission, is summoned to appear before Antiochus; he substituteth Lysimachus his brother in his place.
		That Malachi, the last of the prophets, was contemporary with Nehemiah, appears from hence, that he no where exhorts the people to the building of the temple, as Haggai and Zachary did; but, the temple being now built, he reproves those disorders, which Nehemiah at his second return with a new commission from Babylon saith he found in his absence to have crept in among the Jews; as marriage with strange women, withholding of tithes, and abuses in the worship of God. And because a succession of prophets was not to be expected, as before, he exhorteth the people constantly to adhere to the law of Moses, till Christ the chief Prophet should appear; whose forerunner John the Baptist should come in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers unto their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. 1 Mac. I. 45.	King Antiochus, by a public edict, commands all nations that are subject unto him to observe the same way of divine worship, and laying aside their peculiar customs, to profess the same religion with the Grecians; the punishment of death being threatened unto such as shall be disobedient; and he appoints overseers over every people and nation who shall compel them hereto. Of the Jews many choose rather to undergo the most cruel torments, than to offer sacrifice unto idols; all which martyrdoms, with those glorious sufferings of the seven Maccabean brethren, are recorded in the two Books of Maccabees.	153. 153.	Whilst Alcimus commands the wall of the inner court of the temple to be pulled down, God strikes him suddenly with a palsy, so that without speaking a word he dies in great torment. Jonathan, having wearied Bacchides by war, compelleth him to make a league, and draw off his army. Alexander Balas, the son of king Antiochus Epiphanes, enters with an army into Syria; the garrison of Ptolemais set open their gates to him, by reason of their hatred to king Demetrius; who prepares himself for war.
1 Mac. II. 2 Mac. VI. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 8.	Mattathias, a priest, with his five sons, slay those that are sent by king Antiochus to compel them to offer abominable sacrifices, and after betake themselves to the desert. They are followed by many others, of whom a great number are stifled in their caves, because they would not defend themselves on the sabbath-day. Mattathias abolisheth that superstition, and exhorts his sons to assert their privileges, and deliver their country from bondage.	152. 150.	Demetrius desireth an alliance with Jonathan, who makes use of this occasion to repair the fortifications of Jerusalem. Alexander Balas is no less careful to obtain the friendship of Jonathan, and, to oblige him, confers on him the high priesthood. Jonathan puts on the holy vestment on the seventh month of the 160th year of the kingdom of the Grecians, at the feast of tabernacles. He was the first high priest of the Hasmonean family.
166. 1 Mac. III. 2 Mac. VIII. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 9. 1 Mac. III. Jos. Ant. I. 12c. 10. 1 Mac. III. 13. Joseph. ut supra.	Mattathias dies, and Judas Maccabeus takes upon him the management of this affair. He delivers his country, and purgeth it from the abominations which had been committed in it. Apollonius, governor of Samaria, having raised an army among the Gentiles and Samaritans, falls upon the Jews; but is discomfited and slain by Judas Maccabeus. Seron also, governor of the lower Syria, musters up all the forces under his command, and invades Judea; him Judas Maccabeus encounters, slays 800 of his men on the place, and puts the rest to flight.	150. 148.  146.	Demetrius and Alexander come to a battle, and Demetrius is slain. Alexander Balas, finding himself in the peaceable possession of the kingdom of Syria, espouseth Cleopatra, the daughter of Ptolemaeus Philometor king of Egypt. Alexander highly honours Jonathan the high priest at his nuptials. Demetrius Nicanor, eldest son of Demetrius Soter, enters into Cilicia with an army. King Alexander Balas gives the command of Syria to Apollonius, who sets upon Jonathan the high priest; Jonathan defeats him, and takes Joppe and Azotus, and burns the temple of Dagon.
165. 1 Mac. III. 27. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 11.	Judas Maccabeus defeats a great army, which Antiochus sent against the Jews. Lysias returns with a greater power; Judas kills 5000 of his men, and causeth him to retreat. He purifieth the temple, and setteth it in order, after it had lain desolate three years; and buildeth a wall about Sion.	146. 145.	Ptolemaeus Philometor, king of Egypt, comes to the relief of king Alexander his son-in-law; Alexander ungratefully sets Ammonius to lie in ambush to kill him. The treachery being discovered, Ptolemaeus takes away his daughter from Alexander, and marrieth her to Demetrius. Alexander having been driven from Antioch, the inhabitants of that place make offer of the kingdom to Ptolemaeus; but he refuseth it, and persuadeth them to accept of Demetrius for their king.
164. 1 Mac. VI. 2 Mac. IX. 9. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 13.	Antiochus is taken with a violent pain in his bowels, and such a rottenness seizeth his flesh, that worms breed in it; he confesseth that he is plagued for the wrong done to Jerusalem, and dieth in the 149th year of the kingdom of the Grecians. His son Antiochus Eupator, a child about nine years old, succeeds him. He maketh peace with the Jews, but quickly breaketh it: he puts to death Menelaus the high priest, and confers that honour upon Alcimus, or Jacimus.	145.  1 Mac. XI.	Alexander returns with a great army. Ptolemaeus and Demetrius unite their forces, and overcome him in a pitched battle; but Ptolemaeus dies of the wounds which he received, after he had seen the head of Alexander sent to him by Zabdiel an Arabian prince. Jonathan besiegeth the citadel at Jerusalem, held by a garrison of Macedonians. Complaint hereof being made to Demetrius, Jonathan appeaseth him by presents, and obtaineth new favours for the Jews. Demetrius incurreth the hatred of his soldiers by abridging their pay in time of peace.
163. 162. 2 Mac. XIII. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 15.	Onias, the son of Onias III, retires into Egypt, where Ptolemaeus Philometor, and Cleopatra his wife, permit him to build a temple at Heliopolis in imitation of that at Jerusalem, and they constitute him high priest there. Demetrius Soter, the son of Seleucus, escapes from Rome, and comes into Syria, where he causeth himself to be crowned king, and putteth to death Antiochus and Lysias.	145.  144.  143.	Tryphon, with some soldiers that revolted from Demetrius, undertakes to establish Antiochus, the son of Alexander Balas, in the kingdom of Syria. Demetrius is vanquished by young Antiochus, and made to fly into Seleucia: Great honours are by Antiochus conferred on Jonathan, who assists him against Demetrius.
161. 2 Mac. XIV. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 17.	Demetrius, at the instance of Alcimus, sends Nicanor with a great army against Judas Maccabeus, whom he endeavours to surprise. They join battle, and Nicanor is slain.	143.	Jonathan renews his alliance with the Romans and Lacedemonians, and fortifies Jerusalem.
1 Mac. IX. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 18, 19. 1 Mac. VIII. 19. Jos. Ant. I. 18. c. 17.	Here ends the continued history of the second book of Maccabees, being an abstract and breviary of the five books of Jason, a Jew of Cyrene. King Demetrius sends Bacchides with a new army, consisting of 20,000 men, against Judas Maccabeus; Judas, having with him but 800 men, ventures to engage him, and is slain. His brother Jonathan is chosen general in his stead. Jonathan enters into an alliance with the Romans. Josephus observes that this was the first league that ever was known to be between the Romans and the Jews.	143.  1 Mac. XIII. Jos. Ant. lib. 13. c. 10, 11.	Tryphon contrives how he may quit himself of Antiochus, and reign in his stead: but fearing Jonathan's opposition, he invites him to come to Ptolemais, and bring with him some few of his soldiers, promising to deliver that city into his hands. Jonathan, suspecting no treachery, comes only with 1000 men to Tryphon at Ptolemais; but as soon as he is entered the city, Tryphon commands the gates to be shut. Jonathan is taken prisoner, and all his men put to the sword. The Jews hereupon make choice of Simon Maccabeus for their general in the place of his brother Jonathan. Tryphon leads an army against Simon. He promiseth for 100 talents of silver to release Jonathan; the money being paid him, he breaks his promise

Tryphon murders the young king Antiochus, and puts the crown on his own head. The Romans and Lacedemonians renew their leagues with Simon, and write them in tables of brass.	Before CHRIST 5. The Ro- man Em- pire.	Luke I. 11, 26, 57.	The angel Gabriel appears to Zachary the priest, as he is offering incense in the temple, telling him that a son shall be born unto him, whom he shall call John; who also shall be a Nazarite, and the fore-runner of the Lord in the spirit and power of Elias. In the sixth month after John was conceived, the same angel Gabriel is sent by God to Nazareth in Galilee, to the most blessed Virgin Mary (espoused to Joseph, a person of the house and lineage of David;) the angel declares unto her, that she shall conceive by the overshadowing of the Holy Ghost, and bring forth a son, and call his name JESUS. John the Baptist born six months before Christ.
142.	1 Mac. XIII. 31, 32. Jos. Ant. l.13.c.12.	Simon has the government and high priesthood settled on him and his heirs: the Jews are by his means discharged from all manner of tribute to any foreign prince. He takes Sion, the fortress of Jerusalem, drives out of the city all idolaters, clears the houses of their idols, and placeth in the city such as are true worshippers of God.	4.		The seventh Age of the World.
139.	Jos. Ant. l.13.c.12.	Tryphon's vices render him so odious to his soldiers, that they submit themselves to Cleopatra, Demetrius's relict. She marrieth Antiochus Soter, Demetrius's brother, and causeth him to be crowned king. Antiochus drives Tryphon out of Syria, besiegeth him in Dora, whence he flies to Apamea, where he is taken and slain.		Luke II. 6, 21.	CHRIST our Lord and Saviour in the fulness of time is born of the blessed Virgin Mary at Bethlehem, and laid in a manger. On the eighth day after his nativity he is circumcised, and named JESUS.
135.	1 Mac. XVI. Jos. Ant. l.13.c.14.	Simon the high priest traversing the cities of Judea, and taking care for their orderly government, comes down with his two sons, Mattathias and Judas, to Jericho; Ptolemeus, the son of Abubus, Simon's son-in-law, invites them to a castle which he had fortified, called Doebus, and there, whilst he entertains them at a banquet, barbarously murders them. John Hircanus succeeds his father in the high priesthood.		Mat. II. 1, 12, 14, 16, 19. Jos. Ant. l.17.c.17. Mat. II. 21, 23.	The wise men of the east bring presents to the new-born king of the Jews. Joseph flees into Egypt with the child Jesus, and Mary his mother. Herod commands the infants in and about Bethlehem to be slain. Herod dieth, and his son Archelaus is by Cesar made tetrarch of Judea: other dominions, which belonged to Herod, are divided among his sons. Christ, by God's appointment, is brought back out of Egypt into Nazareth.
		Here ends the first book of Maccabees, containing the history of forty years.			The first year of the vulgar Christian Era begins here.
130.	Jos. Ant. l.13.c.17.	John Hircanus takes Shechem, and demolisheth the temple on mount Gerizim 200 years after it had been built by Sanaballat.	After CHRIST 8.	Luke II. 46.	By occasion of the passover our Lord goes up with his parents to Jerusalem, and there disputes with the doctors in the temple.

Judas, eldest son of Hircanus, otherwise called Aristobulus, and surnamed Philellen, succeeds his father in the government and the high priesthood; he was the first of any, that after the return from the captivity of Babylon, set a crown upon his head, and changed the state into a monarchy.	14.		Augustus dies, and Tiberius succeeds him. Josephus, called Caiaphas, is made high priest of the Jews by the favour of Valerius Gratus, the Roman governor.
88.	Luke II. 37.	Anna the prophetess, daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser, this year becoming a widow, departs not from the temple, but serveth God with fasting and prayer night and day, for 84 years together, until such time as she sees Christ in the temple.	26. Unto John God gives a sign whereby he may know the Lord's Christ, that upon whom he shall see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, the same is he which shall baptize with the Holy Ghost. Jesus, entering upon the thirtieth year of his age, comes from Galilee to Jordan, and is baptized of John; at which time a most illustrious manifestation is made of the blessed Trinity; for the Son of God ascending out of the water, and praying, the heavens are opened, and the Spirit of God in the shape of a dove descends upon him; and the voice of the Father is heard from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

An angel sendeth Philip to teach and baptize the Ethiopian eunuch. Saul, a violent persecutor of all that call on the name of Jesus, and one who consented to the death of Stephen, goes now towards Damascus with commission from the high priest and the council to apprehend all Christians in those parts, and to bring them bound to Jerusalem; on the way he is miraculously converted by a voice from heaven; and three days after baptized by Ananias at Damascus, where he preacheth the gospel of Christ with great boldness, to the astonishment of those that knew upon what design he was sent thither. Saul having preached the gospel at Damascus a long time, the Jews lay wait to kill him, but he escapeth from thence, and comes to Jerusalem; there he sees Peter, and James the brother of our Lord, and abides with them fifteen days. Here he speaks boldly in the name of Jesus, and disputes with the Grecians, or rather Jews that used the Greek tongue. These also consult how they may kill him. While Saul prays in the temple, he is in a trance, and the Lord appears unto him, and bids him to depart from Jerusalem, because they will not receive his testimony; adding, that he will send him to the Gentiles. Saul leaving Jerusalem goes to his own country Tarsus, and from thence travels into Syria and Cilicia. Peter visits the churches of Judea, Galilee, Samaria, &c. At Lydda he cureth Eneas of the palsy; and at Joppa restoreth Tabitha to life. At Cesarea, Cornelius, a centurion, by prayers and alms finds favour in the sight of God, and is commanded by an angel to send for Peter now at Joppa. God by a vision teacheth Peter not to despise the Gentiles. Peter, being sent for by Cornelius, goes and preacheth Christ to him and a great company that were met at his house: while Peter preacheth, the Holy Ghost falls upon them all; and immediately the apostle baptizeth them. Peter, at his return to Jerusalem, is accused by those of the circumcision for conversing with the Gentiles; but he declares to them his vision, and the whole matter concerning Cornelius; and they glorify God for granting to the Gentiles also repentance unto life. The believers, who ever since the martyrdom of Stephen, and the persecution thereupon ensuing, had been dispersed throughout all Phenice and Cyprus, come now to Antioch, and preach the gospel to the Greeks there, having before preached to none but the Jews. The Church at Jerusalem understanding this, and that the number of believers increased exceedingly, sends Barnabas thither to confirm them; he goes to Tarsus, and takes Saul along with him to Antioch, where they continue a whole year, converting multitudes to the faith. Here the disciples were first called Christians. About this time James the brother of John is beheaded by the command of Herod Agrippa. He also imprisoneth Peter, whom an angel delivers upon the prayers of the church. This same Herod, not long after, speaking to the people at Cesarea, some of them cry out, It is the voice of God, and not of man: and immediately an angel of the Lord smites him, because he gave not the glory to God; and he is eaten of worms, and dieth. Barnabas and Saul set forward in their preaching of the gospel. They plant the Christian faith in Seleucia, Cyprus, and other places. At Paphos they preach the gospel to Sergius Paulus, governor of that country: Elymas, a sorcerer, withstanding them, and endeavouring to turn away Sergius from the faith, is at Saul's rebuke struck blind. From this time Saul is always called by his new name	After CHRIST 45. The Ro- man Em- pire. 46.	XIV.	Paul; he preacheth at Antioch; the Gentiles believe, but the Jews gainsay and blaspheme. Whereupon he and his assistants turn to the Gentiles, and come to Iconium. At Iconium they are persecuted and ready to be stoned. From hence they fly to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lyaconia. At Lystra, Paul healing a cripple, the multitude cry out, that the gods are come down, and call Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius; and would have sacrificed to them, had not the apostles with clothes rent run in among them, and assured them that they were men like themselves. Soon after there come Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who excite the people against them. Paul is by the furious multitude stoned, and drawn out of the city as dead; but whilst the disciples stand about him, he riseth up, and the next day departs with Barnabas to Derbe. In this year, perhaps at this very time, Paul was caught up into the third heaven, and heard unspeakable words, fourteen years before he wrote his second epistle to the Corinthians. About this time Timothy, though a child, with his mother Eunice, and his grandmother Lois, embrace the Christian faith preached by Paul. Certain Judaizing Christians come from Judea to Antioch, and teach that the Gentiles ought to be circumcised, and observe the law of Moses; these Paul and Barnabas oppose, and a council is held by the apostles and others at Jerusalem to determine this controversy. The decrees of the synod are sent to the churches. Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the churches together, fall at strife, and part asunder; Barnabas and Mark go into Cyprus; Paul and Silas into Syria and Cilicia. Paul coming to Derbe finds there Timothy, whom (because his mother was a believing Jew, though his father a Gentile) he causeth to be circumcised, and takes him along with him. He is by a vision admonished to go into Macedonia; coming to Philippi, the chief city of that part of Macedonia, he converts Lydia: casteth out of a certain maid-servant a spirit of divination, whose master losing a considerable gain thereby, brings Paul and Silas before the magistrates; these cause them to be whipped and imprisoned; but at midnight, Paul and Silas praying and singing Psalms, the doors of the prison fly open, and their bonds are loosed: the jailer, ready to kill himself, is converted to the faith, and baptized the same night with his whole family. Next day the magistrates come themselves, and pray them to depart the city. From Philippi Paul takes his journey through Amphipolis and Apollonia, and comes to Thessalonica, where he finds a synagogue of the Jews; there he preacheth three sabbath-days; some believe, others persecute him. Leaving Thessalonica he comes to Berea, and soon after arrives at Athens, disputes with the philosophers, and declares unto them that UNKNOWN GOD, whom they had ignorantly worshipped. He converts Dionysius the Areopagite, and thence passeth to Corinth. Paul at Corinth meets with Aquila and Priscilla, not long before banished Rome by the decree of Claudius. Here he continues a year and six months, and thence writes to the Thessalonians. Paul is accused by the Jews, and brought before Gallio, proconsul of Achaia, who refuseth to be judge in a controversy about religion, and so drives them away from the judgment-seat. Paul departs from Corinth, and passeth to Ephesus, thence he sets out towards Jerusalem, that he may be at the feast; he lands at Cesarea, goes down to Antioch, and comes into the regions of Galatia and Phrygia, confirming the disciples in all those places. # TABLES OF SCRIPTURE MEASURES, WEIGHTS, AND COINS:

WITH AN APPENDIX,

CONTAINING THE METHOD OF CALCULATING ITS MEASURES OF SURFACE, HITHERTO WANTING IN TREATISES ON THIS SUBJECT

By the Right Reverend RICHARD Lord Bishop of Peterborough.

A MEASURE is a known quantity applied to another of the same kind that is less known, to make its dimensions better known, by help of numbers expressing the proportion that the known quantity bears to the unknown. The dimensions to be measured are three: 1 Mere length, which hath but one dimension. 2 Surface, which consists of length multiplied into breadth; so it hath two dimensions, as it were interwoven; and this is always measured by some square surface already known, as by a square foot, or a square cubit, or any other square already known, by help of its side. Moses generally useth the square cubit. 3 Solidity or Capacity, which hath three dimensions multiplied into each other: length, breadth, and height, or depth. This is measured by a known cube. From solidity ariseth weight in all sublunary bodies: and by weight we measure the value of coins. Therefore I shall join weights and coins together in the fourth table. I use = to signify Equal: :: to express Proportion: . is called Separatrix, parting Decimals from Integers.

I. TABLE. Measures of Length.

I express the Cubit, and its Parts, both by Inch Measure, and by Foot Measure; which I deduce from Inches by this Proportion:

	Inch. Meas.	Foot. Meas.
As 12. 1. :: 21.888	1.824
	Inch. Dec.	Foot. Dec.
A Cubit is = to	21.888	1.824
A Span the longer = $\frac{1}{2}$ a Cubit	10.944	.912
Span the less = $\frac{1}{3}$ of $\frac{2}{3}$ a Cubit	7.296	.608
A Hand's breadth = $\frac{1}{4}$ of a Cubit	3.648	.304
A Finger's breadth = $\frac{1}{6}$ of a Cubit	.912	.076

Measures of many Cubits Length I express only in Foot Measure.

		Foot Dec.
A Fathom	= 4 Cubits	= 7.296
Ezekiel's Reed	= 6 Cubits	= 10.944
Schenus, the Egyptian Line for Land Measure, which I think Scripture useth to divide Inheritances. Psalm xvi. 6. and lxxviii. 55. They used different Lengths, but the shortest and most useful was,	Cubits.	= 80 = 145.92

Herodotus mentions a Schenus just 300 times as long: I judge that all the greater were made in proportion to the least.

The Mile,	= 4000 Cubits	= 7296 Feet.
Stadium, $\frac{1}{6}$ of their Mile	= 400 Cubits	= 729.6
Parasang, 3 of their Miles	= 12000 Cubits	= 4 English Miles, and 580 Feet.

II. TABLE. Measures of Surface.

Moses hath described these 16 square Cubits. I here express them reduced to our square Feet. The method of this reduction is taught in an Appendix. I first propose three clear examples given by Moses; Secondly, I place six instances of greater difficulty.

The clearest examples are,

I. The Altar of Incense. Only two sides of it, viz. its length and breadth, are expressed by Moses; each of them is affirmed to be one Cubit. Yet he declares it was four square: whence we collect, that it was just one square Cubit. See Exod. xxx. 2. Now it is demonstrated in the Appendix, that one Jewish square Cubit amounts to in surface three English square Feet, and about 47 square Inches.

II. The Table of Shew-bread, Exod. xxv. 23. It is affirmed to be two Cubits in length, and one in breadth. None doubt but it was rectangular, containing two Jewish square Cubits. These amount to above six English square Feet, and above half, viz. 94 square Inches.

III. The Boards of the Tabernacle, each 10 Cubits in length, and one and an half in breadth. Exod. xxvi. 16. being rectangular, must contain 15 square Cubits, Jewish. These are proved to contain very near 50 square Feet of English Measure.

The more difficult cases reserved to the Appendix are,
I. The Mercy-seat, whose surface is = 12 square Feet and an half.
II. A general method is taught of reducing any given number of Jewish Cubits to English square Feet.
III. The example of the 15 square Cubits in the Boards of the Tabernacle is made clearer.
IV. The Court of the Tabernacle, described Exod. xxviii. 18. is found to be just half the Egyptian Aroua, and to contain 1 Rood, 21 Perches 27 square Feet, &c.
V. The whole Aroua is determined, and reduced to our English Measures, 3 Roods, 2 Perches, 55 square Feet.
VI. The suburbs, or Glebe Land, given to each city of the Levites, Numb. xxxv. 3, 4, 5. is shewed to be a square, on each of the four sides of every city, containing a million of Jewish square Cubits, or 100 Aroua; which amount to in each Square 76 Acres, 1 Rood, 20 Perches, 80 square Feet. Whence we collect, that all the four Squares amounted to 305 Acres, 2 Roods, 1 Perch, besides 51 Feet square.

III. TABLE. Measures of Capacity.

	Wine Gal.	Pints.	Inch Sol.
Epha, or Bath	7	4	15
Chomer, Homer in our translation	75	5	7
Seah $\frac{1}{2}$ of Epha	2	4	3
Win $\frac{1}{3}$ of Epha	1	2	1
Omer $\frac{1}{10}$ of Epha	0	6	0.5
Cub $\frac{1}{18}$ of Epha	0	3	10
Log $\frac{1}{72}$ of Epha	0	0.1	10
Metretres of Syria (John ii. 6.) = Cong. Rom.	0	7.1	0
Cotyla, Eastern, $\frac{1}{108}$ of Epha	0	0.1	3

This Cotyla contains just 10 Ounces Avoirdupois of Rain Water. Omer 100: Epha 1000: Chomer 10,000: So by these Weights all these Measures of Capacity may be expeditiously recovered very near exactness.

IV. TABLE. Of Weights and Coins.

The Jewish Weights are reduced to the Standard Grains of our Troy Weight; whereof 438 are equal to the Roman ounce, and to our ancient English Avoirdupois ounce.

As APPENDIX to the Second Table of Measures of Surface described by Moses, shewing the Method of reducing them by Calculation to the Measures used in England, for the benefit of those that understand Decimal Arithmetic, and desire to try the Reductions given in the Table, or to make further Improvements in this kind of Measures.

<sup>1</sup> The Mercy Seat. I SHALL begin with Reduction of the Measures of the Mercy Seat, which was God's Throne of Grace among the Jews. Moses in Exod. xxv. 17. affirms, that its length was two Cubits and an half, its breadth one Cubit and an half. The fractions adhering to its length and breadth make some difficulty to beginners in Arithmetic, which the Decimal way doth much abate. Supposing therefore, what I have elsewhere proved, that the Jewish cubit was in Foot measure 1.324; the length must be expressed in Foot measure, and Decimals thereof, 4.560. The breadth in like measure will be 2.736. Wherefore the product of these numbers multiplied into each other gives its surface 12.47,616: in number of its square Feet, and Decimals thereof, 12 square Feet, and very near half a square Foot; if the Decimals had been .50, it had been just half a Foot. If we desire to express those Decimals of a Foot in square Inches, as is usual in England, we must multiply .47,616 by 144, the square Inches of a Foot, and the product will be 68.56,704; which shews that the Decimals we found amount to 68 square Inches, and about half an Inch more: we need not be nicer.

<sup>2</sup> A square Cubit reduced to our Measure. 2. In the Altar of Incense Moses describes the Jewish square Cubit, which must be reduced to our Foot measure, thus,  $1.324 \times 1.324$ . The product of these numbers multiplied will be the upper surface of this Altar, 3.326,976, that is, three square Feet, and .326,976 Decimals of a square Foot, which we may express by 47 square Inches, and a few Decimals of an Inch square inconsiderable.

<sup>3</sup> The Boards of the Tabernacle. 3. Moses's description of the boards of the Tabernacle, Exod. xxvi. 16. by 10 Cubits in length, and one and an half in breadth, naturally leads a man to discern in each board's surface 15 Jewish square Cubits; because if we conceive a line drawn from the end of one Cubit at the bottom of the Board to the end of one Cubit at the top of the Board, this must needs be 10 whole square Cubits on one side of that line, and 10 half square Cubits (=5 whole) on the other side of that line: here therefore are 15 square Cubits. The reduction of these into English square Feet is performed by multiplying 15, viz. the number of Cubits given into 3.326,976 the Feet and Decimals of one square Cubit, and the product will be 49.90,464, and that is very near to fifty square Feet; for those Decimals amount to above 130 square Inches; and little more than 13 square Inches would make it just 50 Feet, which abatement we need not here regard.

<sup>4</sup> The Court of the Tabernacle. 4. Let us now go to the measure of the surface of land. But we will begin with the Court of the Tabernacle, the ground on which the Priests performed all the solemn public worship of Israel in Moses's time. The Area of this Court is described by Moses, Exod. xxv. 18. by its length 100 Cubits, and its breadth every where 50 Cubits. Wherefore this Area must be in Jewish measure 5000 square Cubits, for that is the product of 100 multiplied into 50. To reduce these 5000 Jewish Cubits into English square Feet, I must multiply 5000 into 3.326,976, the product is 16,634.88 English square Feet.

But in cases of such long numbers of Feet we use for brevity's sake, and to help our memories, to reduce them into Perches, or Roods, or Acres, which contain known numbers of square Feet. A Perch contains 272 square Feet and  $\frac{1}{4}$ . A Rood is = to 10,890 square Feet. An Acre is = to 43,560 square Feet. It is plain that the number 16,634.88 hath not integers equal to those of an Acre; but it hath enough to answer those in a Rood, and some overplus; therefore I must divide 16,634.88 by 10,890, which is a Rood. By such division continued in the Decimal way, until I have a fraction of five or six places, which is exact enough, I find the quote to be 1.527,537, which assures me that my number 16,634.88 hath but once entirely in it a whole Rood: but it hath moreover in it many Decimal parts of a Rood. These therefore I reduce to the Perches contained in them, by multiplying them into 40, which is the number of Perches that make up a Rood: and cutting off six places from the product, which is 21,101,480; so I find there are 21 Perches entire, and the figures after the Separatrix are Decimals of a Perch. These also I multiply by 272.25, which are the square Feet and Decimals of a Perch. The product of this last multiplication, after eight places cut off from it by the Separatrix, because there were six places of Decimals in one of the multipliers, and two in the other, is 27.62,793,000. Hence I learn that there are therein but 27 entire Feet, all the eight Decimal places amount to little above half a foot, and therefore I cast them away as inconsiderable in the measure of land. This method of reduction by multiplication of Decimals I find to be easier than the common way of reduction by division, and therefore I propose it to be used by beginners in this practice of surveying. So I find this court to contain in English measure 1 Rood, 21 Perches, 27 Feet, and little more than half a foot squared. But reflecting upon Moses's measure by Cubits, and finding them to be precisely 5000 square Cubits, I observed that they were just half 10,000, which I had observed from Herodotus's Euterpe to be the Area of the Egyptian Aroura, by which their land was as generally measured, as ours is by Acres and Roods. See Herodot. l. 2. c. 168. I called also to mind a passage in Manetho an Egyptian Priest, cited by Josephus in his first book against Apion, where he affirms, that Manetho in his history of the reign, wars, and expulsion, of the Pastors (whom Africanus affirms to be Phenicians, or Canaanites, and Josephus vainly believed to be Jews.) wrote out of the public Records of Egypt, that these Pastors made at Abaris a very large and strong encampment, that encompassed 10,000 Aroura, sufficient to contain 240,000 men, and long to maintain their cattle. Hence it appears, that not only the Egyptians, but the Phenicians or Canaanites also, that had dwelt among them, and had reigned there during the time of six kings successively, used this measure of land called Aroura. Now this was long before Moses's time; for the beginning of Amosis or Tethmosis, who expelled them out of Egypt, was very near the time of Abraham's death, as appears by the annals of the learned Primate of Ireland. Wherefore I believe that Moses, who was skilled in all Egyptian learning, especially surveying, did of choice make the Court of the Tabernacle to be just half an Aroura, which was a known measure to him and his people, who had long dwelt in Egypt, and Divine Authority directed him so to do.

5. Because we have shewn from Herodotus, that an Aroura is the square of 100 Jewish or Egyptian Cubits, and 100 such Cubits may in English Foot measure be expressed by 182.4 English Feet, it follows, that the square of this number will express exactly the number of the English square Feet that are contained in an Aroura. Now by multiplication of 182.4 into itself, I find the product to be 33,269.76: Therefore I conclude that there are 33,269 square Feet entire, and .76 Decimals of a square Foot, in an Aroura. Now to reduce these English square Feet into Roods, Perches, and the remainder of square Feet, I use the method used in the last paragraph: First, I divide them by 10,890, the square Feet in a Rood; and the quote I find 3.055,074, that is 3 Roods, and .055,074 Decimals of a Rood. Secondly, I multiply those Decimals by 40, which is the number of Perches in a Rood, the product is 2.202,960. Hence I conclude there are therein two Perches, and .202,960 Decimals of a Perch. Thirdly, I multiply these last Decimals by 272.25, which are the square Feet of a Perch. The product is 55.25,586,000, that is 55 entire square Feet; the eight places of Decimals amount to little above  $\frac{1}{4}$  of a square Foot, therefore I reject them as inconsiderable in measure of land. By all these reductions it is found, that an Aroura is in English measure three Roods, two Perches, 55 $\frac{1}{4}$  square Feet. Hence it follows also, that it is not well translated by Jugerum, for it is much larger; nor is it well in English called an Acre, for it is considerably less. To this place I refer the use of the lesser sort of χοῖρος, which yet is most convenient for the use of the Egyptians, and of the Jews, to measure out private men's inheritances by a line which was 80 Cubits long. For the length of this line will measure one side of an Aroura, if the other side be 125 Cubits long, which is the length of this line, and its half, and 5 Cubits above half of it, which they might easily mark on it by a knot or a ring. And by this means they might easily lay any number of Aroura together, all of them rectangular and parallel to each other. Such lines I suppose for measure of inheritances are intimated, Psal. lxxviii. 55. and xvi. 6, &c.

6. I shall conclude with an example amounting after reduction to a number of English Acres, which measure we have not yet Levites's reached to. This I take from Num. xxxv. 3, 4, 5, verses. There Moses describes what measure of land the Levites were to be allowed for their cattle, their goods, and all their beasts, on the north, east, south, and west sides of each of their cities. So that the city was to be in the midst of the land belonging to it. This land in our translation is called suburbs, because of its nearness to all their cities. But we must not thence imagine that it means houses and streets adjoining to their cities, in which sense we sometimes use the word suburbs. For Moses plainly tells us they were places for their several sorts of cattle to feed in, such as might also be orchards or gardens for fruits, or perhaps for a little corn, comprehended in the words, their goods. These fields he limits by 1000 Cubits; which was just a quarter of an eastern mile, but amounts in mere length to 608 yards English measure, and therefore exceeds a quarter of an English mile by 163 yards in length. But it is certain that cattle cannot feed upon mere length, but this must signify the side of some surface of land bounded thereby, and we must have two sides of that surface given, before we can find the Area, or surface contained. Therefore Moses, ver. 5. tells us, that on each side of each city they must measure 2000 Cubits, which will determine no surface surface, unless we understand it to mean the two sides of a square, bounded on every side by 1000 Cubits; these two sides multiplied into each other will produce a square that contains just a million of square Cubits, and that is a known and exact measure of just 100 Aroures: and this shews that the 2000 Cubits mentioned ver. 5. are the two sides of that square, whereof the 1000 mentioned ver. 4. is one, and may be called the root of the square. This shews the agreement of the two different numbers. The reduction of this million of square Cubits will be performed by the same method that I have used before. Therefore, first, I express 1000 Jewish Cubits by 1824 English Feet, without any Separatrix, according to the principles owned in Decimal Arithmetic; and the square of that number will be 3,326,976, without a Separatrix. Secondly, I divide this number by 43,560, which are the square Feet of an Acre, and find the quote to be 76.376,859, which signify 76 entire Acres, and .376,859 Decimals of an Acre. Thirdly, to find what Roods are contained in these Decimals, I multiply them by four, the number of Roods in an Acre, and find the quote to be 1.507,436, which proves that there is but one Rood in them, and the six figures cut off by the Separatrix (because there were six Decimals in one of the multipliers) are all Decimals of a Rood. Fourthly, therefore to find what Perches are in these last Decimals, I multiply them by 40, which is the number of Perches contained in a Rood. The product is 20,297,440. hereby I find there are 20 entire Perches, besides the Decimals of a Perch placed after the Separatrix. Fifthly, to find what square Feet are in those last Decimals, I multiply them by 272.25, which are the square Feet and Decimals in a Perch, the product is 80.97,804, which is 80 square Feet, and all the Decimals not amounting to a square Foot, I reject as inconsiderable in measure of land. Thus we have found that this and every other square on each side of every Levitical City, was prescribed to be 76 Acres, 1 Rood, 20 Perches, 80 square Feet in our measure, but was just a million of square cubits in their measure.

To add the four squares belonging to one Levitical City together, the best way will be to take the first quote that we found in Acre measure, viz. 76.376,859, and we must multiply it by four, and we shall find, by the method I have used, all the four squares together to amount to 305 Acres, 2 Roods, 1 Perch; we need not take notice of any lesser quantities in this case. We may also by this method find the sum of the Acres belonging to all the 48 cities of the Levites, and many other improvements in this kind of measuring surfaces. But I leave them to the industry of others.

A TABLE OF OFFICES AND CONDITIONS OF MEN.

PATRIARCHS, or Fathers of Families, such as Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and his sons.

Judges, Temporary Supreme Governors, immediately appointed by God over the children of Israel.

A CHRONOLOGICAL INDEX OF THE YEARS AND TIMES

FROM ADAM UNTO CHRIST, PROVED BY THE SCRIPTURES, FROM THE COLLATION OF DIVERS AUTHORS.

The sum of the years of the first age.

FROM Adam unto Noah's flood are years 1656.

For when Adam was 150 years old he begat Seth.

Seth, being 105 years, begat Enos.

Enos, being 90 years, begat Cainan.

Cainan, being 70 years, begat Mahalaleel.

Mahalaleel, being 65 years, begat Jared.

Jared, at the age of 162, begat Enoch.

Enoch, being 65 years, begat Methuselah.

Methuselah, at the age of 187, begat Lamech.

Lamech, being 182 years, begat Noah.

Noah, at the coming of the flood, was 600 years old, as appeareth in the 7th chapter of Genesis.

The whole sum of the years are 1656.

FROM the flood of Noah unto Abraham's departing from Chaldea, were 422 years and ten days.

For the said flood continued one whole year and ten days.

Shem, (who was Noah's son) begat Arphaxad two years after that.

Arphaxad begat Salah when he was 35 years old.

Salah, being 30 years old, begat Eber.

Eber, at the age of 34, begat Peleg.

Peleg, being 30 years, begat Reu.

Reu, being 32 years, begat Serug.

Serug, being 30 years, begat Nahor.

Nahor, being 29 years, begat Terah.

Terah, being 130 years, begat Abram.

And Abraham departed from Chaldea when he was 70 years old.

These, accounted, are 422 years and 10 days.

FROM Abraham's departing from Ur in Chaldea unto the departing of the children of Israel, are 430 years, gathered as followeth:

Abraham was in Charran five years, and departed in the 75th year:

Begat Isaac when 100 years old, in the 25th year of his departing.

Isaac begat Jacob, when 60 years old.

Israel was in Egypt 220 years.

Then deduct 80 years from this; for so old was Moses when he conducted the Israelites from Egypt.

So the rest of the years, that is to say, 130, are divided between Amram and Kohath.

Then Kohath begat Amram at the age of 67 years.

Amram being 65 years, begat Moses, who, in the 80th year of his age, departed with the Israelites from Egypt.

So this chronology is the 430 years mentioned in the 12th chapter of Exodus, and the 3d chapter to the Galatians.

FROM the going forth of the Israelites from Egypt, unto the first building of the temple, are 480 years, after this chronology and account.

Moses remained in the desert or wilderness 40 years.

Joshua and Othniel ruled 40 years.

Ehud, 80 years.

Deborah, 40 years.

Gideon, 40 years.

Abimelech, 3 years.

Tola, 23 years.

Jair, 22 years.

Then they were without a captain, until the 18th year of Jephthah.

Jephthah, 6 years.

Ibzan, 7 years.

Eli, 10 years.

Abdon, 8 years.

Samson, 20 years.

Eli, judge and priest, 44 years.

Samuel and Saul reigned 40 years.

David was king 40 years.

Solomon, in the 4th year of his reign, began the building of the temple.

These are the 480 years mentioned in the first book of Kings, chap. vi.

FROM the first building of the temple, unto the captivity of Babylon, are 419 years and an half.

Solomon reigned yet 36 years.

Rehoboam, 17 years.

Abijah, 3 years.

Asa, 41 years.

Jehoshaphat, 25 years.

Jehoram, 8 years.

Ahaziah, 1 year.

Athaliah, the queen, 7 years.

Jehoash, 40 years.

Amaziah, 29 years.

Uzziah, 52 years.

Jehoahaz, 16 years.

Ahaz, 16 years.

Hezekiah, 29 years.

Manasseh, 55 years.

Amon, 2 years.

Josiah, 31 years.

Jehoahaz, 3 months.

Eliakim, 11 years.

Jehoiachin, Jechonias, 3 months.

And here beginneth the captivity of Babylon.

The sum of these years is 419 and 6 months.

JERUSALEM was re-edified, and built again after the captivity of Babylon, 70 years.

The captivity continued 70 years.

The children of Israel were delivered the first year of Cyrus.

The temple was begun to be built in the second year of the said Cyrus, and finished in the 46th year, which was the 6th year of Darius. After that Darius had reigned 20 years, Nehemiah was restored to liberty, and went to build the city, which was finished in the 32d year of the said Darius.

All the years from the building of the temple again, are 26 years.

The whole sum of years amount to 70.

FROM the re-edifying of the city, unto the coming of Christ, are 483 years after this chronology.

It is mentioned in the ninth chapter of Daniel, that Jerusalem should be built up again, and that from that time, unto the coming of Christ, are 69 weeks, and every week is reckoned for 7 years. So 69 weeks amount to 483 years; for, from the 32d year of Darius, unto the 42d year of Augustus, in which year our Saviour Christ was born, are just and complete so many years; whereupon we reckon, that from Adam unto Christ, are 3974 years, six months, and ten days; and from the birth of Christ, unto this present year, is 1815.

Then the whole sum and number of years, from the beginning of the world unto this present year of our Lord God 1815, are 5789 years, six months, and the said odd ten days.

JUDEA, PALESTINE, OR THE HOLY LAND.

PALESTINE is bounded on the north, by Mount Libanus, or Lebanon, which separates it from that part of Syria, anciently called Phœnicia; on the east by Mount Hermon, which divides it from Arabia Deserta; on the south by Arabia Petrea; and on the west by the Mediterranean Sea, or sea of Syria.

This country received the name of Palestine from the Philistines, who dwelt on the sea coast: it was called Judea, from Judah: and it is termed the Holy Land, being the country where Jesus Christ was born, preached his holy doctrines, confirmed them by miracles, and laid down his life for mankind. Palestine is about one hundred and eighty-five miles in length, and generally eighty in breadth; it is situated between 31° and 33° 40' north latitude.

The climate of Palestine is, during a great part of the year, very hot. The easterly winds are usually dry, though they are sometimes tempestuous; and those which are westerly, are attended with rain. The heat here might be expected to be excessive; yet Mount Libanus, from its uncommon height, is covered all the winter with snow.

The first rains, as they are called, generally fall about the beginning of November; and the latter rains, in the month of April. In the country round Jerusalem, if a moderate quantity of snow falls in the beginning of February, and the brooks soon after overflow their banks, it is thought to forebode a fruitful year; and the inhabitants make rejoicings upon this occasion, as the Egyptians do with respect to the Nile: this country is seldom refreshed with rain during the summer season.

The rocks of Judea are, in many places, covered with a soft chalky substance, in which is enclosed a great variety of shells and corals. The greatest part of the mountains of Carmel, and those of Jerusalem and Bethlehem, are overspread with a white chalky stratum. In mount Carmel, are gathered many stones, which, being in the form of olives, melons, peaches, and other fruit, are imposed upon pilgrims, not only as those fruits petrified, but as antidotes against several diseases.

With respect to the rivers of the country, the Jordan, called by the Arabs Sceriah, is not only the most considerable, but, next to the Nile, is the largest, either in the Levant or in Barbary. It has its source at the bottom of Mount Libanus or Lebanon, and is formed from the waters of two fountains, which are about a mile distant from each other. One of them lies to the east, and is called Jor; the other, which is exposed to the south, is named Dan. The confluence of the two streams is found near the ancient city of Cesarea Philippi, which is at present only a village, and called Beline. The river takes a course between the E. and S. and after running seven miles, falls into the lake Samochon or Mathon, at present called Huletpanias, about six miles in length, from north to south, and nearly four in breadth, from east to west. The Jordan issues from this lake, and flows through a great plain, passing under a stone bridge called Jacob's Bridge, consisting of three arches, well constructed. The river then continues its course as far as the lake of Tiberias, near the ancient cities of Chorazin and Capernaum, where it mixes with its waters. When it issues from this lake, which is about eighteen miles in length, and eight in breadth, it takes the name of Jordan Major, dividing Perea from Samaria, the plains of the Moabites from Judea, and receiving the waters of the Dihon, the Jazer, the Jacob, and the Carith; after being augmented by these streams, in a course of sixty-five miles from the lake of Tiberias, or sea of Galilee, it discharges itself into the Dead Sea. The Jordan, in the rainy seasons, overflows its banks, to the distance of more than four miles; and on account of the inequality of the ground, forms two or three channels. Its current is extremely rapid, and the water always muddy: but when taken from the river, and put into any kind of vessel, it very soon clarifies, and is sweet.

The Dead Sea is a name of modern date; the ancients called it the lake of Asphaltites, the sea of Sodom, the Salt sea, the lake of Sirbon; the Arabs name it Bahieret-Lut: that is, the sea of Lot. It is about fifty miles in length, and ten in breadth. The lofty mountains of the country of the Moabites are on the eastern side, and discharge into it the waters of Arnon and the Jaret. On the west and south it is bounded by very high mountains also. It is likewise on the west that the brook Cedron, which rises at Jerusalem, empties into this sea.

We are informed that this vast lake was covered formerly with fruit trees and abundant crops, and that from the bosom of the earth, now buried under its waters, arose the superb cities of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zebulim and Segor. No plants of any kind grow in this lake. The bottom of it is black, thick, and fetid. Branches of trees, which fall therein, become petrified in a little time. The Dead Sea produces a kind of bitumen, which may be found floating on the surface, like large lumps of earth. This bitumen is a sulphurous substance, mixed with salt; it is as brittle as black pitch, is combustible, and exhales, while burning, a strong and penetrating smell. The ancient Arabs used it for smearing and embalming their dead, to preserve them from perishing. The mountains near this sea produce a kind of black stone, which, when polished, has a beautiful lustre.

Acra, or Acre, (now called St. John de Acre, and which the Arabs call Accho, or Akka,) is one of the places from which the Israelites could not expel the ancient Canaanites, and was formerly reckoned among the ancient cities of Phœnicia. It is also known by the name of Ptolemais. The situation is advantageous; on the north and east, it is encompassed by a fertile plain; on the west it is washed by the Mediterranean; and on the south by a large bay, which extends from the city as far as Mount Carmel. It contains little more than a few cottages, and heaps of ruins. The residence of the bashaw of the province is at this place.

To the south of Acre, is Sebastia, the ancient Samaria, the capital of the ten tribes after their revolt from the house of David. It is seated on a long mount, which rises in a fruitful valley, and is now converted into gardens.

A little farther to the south is Naplosa, the ancient Sychem, which stands in a narrow valley, between Mount Ebal on the north, and Gerizim on the south. At a small distance from Naplosa, is Jacob's well, famous for Christ's conference with the woman of Samaria.

Jerusalem is encompassed with hills, so that the city seems as if situated in an amphitheatre: there are few remains of the city, as it appeared in Christ's time; the situation being changed; for, Mount Sion, the highest part of ancient Jerusalem, is almost excluded: while the places adjoining to Mount Calvary, are nearly in the centre. This city, which is about three miles in circumference, is situated on a rocky mountain, on all sides of which are steep ascents, except towards the north. The walls are not strong, nor have they any bastions. The city has six gates. There are supposed to be about twelve or fourteen thousand inhabitants in Jerusalem.

Jasa, the ancient Joppa, is the port where the pilgrims disembark. They generally arrive in November, and repair without delay to Jerusalem.

Bethlehem, also called Ephrata, and the city of David, is famous for being the birth-place of Christ. It is about two miles to the S. E. of Jerusalem, on the ridge of a hill; at present only an inconsiderable place.

Raha, the ancient Jericho, is eighteen miles N. E. of Jerusalem, situated in a plain six or seven leagues long, by three wide, surrounded by a number of barren mountains.

Habroun, or Hebron, is twenty-four miles S. of Bethlehem. The Arabs call it El-Kabil, the well-beloved. It is situated at the foot of an eminence, on which are some remains of an ancient castle.

Nazareth, now only a small village, is on the top of a high hill.

Cana of Galilee, otherwise called Cana Minor, celebrated for the miracle wrought by Christ, of changing the water into wine, is nothing more than a small village, with very few inhabitants.

Sidon, called by the Turks Sayd, is situated on the sea-coast. It was anciently a place of great strength, and had a very extensive commerce. Though it is still populous, and a place of considerable trade, it has fallen from its ancient grandeur. Its exports consist in silks, with raw and spun cotton; the manufacturing of which employs most of the inhabitants, amounting to about five thousand. The city is defended by an old castle, built in the sea.

Tyre, called by the Turks Soar, is about twenty miles to the south of Sidon. It was once very celebrated for its purple, called the Tyrian dye, produced from a shell-fish. This city was, in ancient times, the centre of an immense commerce and navigation, and the nurse of arts and sciences. The ancient city stood, originally, on an island, joined to the main land by a mole; the remains of which appear at present. It has two harbours; that on the north side is very good; but the other is choked up with ruins. The present inhabitants are only a few poor fishermen, who live in vaults and caves.

Cesarea was at first called Strabo's Tower; and was the capital of Palestine. This city was divided into two parts by a little hill, where on was erected a temple dedicated to Cesar.

Jericho is situated in a large plain about twenty miles long, and ten broad, bounded by a variety of mountains on the south-west, the west, and north; it is at present inhabited by a few miserable Arabs.

The Mount of Forty days, is situated on the north side of the plain of Jericho: the summit is covered neither with shrubs, trees, nor earth, but consists of a solid mass of white marble: it is very difficult and dangerous to ascend, the path leading by a winding course, between two dismal abysses. This mountain is one of the highest in the province, and one of its most sacred places. It takes its name from the rigorous fast which Christ observed here. From this mount may be seen the hills of Arabia, the country of Gilead, the country of the Ammonites, the plains of Moab, and that of Jericho, the river Jordan, and the whole extent of the Dead Sea. Opposite to Jericho, beyond Jordan, rises mount Nebo.

Mount Carmel, on the south side of the bay of Acre, projects at one part into the sea, forming a great promontory, called the point of Carmel. There are a number of grottos, gardens, and convents, on this mount; as also many cisterns for receiving the rain water. On this mountain was a fortress called Ecbatane.

Mount Tabor is most delightfully situated, rising amidst the plains of Galilee, distant about twelve miles from the city of Tiberias; it is distinguished by different names, as Itabyrion, Taburium, and by the Arabs Gibel-el-Tor. It is in appearance like a sugar-loaf, and is covered from the top to the bottom with small trees.

Palestine, which comprehends the ancient country of Canaan, and was occupied by nine tribes of Israel, has experienced many and severe revolutions: the extreme fertility of the country, and its many advantages and happy situation, induced the neighbouring and powerful kingdoms to attempt its subjection: most of them succeeded in reducing to obedience and slavery, the peaceable inhabitants: the Persians, Saracens, Syrians, and Romans, have alternately been masters, for a time, and then obliged to yield to superior force: they treated the conquered with the utmost barbarity, and committed the greatest devastation and slaughter; not even sparing old or young, women, or helpless children. Thus it continued changing its ferocious masters, until, in the twelfth century, the Turks taking Cesarea, the whole country fell into their possession; and has continued under their power ever since: The innumerable scenes of blood and desolation exhibited in this country, have changed it from that happy, fruitful and prosperous state, so beautifully described in Deuteronomy, to an almost uninhabited desert, and heap of ruins; few traces of its ancient splendor remain; and confusion and doubt hang over all the researches of the enquirer.

The present masters exercise unlimited and tyrannical authority over their slaves, in Palestine, keeping the miserable inhabitants in the utmost subjection; governing them by Caliphs and Bashaws, with rods of iron; and holding them in the most deplorable ignorance and superstition.

I. St. STEPHEN, the Proto, or first martyr, was elected, with six others, as a deacon, out of the Lord's seventy disciples. Stephen was an able and successful preacher. The principal persons belonging to five Jewish synagogues entered into many altercations with him; but he, by the soundness of his doctrine, and strength of his arguments, overcame them all, which so much irritated them, that they suborned false witnesses to accuse him of blaspheming God and Moses. Being carried before the council, he made a noble defence, but that so much exasperated his judges, that they resolved to condemn him. At this instant Stephen saw a vision from heaven of Jesus, in his glorified state, sitting at the right hand of God. This vision so greatly rejoiced him, that he exclaimed in raptures, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God." They then condemned him, and having dragged him out of the city, stoned him to death. On the spot where he was martyred, Eudocia, the empress of the emperor Theodosius, erected a superb church.

THE death of Stephen was succeeded by a severe persecution in Jerusalem, in which 2000 christians, with Niccar the deacon, were martyred; and many others obliged to leave the place.

II. St. JAMES the GREAT, a Galilean, was the son of Zebedee, a fisherman, the elder brother of St. John, and a relation to Christ himself; for his mother Salome was cousin-german to the virgin Mary. Being one day with his father fishing in the sea of Galilee, he, and his brother John, were called by our Saviour to become his disciples. They cheerfully obeyed the mandate, and leaving their father, followed Jesus. It is to be observed, that Christ placed a greater confidence in them, than in any other of the apostles, Peter excepted.

CHRIST called these brothers Boanerges, or the sons of thunder, on account of their fiery spirits, and impetuous tempers.

HEROD Agrippa, being made governor of Judea by the emperor Caligula, raised a persecution against the christians; and particularly singled out James as an object of revenge.

JAMES, being condemned to death, shewed such an intrepidity of spirit, and constancy of mind, that his very accuser was struck with admiration, and became a convert to christianity. This transition so enraged the people in power, that they condemned him likewise to death; when James the apostle, and his penitent accuser were both beheaded on the same day, and with the same sword. These events took place in the year of Christ 44.

MUCH about the same period, Timon and Parmenas, two of the seven deacons, suffered martyrdom; the former at Corinth, and the latter at Philippi, in Macedonia.

III. St. PHILIP. This apostle and martyr was born at Bethsaida, in Galilee, and was the first called by the name of Disciple. He was honored with several important commissions by Christ, and being deputed to preach in Upper Asia, laboured very diligently in his apostleship. He then travelled into Phrygia, and arriving at Heliopolis, was greatly grieved to find the inhabitants so sunk in idolatry, as to worship a large serpent. St. Philip, however, converted many of them to christianity, and even procured the death of the serpent. This so enraged the magistrates, that they committed him to prison, had him severely scourged, and afterwards crucified. His friend, St. Bartholomew, found an opportunity of taking down the body and burying it; for which, however, he was very near suffering the same fate. His martyrdom happened eight years after that of St. James the great, A. D. 52.

IV. St. MATTHEW. This evangelist, apostle, and martyr, was born at Nazareth in Galilee, but resided chiefly at Capernaum, on account of his business, which was that of a toll-gatherer, to collect tribute of such as had occasion to pass the sea of Galilee. On being called as a disciple, he immediately complied, and left every thing to follow Christ. After the ascension of his master, he continued preaching the gospel in Judea about nine years. Designing to leave Judea, in order to go and preach among the Gentiles, he wrote his gospel in Hebrew, for the use of the Jewish converts; but it was afterwards translated into Greek by St. James the less. Going to Ethiopia he ordained preachers, settled churches, and made many converts. He then proceeded to Parthia, where he had the same success; but returning to Ethiopia, he was slain by a halbert in the city of Nadabar, about the year of Christ 60. He was remarkably inoffensive in his conduct, and temperate in his mode of living.

V. St. MARK. This evangelist and martyr was born of Jewish parents, of the tribe of Levi. It is imagined, that he was converted to christianity by St. Peter, whom he served as an amanuensis, and whom he attended in all his travels. Being entreated by the converts at Rome to commit to writing the admirable discourses they had heard from St. Peter and himself: this request he complied with, and composed his gospel accordingly, in the Greek language. He then went to Egypt, and constituted a bishopric at Alexandria: afterwards he proceeded to Lybia, where he made many converts. Returning to Alexandria, some of the Egyptians, exasperated at his success, determined on his death. To accomplish this they tied his feet, dragged him through the streets, left him to remain, bruised as he was, in a dungeon all night, and the next day burned his body. This happened on the 25th of April. His bones were carefully gathered up by the christians, decently interred, and afterwards removed to Venice, where he is considered as the tutelar saint, and patron of the state.

VI. St. JAMES the less. This apostle and martyr was called so to distinguish him from St. James the great. He was the son, by a first wife, of Joseph, the reputed father of Christ: he was, after the Lord's ascension, elected bishop of Jerusalem: he wrote his general epistle to all christians, and converts whatever, to suppress a dangerous error then propagating, viz. "That a faith in Christ was alone sufficient for salvation, without good works." The Jews being, at this time, greatly enraged that St. Paul had escaped their fury, by appealing to Rome, determined to wreak their vengeance on James, who was now 94 years of age: they accordingly threw him down, beat, bruised, and stoned him; and then dashed out his brains with a club, such as was used by fullers in dressing cloths.

VII. St. MATTHIAS. This apostle and martyr was called to the apostleship after the death of Christ, to supply the vacant place of Judas, who had betrayed his master, and was likewise one of the seventy disciples. He was martyred at Jerusalem, being first stoned, and then beheaded.

VIII. St. ANDREW. This apostle and martyr was brother to St. Peter, and preached the gospel to many Asiatic nations. Arriving at Edessa, the governor of the country, named Egeas, threatened him very hard for preaching against the idols there worshipped. St. Andrew persisting in the propagation of his doctrines, he was ordered to be crucified on a cross, two ends of which were transversely fixed in the ground. He boldly told his accusers, that he would not have preached the glory of the cross, had he feared to die on it. And again, when they came to crucify him, he said, that he coveted the cross, and longed to embrace it. He was fastened to the cross, not with nails but cords, that his death might be more lingering. In this situation he continued two days, preaching the greatest part of the time to the people; and expired on the 30th of November.

IX. St. PETER. This great apostle and martyr was born at Bethsaida in Galilee, being the son of Jonah, a fisherman, which employment St. Peter himself followed. He was persuaded by his brother to turn christian, when Christ gave him the name of Cephas, implying in the Syriac language, a rock. He was called, at the same time as his brother, to be an apostle; gave uncommon proofs of his zeal for the service of Christ, and always appeared as the principal speaker among the apostles. He had, however, the weakness to deny his master, after his apprehension, though he defended him at the time; but the sincerity of his repentance made an atonement for the atrociousness of his crime.

THE Jews, after the death of Christ, still continued to persecute the christians, and even went so far as to order several of the apostles, among whom was Peter, to be scourged. This punishment they bore with great fortitude, and rejoiced that they were thought worthy to suffer for the sake of Christ.

HEROD Agrippa having caused St. James the great to be put to death, and finding that it pleased the Jews, resolved, in order to ingratiate himself farther with the people, that Peter should fall a sacrifice to their malice. He was accordingly apprehended, and thrown into prison; but an angel of the Lord released him, which so enraged Herod, that he ordered the centinels, who guarded the dungeon in which he had been confined, to be put to death. St. Peter, after various other miracles, retired to Rome, where he defeated all the artifices, and confounded the magic of Simon, the magician, a great favourite of the emperor Nero: he likewise converted to christianity one of the concubines of that monarch, which so exasperated the tyrant, that he ordained both St. Peter and St. Paul to be apprehended. During the time of their confinement, they converted two of the captains of the guard, and 47 other persons to christianity. Having been nine months in prison, Peter was brought out from thence for execution, when, after being severely scourged, he was crucified with his head downwards; which position, however, was at his own request. He, as well as Paul, suffered on the 29th day of June. His body being taken down, embalmed, and buried in the vatican, a church was afterwards erected on the spot; but this being destroyed by the emperor Heliogabalus, the body was removed, till the 20th bishop of Rome, called Cornelius, conveyed it again to the vatican: afterwards Constantine the great erected one of the most stately churches in the universe over the place. Before we quit this article it is requisite to observe, that previous to the death of St. Peter, his wife suffered martyrdom for the faith of Christ, and was exhorted, when going to be put to death, to remember the Lord Jesus.

X. St. PAUL, the apostle and martyr, was a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin, born at Tarsus, in Cilicia. He was at first a great enemy to, and persecutor of the christians; but after his miraculous conversion he became a strenuous preacher of Christ's gospel. At Iconium, St. Paul and St. Barnabas were near being stoned to death by the enraged Jews; wherefore they fled to Lycaonia. At Lystra, St. Paul was stoned, dragged out of the city, and left for dead. He, however, happily revived, and escaped to Derbe. At Philippi, Paul and Silas were imprisoned and whipped; and both were again persecuted at Thessalonica. Being afterwards taken at Jerusalem, he was sent to Cesarea, but appealed to Cesar at Rome. Here he continued a prisoner at large for two years. Being released, he visited the churches of Rome, and preached in France and Spain. Returning to Rome, he was again apprehended, and, by the order of Nero, martyred, by being beheaded.

XI. St. JUDE, the apostle and martyr, the brother of James, was commonly called Thaddeus. Being sent to Edessa, he wrought many miracles, and made many converts, which stirring up the resentment of people in power, he was crucified, A. D. 72.

XII. St. BARTHOLOMEW preached in several countries, performed many miracles, and healed various diseases. He translated St. Matthew's gospel into the Indian language; and propagated it in that country: but at length, the idolaters growing impatient with his doctrines, severely beat, crucified, and flayed him, and then cut off his head.

XIII. St. THOMAS, as he was called in Syriac, but Didymus in Greek, was an apostle and martyr. He preached in Parthia and India, where displeasing the Pagan priests, he was martyred by being thrust through with a spear.

XIV. St. LUKE, the evangelist and martyr, was the author of a most excellent gospel. He travelled with St. Paul to Rome, and preached to divers barbarous nations, till the priests in Greece hanged him on an olive-tree.

XV. St. SIMON, the apostle and martyr, was distinguished by the name of Zelotes, from his zeal. He preached with great success in Mauritania, and other parts of Africa, and even in Britain, where, though he made many converts, he was crucified by the then barbarous inhabitants of that island, A. D. 74.

XVI. St. JOHN. This saint was, at once, a prophet, apostle, divine, evangelist, and martyr. He is called the beloved disciple, and was brother to James the great. He was previously a disciple of John the Baptist, and afterwards not only one of the twelve apostles, but one of the three to whom Christ communicated the most secret passages of his life. The churches in Asia founded by St. John were, Smyrna, Pergamos, Sardis, Philadelphia, Laodicea, and Thyatira, to whom he directs his book of Revelations. Being at Ephesus, he was ordered by the emperor Domitian to be sent bound to Rome, where he was condemned to be cast into a caldron of boiling oil. But here a miracle appeared in his favour; the oil did him no injury, and Domitian therefore not being able to put him to death, banished him to Patmos to work at the mines. He was, however, recalled by Nerva, who succeeded Domitian after his decease, but was deemed a martyr on account of his having undergone the mode of an execution, though it did not take effect. He wrote his epistles, gospel, and revelations; all in a different style; but they are all equally admired. He was the only apostle who escaped a violent death: lived the longest of any of them, being near 100 years of age at the time of his death.

XVII. St. BARNABAS was a native of Cyprus, but of Jewish parents: the time of his death is uncertain, but supposed to be about the year of Christ 73.
